THIS 2018 MEDIA GUIDE FEATURES...

AUGMENTED REALITY

INTERACT!

In 2015, the Washington Redskins became one of the first teams in professional sports to feature augmented reality integration in an annual media guide.

Throughout our 2018 Media Guide, 20 pages including the cover feature embedded video content of great moments in Redskins history, current player highlights, draft moments and more.

1. Open the Apple App Store or Google Play Store and download the Layar app.
2. Open Layar.
3. Find pages that include this logo in the bottom corner (the cover also features video integration):

4. Tap the screen to scan.
5. Keep your phone pointed at the guide. A video featuring that player or team will appear on the page. Enjoy!

The following pages feature video content:

DANIEL M. SNYDER

OWNER

A self-made man and an entrepreneur at heart, Dan Snyder's life has been consumed by an enduring passion for the people, the team and the community he loves.

Growing up in the D.C. area and attending Redskins games with his father, Gerald, his youth and young adulthood were shaped and inspired by his devotion to the Washington Redskins. Since purchasing the team in 1999, Snyder has put his passion into action. He has consistently led the franchise to new prominence in the community, the business world and the National Football League. Under his leadership, the team has raised millions of dollars for charitable efforts and maintained its place in the top tier of the world's most valuable sports franchises.

Snyder, 53, continues to be one of the Washington area's most prominent community leaders and philanthropists. Shortly after purchasing the franchise in 1999, one of Snyder's first actions as owner was to create the Washington Redskins Charitable Foundation (WRCF) in 2000 to utilize the assets of the Redskins and their corporate and community partners to make a positive and measurable impact on youth development in the greater Washington, D.C., region. The foundation focuses on the areas of education, community outreach, and health and wellness, and since its inception, Charitable Foundation programs have made an impact on millions of lives and given back more than $23 million to individuals, groups and organizations in the community.

In 2017 alone, the Redskins Charitable Foundation hosted nearly 125 events for children and their families, encompassing a broad spectrum of efforts that included supporting more than 23,000 children's literacy efforts through its Redskins Read Program and expanding an innovative in-school health and wellness program for seventh graders by serving more than 7,000 children in three local school districts. Several new targeted initiatives were also launched to support student success, including the Aspire Initiative, which focuses on inspiring, educating and building confidence in girls from the local community.

Snyder's philanthropy has even transcended American borders. In the wake of the devastation of Hurricane Matthew in the Caribbean in the fall of 2016, Snyder mobilized to use his private plane to deliver emergency supplies to the region. The efforts began with a plane delivery to the Bahamas, and shortly following a win against Baltimore a day later, Snyder dispatched two Redskins players of Haitian descent to hand-deliver medical supplies straight from the team's training staff to Hospital Bernard Mevs in Port Au Prince, Haiti. Asked on FOX NFL Sunday about his efforts to team up with his players to deliver aid, Snyder said, "What happened in Haiti was obvious. They were in need."

The trips were just the latest instance of Snyder's larger commitment to disaster relief, which has included substantial aid following a devastating tsunami in Indonesia and Thailand in 2004 and Hurricane Katrina in 2005. Following Snyder's 2016 efforts in the Caribbean, Bahamas Minister of Tourism Obie Wilchcombe said, "This organization led by example mobilizing immediately to bring relief to our people who are in need. It is our hope that other organizations will follow the example set by the Redskins."

Beyond his work with the WRCF and his contributions to disaster relief, Snyder has provided significant support to Children's National Medical Center and the National Center for Missing and Exploited Children (NCMEC). His support enabled construction of the Snyder Family Emergency Medicine and Trauma Center at Children's Hospital. He is a member of the Children's Hospital Foundation Board of Directors.

He also funded construction of the Daniel M. Snyder and Family Communication Center at the Center for Missing and Exploited Children. Each day, the Center handles hundreds of calls from around the nation from law enforcement organizations, parents of missing children, runaways seeking help, and people responding to the Center's well-known awareness campaigns on behalf of missing children. In May 2014, Snyder and his wife, Tanya, were honored with the Charles B. Wang International Children's Award at the NCMEC annual Hope Awards Dinner.

Locally, Snyder was the driving force behind the Redskins donating $35,000 to benefit the restoration of the historic Ashburn Colored School in Loudoun County following acts of vandalism in the fall of 2016. The single-room schoolhouse, operated from its opening in 1892 until 1957, served African American students from elementary school through high school. The donation allowed fundraising efforts to exceed their initial target of $100,000.

In March of 2014, Snyder and the Redskins launched the Washington Redskins Original Americans Foundation to help Tribal communities with the urgent challenges that plague their reservations. Since its inception, the Foundation has embarked upon more than 420 total projects across 60 Federally Recognized Tribes, spending in excess of $9 million to support Native American charitable causes. The Foundation aims to improve the quality of life for the nearly 700,000 people in those Tribal communities by focusing on the areas of economic development, health and community development, and education and youth programs.

Snyder's support has also impacted the military community, as under his leadership, the organization created Redskins Salute — the team's official military appreciation club — to amplify the Redskins' decade-long military appreciation initiatives into one comprehensive, year-round platform. The first-of-its-kind program among NFL teams serves, supports and thanks the military community by hosting a variety of events, including pre-game parties for military members prior to each home game, re-enlistment ceremonies at both team headquarters and FedExField, military appreciation events and more. In February 2016, Snyder partnered with the Gary Sinise Foundation to break ground on a new, specially adapted smart home for Capt. Luis Avila, a Redskins fan and veteran who was paralyzed during his time in the U.S. Army.

DANIEL M. SNYDER

In 2010, Snyder was honored by Beacon House, a non-sectarian, neighborhood-based organization that supports at-risk youth and families of the Edgewood Terrace community in Washington, D.C., during a community celebration to dedicate the football field at Edgewood Department of Parks and Recreation Center. That same year, Snyder was presented Youth For Tomorrow's Distinguished Leader Award in recognition of his years of support for the organization's private, residential school and counseling center in Bristow, Va., which has provided year-round care for more than 900 homeless and at-risk children ages 11-17 from Northern Virginia and the District of Columbia. In announcing the award at YFT's annual Burgundy and Gold Banquet, Hall of Fame Redskins Coach Joe Gibbs, who is also Founder and Chairman of Youth For Tomorrow, said, "Dan Snyder began his support of the kids at Youth For Tomorrow long before I ever considered returning to coach the team in 2004."

Beyond his charitable efforts, Snyder is prominent in the affairs of the NFL, where his expertise in the fields of marketing and media has been recognized with appointments to the Media Committee, the Business Ventures Committee, the Digital Media Committee (for which he serves as Co-Chair), the International Committee, the Stadium Committee, the Hall of Fame Committee (which oversees the Pro Football Hall of Fame in Canton, Ohio), and, separately, as a member of the Board of Trustees of the Pro Football Hall of Fame.

The Redskins, who continue to be ranked among the world's most valuable sports franchises on Forbes magazine's annual list, remain at the forefront of NFL marketing and business organizations. Since buying the team, Snyder has launched a highly successful retail arm, with several Official Redskins Stores in Virginia and Maryland, as well as mobile units for use at home games and other events.

In the summer of 2013, Snyder and the Redskins moved their annual Training Camp to Richmond, Va., hosting the team's training sessions at the brand new Bon Secours Washington Redskins Training Center. During the team's inaugural three-week stay in the capital, more than 165,000 attended walkthroughs and practices. In addition, the Redskins' outreach in the community included more than 5,000 kids impacted by the Charitable Foundation's Play 60 programs and cheerleading programs, as well as 200 high school coaches invited to a concussion clinic held by the Redskins.

In June 2012, Snyder and the Redskins reaffirmed the team's commitment to the Commonwealth of Virginia, announcing that the team will retain its corporate headquarters by improving its Loudoun County training facility. In the years since, Snyder and the Redskins have annually made improvements to the Inova Sports Performance Center at Redskins Park, including upgrades to the weight room, athletic training facility, locker room, hydrotherapy stations, media availability areas, in-house cafeteria and more.

During Snyder's 19 seasons as owner of the team, 27 different Redskins have earned a total of 51 Pro Bowl appearances, nine different Redskins have been named All-Pro, and 13 Redskins draft picks have been selected to the All-Rookie Team. In addition, four players from his tenure as owner, Darrell Green, Bruce Smith, Deion Sanders and Jason Taylor, have gone on to induction into the Pro Football Hall of Fame.

FedExField, the team's wholly-owned stadium in Landover, Md., boasts seating capacity for 82,000 people, and Snyder continues to spearhead efforts to improve the fan experience at the stadium. Tickets to Redskins games have been sold out for more than 40 years. Since he purchased the team, Snyder has invested more than $100 million in improvements to the facility, including high-speed escalators to the upper deck, updated signage, more than 1,000 flat-screen TVs in concourses and other areas, as well as the League standard-setting Owner's Club East and Owner's Club West private luxury suites. In 2010, the Redskins installed two new video boards – 30 feet high and 100 feet wide – in each of the end zones at FedExField. The screens feature state-of-the-art high definition LED displays and tripled the size of the previous end zone video displays. The team also enhanced the fans' gameday experience with all-new game clocks, play clocks and other in-stadium video displays.

Over the last several years, Snyder and the entire Redskins organization have spearheaded efforts to enhance FedExField's guest experience. Among the improvements implemented with success in recent years have been an increase in the number of stadium gates and new parking plans to reduce congestion and welcome fans in and out more efficiently. The Redskins also upgraded Wi-Fi throughout the stadium, creating better access to enhanced game day features on the Redskins Mobile App and complimentary access to the Red Zone Channel via NFL Mobile for season ticket members.

The club's media ventures include Redskins Nation, produced by the Redskins Broadcast Network, which is the league's only year-round, daily 30-minute television show. The team also produces television and radio broadcasts via Redskins.com, a robust editorial and social media staff, and Extreme Skins, the team's fan forum. The team also produces a variety of other television programs, broadcast independently as well as in partnership with local television outlets.

Snyder was Founder, Chairman and CEO of Snyder Communications, Inc. and was the youngest CEO of a New York Stock Exchange company at the time. From its launch in 1985, the company grew to a global organization of 12,000 employees with 77 offices in 17 countries and more than $1 billion in annual revenues. The company's client base included 200 of the Fortune 500, to which it provided targeted marketing solutions, including advertising and marketing services. In March 2000, the company was acquired by the French marketing firm Havas for more than $2.3 billion, at the time the largest such merger in the history of the advertising/marketing industry.

Snyder is Founder and Chairman Emeritus of inVentiv Health. Additionally, Snyder is Founder and Managing Member of the Board of Red Zebra Broadcasting, LLC, which operates radio stations in Maryland, Virginia and the District of Columbia airing Redskins broadcasts, popular national radio shows and locally generated programming. Snyder is active in a variety of other private business ventures, both as an investor and as an advisor to management. He is a frequent invitee to share his experiences and views with business organizations nationwide, and he is enshrined in the Greater Washington Jewish Sports Hall of Fame.

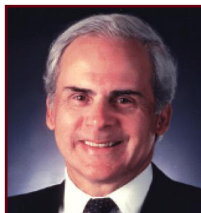

Snyder and his wife, Tanya, have three children and live in Potomac, Md.

REDSKINS OWNERSHIP HISTORY

OWNERSHIP GROUP

Daniel M. Snyder has surrounded himself with trusted advisors and supporters since the early days of his business career, from his home office as a teenager through the founding of Snyder Communications in Bethesda, Md., to ownership of the Washington Redskins. It is those family members and associates who round out the ownership group of the Washington Redskins.

Before launching a business initiative or making a critical business decision, they are the key individuals Snyder has turned to as partners, advisors and confidants.

Snyder's sister Michele Snyder, a founder of Snyder Communications, shares his ambitious spirit. Her creativity, operational skills, and business instincts have played an instrumental role in the success of Team Snyder over the years.

Calm and steadying influences have been the contributions of Gerry and Arlette Snyder, parents of the Redskins owner. A long-time journalist and author with more than two dozen books to his credit, Gerry Snyder was editor-in-chief of Snyder Communications during the early years of the company. Gerry Snyder died in 2003 at age 69.

Arlette Snyder, who maintains the family ownership position in the team, continues her role as a primary advisor to the owner and his other partners.

Robert Rothman is Chairman and CEO of Black Diamond Group, Inc., a private investment firm in Tampa, Florida. He was the founding Chairman and Chief Executive Officer of Consolidated International Group, Inc., which owned and operated insurance companies in Europe and North America, from 1987 to 1999.

He obtained a B.A. in Economics from Queens College of the City University of New York, and an MBA from the University of Chicago, Graduate School of Business.

Rothman is active in numerous charities. Prior to Super Bowl XLIV in South Florida, Rothman and his wife, Peggy, along with Redskins President Bruce Allen and his wife, Ki-ersten, served on the host committee for an event honoring NFL all-time winningest coach Don Shula and benefiting the H. Lee Moffitt Cancer Center & Research Institute in Tampa. He served as Chairman of the Board of H. Lee Moffitt Cancer Center & Research Institute, Inc. for eight years, and is a member of the Advisory Council for the University of Chicago Booth School of Business.

Dwight C. Schar is Founder and Chairman of the Board of NVR, Inc., the fourth-largest homebuilder in the United States. The company is comprised of the building operations of Ryan Homes and NVHomes. Also under the NVR umbrella is NVR Financial, which is comprised of NVR Mortgage and NVR Settlement Services. The company is based in Reston, Va., and is traded on the New York Stock Exchange. Schar has been extremely active in the greater Washington community and is involved in numerous business and educational groups. Previously, Schar served as a trustee of the Virginia Commonwealth University School of Engineering Foundation, was a member on the Virginia Business and Higher Education Council and was appointed to the President's Advisory Committee on the Arts for the Kennedy Center.

Schar has also served as National Finance Chair of the Republican National Committee and Director of Dick Clark Productions, Inc. and Johnny Rockets Group, Inc. In addition, he was a member of the Board of Directors for the Pittsburgh Pirates, First American Banks, the Northern Virginia Building Industry Association, Bell Atlantic Company of Virginia and the United Way of the Capital Area. Schar served on the Board for the Mercatus Center at George Mason University and has also been a trustee for the George Mason University Foundation, Ashland University and the Virginia Foundation of Independent Colleges. He has also been a council member of the Northern Virginia Roundtable and the Governor's Regional Economic Development Council. Schar is a graduate of Ashland University.

Frederick W. Smith is chairman, president and chief executive officer of FedEx Corporation, a global transportation, business services and logistics company.

After four years of service in the Marines, including two tours of duty in Vietnam, he launched the original air-ground Federal Express network which began operations in 1973 to serve the rapidly growing high tech/high value added sectors of the economy Smith had predicted. The company has since grown into a $58 billion global enterprise.

Smith is responsible for providing strategic direction for all FedEx operating companies: FedEx Services (including FedEx Office), FedEx Express, FedEx Ground and FedEx Freight. FedEx serves more than 220 countries and territories with operations that include 650 aircraft, more than 150,000 vehicles and more than 400,000 team members worldwide.

FedEx Express was the first service company to win the Malcolm Baldrige National Quality Award in 1990. FedEx has consistently been ranked on FORTUNE magazine's industry lists, including "World's Most Admired Companies," "100 Best Companies to Work For," and is on FORTUNE's "Blue Ribbon Companies List."

Smith is co-chair of the Energy Security Leadership Council, a Trustee for the United States Council for International Business, and a member of both the Business Council and Business Roundtable. He served as chairman of the U.S.-China Business Council and co-chair of the French-American Business Council. Smith has served on the boards of several large public companies – Malone and Hyde (AutoZone), First Tennessee, Holiday Inns, EW Scripps, and General Mills – and charitable organizations including St. Jude Children's Research Hospital and the Mayo Foundation. He was formerly chairman of the Board of Governors for the International Air Transport Association and chaired the executive committee of the U.S. Air Transport Association.

Smith has received several honorary degrees and numerous civic, academic, and business awards including the Global Leadership Award from the U.S.-India Business Council; the George C. Marshall Foundation Award; the Wright Brothers Memorial Trophy; and the Circle of Honor Award from the Congressional Medal of Honor Foundation. In addition, Smith is a member of the Aviation Hall of Fame and the Business Hall of Fame. He served as co-chairman of both the U.S. World War II Memorial project and the campaign for the National Museum of the Marine Corps. He has been named a top CEO by both BARRON'S and CHIEF EXECUTIVE magazine.

BRUCE ALLEN

PRESIDENT

Bruce Allen has come full circle. More than 30 years have passed since Allen resided in the Washington, D.C., region and was a ball boy for his father, George Allen, the late Hall of Fame head coach who led the "Over the Hill Gang" Washington Redskins to an NFC Championship in 1972 and an appearance in Super Bowl VII.

Allen joined the Redskins as the team's Executive Vice President/General Manager on December 17, 2009, after a decorated career spanning more than three decades, including serving as a general manager and executive with the Tampa Bay Buccaneers and the Oakland Raiders as well as recording a successful run in the USFL with the Chicago Blitz and the Arizona Wranglers.

"It's exciting because of the history, the tradition, the comfort about coming home," Allen said in 2009. "Everybody who knows me, knows that the principles of football in my mind are simple – it's a team. It's 53 men, the entire staff, everybody in the building going in the same direction for one common goal, and that's to win."

During Allen's tenure, the Redskins' focus and impact has far exceeded the mere scope of the playing field. In August 2011, Allen assumed the role of President of the Board of the Washington Redskins Charitable Foundation and has tirelessly worked hand-in-hand with the foundation to positively impact the lives of youth in the Washington, D.C. community. The foundation focuses on the areas of education, community outreach, and health and wellness, and since its inception, Charitable Foundation programs have made an impact on millions of lives and given back approximately $23 million to individuals, groups and organizations in the community.

Allen annually participates in many of the Foundation's signature events, including the Redskins Alumni Golf Classic, where he serves as Chairman, the Redskins Easter Egg Hunt, Fields for Tomorrow field dedications, the American Red Cross and the Leukemia & Lymphoma Golf tournament, among others. In early 2016, Allen and the organization accepted the inaugural Legacy Award from the Loudoun School-Business Partnership Executive Council for the team's exemplary work in going "above and beyond" for Loudoun County Students. Allen's philanthropic support also extends to efforts with Doug Williams' Washington Football Legends for Charity and Joe Gibbs' Youth For Tomorrow.

Allen also serves on a committee with the Friends of the National World War II Memorial, and in December of 2017, he spoke at the memorial's commemoration of the war's 75th anniversary, adding, "What those World War II veterans did are the reasons that we have other generations. It's the reason we can even play football and enjoy life. I'm honored to be around these heroes."

On the field, Allen's squads have earned seven division championships, with Washington marking the third different franchise (Oakland, Tampa Bay and Washington) he had helped lead to a division crown in that timeframe. Since 2000, only Allen and Rich McKay have guided multiple franchises to division titles as General Manager.

In May 2014, during an offseason in which Allen helped guide the franchise through a coaching transition and provided public leadership for the organization, the Redskins formally announced Allen as the team's President.

"So what we found is the guy that – I really come back to one of the greatest quotes I know in sports or life that former Washington Redskins coach Marv Levy, who is in the Hall of Fame, who said, 'Where would you rather be than right here, right now?'" Allen said while introducing Head Coach Jay Gruden.

Aside from his management of the Redskins' football operations and his dedication to the Redskins' charitable efforts, Allen has led initiatives to extend the Redskins' outreach to their former players and engage the team's vast alumni network.

"We owe them a great debt of gratitude for their accomplishments for building this game," Allen said. "Not just the three Super Bowl trophies, but the way they have represented themselves in the burgundy and gold."

Last fall, Allen and the Redskins welcomed back alumni for the team's annual Alumni Homecoming Weekend, which the Redskins hosted against the Dallas Cowboys in Week 8. Not including staff and coaches, players in attendance during various parts of the weekend's festivities represented more than 560 combined seasons of Redskins playing experience, 102 combined Super Bowl appearances and 65 combined Super Bowl titles, including 30 members of the 80 Greatest Redskins, 20 members of the Redskins Ring of Fame and four members of the Pro Football Hall of Fame.

In addition to his ongoing connection with Redskins alumni and charitable efforts, Allen is actively involved in fan outreach. He has taken the time to personally connect with Redskins fans all over the world via one-on-one meetings, Redskins Rally events, phone calls and e-mails to foster and strengthen the organization's relationship with its fans.

Allen's open dialogue with fans has been extended in recent years by his creation of popular fan forums in which season ticket members can connect directly with team executives across multiple departments. His commitment to improving the fan experience also extends to his mission to find the next home of the Washington Redskins, guiding the team's efforts to secure, build and develop a new stadium boasting an innovative, first-class fan experience.

Allen and his wife, Kiersten, have a son, George, and a daughter, Mikayla. Kiersten serves on the Moffitt Cancer Foundation Board of Directors, where she and Bruce have worked to aid in the Foundation's mission to contribute to the prevention and cure of cancer.

Allen was drafted by the Baltimore Colts as a 12th-round selection in 1978 out of the University of Richmond. He played for the Spiders from 1974-77, earning All-ECAC and All-South Independent honors in his junior season, when he ranked 16th in the nation and broke a school punting record with a 42.9-yard average. He earned his degree in business marketing, and in February 2016, he was honored with induction into the University of Richmond's Athletics Hall of Fame.

Allen's late father George, who was elected to the Pro Football Hall of Fame in 2002, was Head Coach of the Redskins from 1971-77. He amassed a 67-30-1 record and an appearance in Super Bowl VII in seven seasons in Washington. George never had a losing campaign in 12 seasons as an NFL head coach, including his seven years at the helm of the Redskins.

Like his father, who developed the original Redskins Park, Bruce helped spearhead the effort for facility improvements to provide the Redskins a state-of-the-art team headquarters equipped with every necessary amenity and competitive advantage to support the football operation. Allen also played a key role in the team moving its annual training camp to Richmond, Va., beginning in 2013 at the world-class Bon Secours Washington Redskins Training Center.

Bruce's brother George served as Virginia governor and as a U.S. Senator from Virginia. He also has two other siblings, Greg, a psychologist specializing in family counseling and Founder of Freedom4U in Southern California, and Jennifer Allen Richard, an author and contributor to the NFL Network.

JAY GRUDEN

HEAD COACH

15TH NFL SEASON // 5TH WITH REDSKINS

Jay Gruden enters his fifth season with the Washington Redskins in 2018 after being named the 29th head coach in franchise history on January 9, 2014.

Previously a decorated quarterback in the college and Arena Football League ranks and a successful NFL assistant, Gruden has showcased his offensive acumen honed from his diverse football background throughout his tenure with the Redskins.

In 2017, the Redskins won at least seven games for their third straight season for the first time since a four-year streak from 1999-2002, marking the fourth-longest streak of seven-win seasons in team history. Gruden's team reached seven wins despite dealing with substantial injury issues throughout the season, as 72 different players appeared in game action for the squad, the second-most used by the team in a single season since the 1970 AFL-NFL merger, trailing only the 108 used to complete the 1987 strike season.

Among the team's highlights in the 2017 season was the team's 4-0 record against NFC West opponents, the franchise's second full-division sweep since NFL realignment in 2002 and the team's first since 2005. The season also produced three Pro Bowlers, with linebacker Ryan Kerrigan, guard Brandon Scherff and tackle Trent Williams all earning return selections among the league's best.

A year earlier, Gruden guided the Redskins to an 8-7-1 record in 2016, giving the franchise back-to-back winning seasons for the first time since 1996-97. The team was led by Gruden's record-shattering offense, which posted team records in total net yards [6,545], net passing yards [4,758] and yards per play [6.40], ranking in the Top 3 in the NFL in all three categories.

Gruden's offense — once called "easily one of the three or four best designed offenses in the NFL" by Andy Benoit of The MMQB — was more than just historically efficient and explosive that season. The distribution of the offensive contributions allowed eight Redskins players [DeSean Jackson, Pierre Garçon, Jamison Crowder, Rob Kelley, Chris Thompson, Jordan Reed, Vernon Davis and Matt Jones] to finish the season with at least 500 yards from scrimmage, tying the 2011 New Orleans Saints for the most in a single season in NFL history.

In 2015, Gruden led the Redskins to an NFC East Championship, posting a 9-7 record to complete the second "worst-to-first" turnaround in team history. Gruden became the sixth coach in team history to lead the Redskins to a playoff berth within the first two years at the helm, joining Ray Flaherty, Dutch Bergman, Dudley DeGroot, George Allen and Joe Gibbs.

Under Gruden's guidance, the 2015 Redskins featured what was at the time the most prolific passing attack in franchise history. Quarterback Kirk Cousins, named the starter in the middle of the preseason, set then-single-season team records for attempts [543], completions [379], passing yards [4,166] and 300-yard passing games [seven] while throwing 29 touchdown passes, including at least one in all 16 games. Cousins' success coincided with the emergence of tight end Jordan Reed, who finished the season with 87 receptions for 952 yards [both team records for a tight end] with 11 receiving touchdowns.

Gruden assumed control of the Redskins in 2014 and guided the team through a campaign in which three different quarterbacks [Robert Griffin III, Kirk Cousins and Colt McCoy] recorded victories as starters. He installed an offensive system that produced two Pro Bowlers in his first season [tackle Trent Williams and running back Alfred Morris].

Excluding interim coaches, Gruden, 46 at the time of his hiring, became the team's youngest head coaching hire since hiring eventual Pro Football Hall of Famer Joe Gibbs at 40 years of age in 1981. He became the first Redskins head coach hired directly from an offensive coordinator role on another team since Norv Turner in 1994.

Before joining the Redskins, Gruden spent his previous three seasons as offensive coordinator for the Cincinnati Bengals. In his tenure in Cincinnati, the Bengals averaged 10 wins a season, making three consecutive playoff appearances and earning an AFC North championship in 2013. Members of the Bengals' offense accounted for seven Pro Bowl selections in his three seasons in Cincinnati.

Gruden was tasked with the development of quarterback Andy Dalton, a 2011 second-round pick. In three seasons together, Gruden helped Dalton to a 30-18 regular season record as a starter [625], as Dalton's 30 wins in that time frame ranked tied for fifth-most among NFL quarterbacks. Dalton's 80 passing touchdowns ranked third-most in NFL history for a quarterback in his first three seasons, trailing only Dan Marino [98] and Peyton Manning [85].

Prior to joining the Bengals, Gruden served two years with the Florida Tuskers of the United Football League from 2009-10. In 2009, Gruden served as offensive coordinator as the Tuskers compiled a 6-0 regular season record and earned a UFL championship game berth. In 2010, he assumed the roles of head coach and general manager and led the Tuskers to their second consecutive championship game appearance.

Gruden coached for seven seasons [2002-08] with the Tampa Bay Buccaneers, earning a Super Bowl championship ring as an offensive assistant in 2002. There he worked under his brother, Jon (then the Bucs' head coach), and current Redskins President Bruce Allen (the Bucs' general manager from 2004-08). Gruden helped guide the Buccaneers to the team's first championship, a 48-21 victory in Super Bowl XXXVII.

Gruden also ranks among the most outstanding players and coaches in the history of the Arena Football League, having won six combined league championships — four as a quarterback and two as a head coach. Gruden played quarterback [2002-03] and served as head coach [2004-08] of the AFL's Orlando Predators while simultaneously working as an offensive assistant with the Buccaneers. In all, Gruden served as head coach of the Predators for nine seasons [1998-2001 and 2004-08], leading the Predators to four championship game appearances and two league titles as a coach. During a two-year hiatus from coaching the Predators in 2002-03, he returned to the playing field as Orlando's quarterback, leading the Predators to playoff appearances in both seasons.

In his eight seasons as a player in the AFL, Gruden completed 1,673-of-2,775 passes (60.3 percent) for 21,578 yards with 398 touchdowns and 99 interceptions. In addition to his time with Orlando, he spent six seasons [1991-96] at quarterback for the Tampa Bay Storm, winning four AFL titles and being named MVP of ArenaBowl VII in 1993. He was also named the 1992 AFL Most Valuable Player and was honored with induction into the AFL Hall of Fame in 1999.

Gruden played quarterback for four seasons for former Redskins draft pick Howard Schnellenberger at the University of Louisville [1985-88] and was a two-time team MVP.

Gruden was born March 4, 1967, in Tiffin, Ohio. He and his wife, Sherry, have three sons — J.J., Joey and Jack — and a grandson, Trey.

Bill Callahan enters his fourth season with the Redskins in 2018 after initially joining the organization as the team's offensive line coach on January 15, 2015. The team added Assistant Head Coach to his title prior to the 2017 season.

Callahan is entering his 20th NFL season in 2017 as part of a career that includes head coaching stints at both the pro and collegiate levels as well as the 2002 AFC Championship with the Oakland Raiders. Entering 2018, Callahan has been a member of an offensive staff that finished in the Top 5 in the NFL in rushing or passing 11 times, including a No. 1 overall finish in rushing twice (2000, 2009) and passing once (2002). Callahan has had 12 offensive linemen combine for 27 Pro Bowl selections during his career and has guided his units in 19 career postseason contests at the NFL level.

In 2017, Callahan's tutelage was paramount in helping the offense overcome a season-long rash of injuries and still average nearly 325 yards per game. The Redskins used a total of 36 unique groups of offensive linemen (including seven different combinations of six-lineman groupings), as well as eight different starting lineups along the offensive line. In total, Callahan coached 28 different offensive linemen during the 2017 calendar year, including players on the offseason roster and on the practice squad. Among the newcomers Callahan developed were rookies Chase Roullier and Tyler Catalina, the former of whom blossomed from a sixth-round pick into a seven-game starter at center and the latter of whom performed at multiple positions after making the team as a college free agent.

Members of Callahan's 2017 unit were once again honored for their excellence, as guard Brandon Scherff earned his second Pro Bowl selection and tackle Trent Williams earned his sixth consecutive Pro Bowl nod despite battling a year-long knee injury. Together, Scherff and Williams became the first Redskins offensive line duo collectively named to the Pro Bowl in consecutive seasons since the duo of Russ Grimm and Joe Jacoby earned four straight selections following the 1983-86 seasons.

In the team's first two seasons under Callahan from 2015-16, the Redskins allowed 50 total sacks after allowing 58 sacks in the 2014 season alone. In 2016, powered in part by Callahan's offensive line, the Redskins set single-season team records in yards per game (403.4), yards per play (6.40), net passing yards (4,758), completions (407), passing first downs (226) and 500-yard games (three). The blocking and protection afforded by the unit allowed eight different Redskins players to finish the season with at least 500 yards from scrimmage, tying the 2011 New Orleans Saints for the most in a single season in NFL history.

The Redskins allowed 23 sacks in 2016, fourth-fewest in the NFL and tied for the seventh-fewest in team history since the league adopted sacks as an official statistic in 1982. The 2016 season also resulted in the fifth consecutive Pro Bowl selection for tackle Trent Williams and the first career Pro Bowl nod for guard Brandon Scherff. The dual selections marked the first time the Redskins had multiple offensive linemen selected to the Pro Bowl in the same season since 1991 (tackle Jim Lachey and guard Mark Schlereth).

In his first year in Washington in the team's NFC East title-winning campaign in 2015, Callahan was frequently credited for the largest year-over-year decline in sacks allowed in team history. A year after allowing 58 sacks in 2014, the Redskins held opponents to 27 sacks in Callahan's first year in 2015. The 31-sack turnaround was the largest in team history since the NFL began recognizing sacks as an official statistic in 1982, surpassing the 30-sack decrease between the 1998-99 seasons. The performance of the line as a unit helped garner Pro Bowl honors for Williams and PFWA All-Rookie honors for Scherff.

Prior to joining the Redskins, Callahan served as offensive coordinator/offensive line coach for the Dallas Cowboys from 2012-14 and helped guide the franchise to its first NFC East title since 2009 in his final season. In 2014, the Cowboys finished second in the NFL in rushing (1471) with running back DeMarco Murray leading the league in rushing and setting a Dallas franchise record with 1,845 yards. Callahan had two offensive linemen named to The Associated Press' 2014 All-Pro team (tackle Tyron Smith and guard Zack Martin) and had another (center Travis Frederick) selected with Smith and Martin to the Pro Bowl.

Callahan served as assistant head coach/offensive line coach of the New York Jets from 2008-11. During his four-year tenure with the Jets, the offense ranked second in the NFL in rushing yards per game (137.9) across those four seasons and appeared in two consecutive AFC Championship games (2009-10). In his four seasons, Callahan coached three offensive linemen to nine Pro Bowl appearances (Nick Mangold, 4; D'Brickshaw Ferguson, 3; and Alan Faneca, 2) and helped Mangold earn AP All-Pro honors in the 2009-10 seasons.

Prior to his time in New York, Callahan served as head coach at the University of Nebraska from 2004-07, leading the Cornhuskers to a Big 12 Conference Championship Game appearance in 2006 and two bowl invitations in his four seasons.

Callahan spent six seasons with the Oakland Raiders from 1998-2003, serving as offensive coordinator for four years before becoming the 13th head coach in Raiders history from 2001-02. In 2002, Oakland's offense set a team record for total offense with an NFL-best 6,237 yards and led the NFL in passing yards (4,689) en route to an appearance in Super Bowl XXXVII. He became the fourth rookie head coach in NFL history to earn a Super Bowl berth.

Before joining the Raiders, Callahan coached the offensive line for the Philadelphia Eagles from 1995-97. His unit helped the Eagles rank second in the NFC in passing, fifth in rushing and third in total offense in 1997. Prior to joining the Eagles, Callahan accrued 15 seasons of coaching experience in various capacities at Illinois (1980-86), Northern Arizona (1987-88), Southern Illinois (1989) and Wisconsin (1990-94).

Callahan started at quarterback for three seasons (1975-77) at Illinois Benedictine (Ilsle, Ill.) where he earned honorable-mention All-America honors in 1976 and 1977 and graduated with a bachelor's degree in physical education in 1978. In 2004, he was inducted into the Benedictine University Athletics Hall of Fame.

Callahan was born in Chicago, where he attended Mendel Catholic H.S. He and his wife, Valerie, have four children: daughters Cathryn and Jaclyn, and sons Brian and Daniel. His son, Brian, now serves as the quarterbacks coach for the Oakland Raiders.

2017-Pres.	Offensive Coordinator	Washington Redskins

Matt Cavanaugh enters his fourth season with the Redskins and his second as the team's offensive coordinator in 2018 after initially joining the organization as quarterbacks coach on January 28, 2015.

Cavanaugh boasts 25 seasons of previous coaching experience across the professional and collegiate levels. His NFL background also includes 14 combined seasons as a quarterback for the New England Patriots, San Francisco 49ers, Philadelphia Eagles and New York Giants from 1978-91.

Under Cavanaugh's guidance, Redskins quarterback Kirk Cousins posted the first stretch of three consecutive 4,000-yard seasons in team history in 2015-17 and became the first quarterback in NFL history to record at least 4,000 passing yards and four rushing touchdowns in three consecutive seasons.

In his first season as Washington's offensive coordinator in 2017, Cavanaugh helped the offense average nearly 325 yards per game despite enduring a rash of injuries that significantly impacted the offensive line and a number of key playmakers. The Redskins used 32 different players on offense, including eight different running backs (tied with Arizona for the most in the NFL) and 36 unique groups of offensive linemen (including seven different combinations of six-lineman groupings). The game plans and play-calling scripts devised by Cavanaugh and the coaching staff helped the Redskins score points on their opening possession nine times in 2017, the most opening-drive scores by the Redskins in a single season in records dating back to 1999.

In 2016, Cavanaugh's tutelage of Cousins was critical to a record-setting season for both the team as a whole and for the then-fifth-year quarterback. The Redskins set single-season team records in yards per game (403.4), yards per play (6.40), net passing yards (4,758), completions (407), passing first downs (226) and 500-yard games (three). Meanwhile, Cousins finished the year with single-season team records in attempts (606), completions (406) and passing yards (4,917) and matched his team record for 300-yard passing games (seven). Cousins' 4,917 passing yards ranked third in the NFL in 2016 and were the 15th-most in a season in NFL history.

Cavanaugh made an immediate impact in his first season in Washington in 2015, helping guide Cousins to single-season team records in attempts (543), completions (379), passing yards (4,166) and 300-yard passing games (seven) despite not being named the starter until midway through the preseason. Cavanaugh's coaching helped Cousins post an interception percentage of 2.0, the second-lowest by a Redskins quarterback with at least 400 attempts in a season all-time. After the season, quarterback Colt McCoy called Cavanaugh the team's "MVP" for his work with Cousins in 2015.

Prior to joining the Redskins, Cavanaugh served as quarterbacks coach of the Chicago Bears from 2013-14. In 2013, under Cavanaugh's tutelage, the Bears' quarterbacks rewrote the franchise single-season record books setting team records in passer rating (96.9), passing yards (4,450), passing touchdowns (32) and completion percentage (64.4). It was his second stint in Chicago after having served as the team's offensive coordinator from 1997-98.

Cavanaugh spent four seasons working with quarterbacks for the New York Jets from 2009-12. During those four seasons, the Jets made two AFC Championship game appearances.

Cavanaugh joined the Jets after four seasons as the offensive coordinator and quarterbacks coach at his alma mater, the University of Pittsburgh, from 2005-08. It was his second stint at Pitt after making his coaching debut in 1993 working with the Panthers' tight ends. As offensive coordinator, Cavanaugh helped tutor future NFL running backs LeSean McCoy and LaRod Stephens-Howling.

Cavanaugh served as the Baltimore Ravens' offensive coordinator from 1999-2004, a tenure that included the franchise's 34-7 Super Bowl XXXV victory in 2000. During that season, the Ravens ground game churned out a franchise-record 2,199 yards, fifth most in the NFL.

Prior to his first tenure in Chicago from 1997-98, Cavanaugh served as quarterbacks coach for the San Francisco 49ers in 1996, helping Steve Young lead the NFL in passer rating (97.2) and completion percentage (67.7). He got his first taste of NFL coaching in 1994, working as the quarterbacks coach of the Arizona Cardinals, a position he held for two years.

Cavanaugh won two Super Bowl titles as a backup quarterback with the New York Giants (Super Bowl XXV) and the 49ers (Super Bowl XIX). He was a second-round selection (50th overall) of the Patriots in 1978 NFL Draft, spending five seasons with New England (1978-82) before stints with the 49ers (1983-85), Eagles (1986-89) and Giants (1990-91). He appeared in 112 career contests with 19 starts, completing 305-of-579 passes for 4,332 yards and 28 touchdowns.

As a collegiate quarterback, Cavanaugh guided Pitt to the 1976 National Championship and was named the Sugar Bowl MVP after a 27-3 victory over Georgia. He earned All-America honors as a senior in 1977. Cavanaugh earned his bachelor's degree from Pitt in administration of justice.

A native of Youngstown, Ohio, Cavanaugh attended Chaney H.S. He is married to his wife, Maria, and has three children: Amy, Andrew and Mollie.

BEN KOTWICA
SPECIAL TEAMS COORDINATOR

12TH NFL SEASON
5TH WITH REDSKINS

1993-96	Linebacker	U.S. Military Academy
2005-06	Defensive Coordinator	USMA Prep School
2007-08	Quality Control – Def/ST	New York Jets
2009-12	Asst. Special Teams Coach	New York Jets
2013	Special Teams Coordinator	New York Jets
2014-Pres.	Special Teams Coordinator	Washington Redskins

Ben Kotwica enters his fifth season as the Redskins' special teams coordinator in 2018 after originally being named to the position on January 15, 2014.

Kotwica, now entering his 12th NFL season, spent the first seven years of his NFL career in various coaching capacities with the New York Jets. Before assuming the role of coordinator for the Jets in 2013, Kotwica assisted with the Jets' special teams in multiple roles across the 2007-12 seasons.

In 2017, Kotwica helped the Redskins rank second in the NFL in kickoff return average allowed at 18.7 yards per return, the team's lowest average allowed since 2001 (17.2). The performance guided the Redskins to their eighth Top 5 finish in the NFL (2008-11, 2015, 2017) in kickoff coverage in a 12-year span. Kotwica's unit accomplished the feat despite being forced by injury-related attrition to use 66 different players on special teams, the franchise's most in a season in participation data records dating back to 1993.

Kotwica oversaw a historic campaign in 2016, as kicker Dustin Hopkins converted 34-of-42 on field goal attempts, breaking the team record of 33 field goals set by Mark Moseley during the 1983 season. Hopkins tied a single-game team record and was named NFC Special Teams Player of the Week with a 5-for-5 effort in a Week 3 win against the New York Giants.

Two weeks later, Kotwica's unit produced another NFC Special Teams Player of the Week at Baltimore, as returner Jamison Crowder scored on an 85-yard punt return for a touchdown, the Redskins' first since Oct. 26, 2008, a 124-game drought. The dual honors marked the first time two different members of the Redskins earned NFC Special Teams Player of the Week honors in the same season as returner Santana Moss and punter Ryan Plackemeier each earned awards in Weeks 8 and 16 of the 2008 season, respectively.

In 2015, Kotwica deftly commanded a unit that used 60 different players in a special teams capacity during the Redskins' 9-7 division-winning campaign. The Redskins allowed only 20.1 yards per kickoff return, the fourth-best average in the NFL. Kotwica's game planning also helped the Redskins recover their first inside kick since 2007, as the Redskins successfully executed a surprise inside kick in the team's record-setting 24-point comeback win against Tampa Bay.

Kotwica's 2015 unit was directly responsible for three touchdowns, including a team-record-tying two kickoff return touchdowns and a blocked punt recovery for a touchdown. Kotwica and the Redskins also signed kicker Dustin Hopkins in Week 2, and the first-year kicker converted 25-of-28 field goal attempts and posted the third-best field goal percentage in team history (89.3), trailing only Mark Moseley (95.2 in 1982) and Kai Forbath (94.4 in 2012).

In his first season in Washington in 2014, Kotwica's tutelage and eye for talent helped first-year punter Tress Way (47.5 yards per punt) become the first member of the Redskins to lead the NFL in punting for a season since Sam Baker in 1958. Way's average ranked fourth in team history, a feat he accomplished in a season in which he was given 10 days to earn the punting job after being claimed off waivers late in the preseason. Kotwica also helped kicker Kai Forbath successfully convert 24-of-27 field goals (88.9 percent) in 2014.

Prior to Kotwica's arrival in Washington, the Jets accounted for 10 combined kick and punt return touchdowns during his time as an assistant in New York, tied for most in the AFC and tied for second-most in the NFL. The Jets averaged a league-best 24.6 yards per kick return in those six seasons and had a kick returner finish in the Top 5 in the NFL in kick return average four times (Joe McKnight, 2011 and 2012; Brad Smith, 2010; and Leon Washington, 2007). Kotwica helped Leon Washington earn his first career Pro Bowl berth as a kick returner following the 2008 season.

In addition to his football career, Kotwica's background includes his time as a decorated officer who spent eight years in the United States Army after graduating from the United States Military Academy at West Point. His military career included operations in Bosnia-Herzegovina, Korea and Iraq.

Kotwica was commissioned as a 2nd Lieutenant in the Aviation Branch of the Army and was selected to fly the AH-64 Apache Longbow, the world's best attack helicopter. He was an Attack Helicopter Platoon Leader in support of the 82nd Airborne Division from 1998-2001, where he was responsible for the health and welfare of 20 soldiers.

In 2000, Kotwica deployed to Bosnia-Herzegovina for eight months before returning to the states to attend the Aviation Captain Career course. He completed the course in the top 10 percent of his class. Two years later, he returned overseas to Camp Page, Korea where he served as a Military Intelligence Officer for six months. In early 2003, he was selected to serve as the Battalion Executive Officer for a unit comprised of more than 300 soldiers, 24 attack helicopters and more than $400 million worth of equipment.

In January 2004, he briefly returned to Fort Hood, Texas, to serve as the Training Officer for the 1st Cavalry Division. Two months later, he deployed in support of Operation Iraqi Freedom II, serving as a Combat Attack Helicopter Commander and flying more than 1,000 combat hours in support of five maneuver brigades within the 1st Cavalry Division. His missions included convoy security operations; VIP escorts for former President George W. Bush, former Secretary of Defense Donald Rumsfeld and former Secretary of State Condoleezza Rice; and search and destroy missions to suppress insurgent activities.

During his service, Kotwica was awarded with the Army Achievement Medal, the Army Commendation Medal, the Meritorious Service Medal and the Bronze Star.

Kotwica played at Army from 1993-96 and was a three-year starter at linebacker. He was the captain of the only 10-win team in Army history, leading the Black Knights to a 10-2 record and the program's most recent Commander-in-Chief's Trophy in 1996.

Kotwica and his wife, Christina, have four children: daughters, Analysa and Arianna, and sons, Christian and Brayden.

2011	Defensive Coordinator	San Diego Chargers
2012-15	Defensive Coordinator	Indianapolis Colts
2016	Outside Linebackers Coach	Washington Redskins
2017-Pres.	Defensive Coordinator	Washington Redskins

Greg Manusky is entering his seventh combined season as a player or coach with the Redskins in 2018 after returning to the organization as the team's outside linebackers coach on January 22, 2016. He was named the team's defensive coordinator on January 23, 2017.

Manusky returned to the Redskins in 2016 with 27 previous combined seasons of NFL experience, including 15 as a coach and 12 as a player. He entered the coaching ranks full-time with the Redskins in 2001 as the team's linebackers coach. During his 17 seasons as an NFL coach entering 2018, 12 different players have earned a total of 19 Pro Bowl selections under his tutelage.

In his first season as Washington's defensive coordinator in 2017, Manusky's defense produced the team's strongest season against the pass in nearly a decade. The unit ranked third in the NFL in completion percentage allowed (57.6 percent), the team's best ranking since leading the NFL in the category in 2005 (54.4), while finishing ninth in passing yards allowed per game (213.8, the team's lowest since 2009) and 10th in opponent passer rating (81.0, lowest since 2008). The group also posted 42 sacks, the franchise's most since 2000, led by linebacker Ryan Kerrigan, who earned his third Pro Bowl selection after leading Washington with 13.0 sacks.

The list of key contributors to the unit's performance under Manusky in 2017 spanned all positions and experience levels. Unrestricted free agent addition Zach Brown led the NFL in tackles through 15 weeks before missing the final three games of the season. Fellow free agent signing D.J. Swearinger earned immediate captaincy status before ever playing a snap for Washington and recorded a career-high four interceptions, tying for the team lead with cornerback Kendall Fuller, who emerged as one of the league's top slot corners in his second NFL season. Second-year defensive lineman Matt Ioannidis made a similar second-year jump, posting 4.5 sacks, while first-round pick Jonathan Allen was impressive despite being limited by injury to only five contests.

As outside linebackers coach in 2016, Manusky helped guide linebacker Ryan Kerrigan to his second career Pro Bowl selection. Kerrigan posted 11.0 sacks, becoming only the fifth player in team history to record multiple 10-sack seasons. Manusky's contributions were also key to linebacker Trent Murphy's breakout campaign in 2016, a year in which the third-year pro recorded 9.0 sacks after totaling 6.0 across his first two NFL seasons in 2014-15. Manusky's duo became the first pair to record at least nine sacks each in a single season for the Redskins since Andre Carter and Brian Orakpo in 2009.

Prior to his second coaching stint in Washington, Manusky served nine seasons as the defensive coordinator of the Indianapolis Colts (2012-15), San Diego Chargers (2011) and San Francisco 49ers (2007-10). The Colts won at least eight games in all four of Manusky's seasons in Indianapolis, earning three postseason berths including an AFC Championship appearance in 2014. The Colts recorded 10 interception returns for touchdowns during Manusky's four-year tenure, tied for second-most in the AFC and tied for fifth-most in the NFL in that time frame.

In 2014, Manusky guided a defense that helped record the team's third straight 11-5 regular season record and second consecutive AFC South Division Championship. From Weeks 4 through 7, the Colts only allowed one third down conversion in four straight games, marking the longest such streak by an NFL team since 1970. Safety Mike Adams, cornerback Vontae Davis and inside linebacker D'Qwell Jackson comprised the three defensive players to earn their first career Pro Bowl selection during the year.

Manusky spent the 2011 campaign as the defensive coordinator of the San Diego Chargers. Under his direction, the defense allowed an average of 224.4 net passing yards per game, and safety Eric Weddle tied for the NFL lead with seven interceptions and earned a trip to the 2012 Pro Bowl. Prior to joining the Chargers, Manusky spent four seasons (2007-10) as defensive coordinator of the San Francisco 49ers. His 2009 unit did not allow a touchdown in five separate games while forcing an NFL-best 21 fumbles, allowing just 3.6 yards per rush and recording 44.0 sacks.

Manusky's first tenure with the Chargers lasted four seasons (2002-06), during which time he served as the linebackers coach. In the 2006 campaign, San Diego linebackers accounted for 42.5 of the team's 61.0 regular season sacks. That season, linebacker Shawne Merriman tied the Chargers' franchise record with 17.0 sacks, becoming the first Charger to lead the league in sacks.

Manusky started his coaching career in 2000, working as a volunteer linebackers and special teams coach with the Tampa Bay Buccaneers during training camp. He then joined the Redskins staff in 2001 as the team's linebackers coach, helping guide LaVar Arrington to his first career Pro Bowl selection.

Throughout his career, Manusky has coached an impressive list of Pro Bowl players, including D'Qwell Jackson, Vontae Davis, Mike Adams and Robert Mathis with the Colts; Eric Weddle, Shawne Merriman, Junior Seau and Donnie Edwards with the Chargers; Justin Smith and Patrick Willis with the 49ers and LaVar Arrington with the Redskins.

Manusky was a linebacker and special teams standout during his 12-year NFL playing career in Washington, Minnesota and Kansas City, recording a stretch in which he participated in 113 consecutive games. Manusky earned All-Madden Team honors in 1991 and retired from the NFL in 2000.

A native of Wyoming, Pa., Manusky attended Dallas (Pa.) H.S. before moving on to Colgate University, where he was a four-year letterman and an All-Colonial League selection. As a senior in 1987, Manusky was named the Colonial League's Defensive Player of the Year. He graduated with degrees in education and geology.

Manusky and his wife, Laurie, have two sons, Colton and Jake, and two daughters, Logan and Chandler. Logan is a collegiate volleyball player at College of Charleston.

Kevin O'Connell enters his second season guiding the Redskins' quarterbacks in 2018 after joining the team on January 23, 2017. After spending one seasons as Quarterbacks Coach in 2017, he added the title of Passing Game Coordinator in the 2018 offseason.

In his first season in Washington in 2017, O'Connell helped quarterback Kirk Cousins complete 347-of-540 passes (64.3 percent) for 4,093 yards with 27 touchdowns and 13 interceptions for a passer rating of 93.9. Under O'Connell's guidance, Cousins recorded the fifth 4,000-yard passing season in team history and became the first player in team history and only the 11th player in NFL history to record a streak of at least three consecutive 4,000-yard passing seasons, joining Drew Brees, Peyton Manning, Matt Ryan, Matthew Stafford, Tom Brady, Philip Rivers, Dan Fouts, Trent Green, Eli Manning and Dan Marino.

O'Connell joined the Redskins after spending the 2016 season overseeing special projects for the San Francisco 49ers. A year earlier in 2015, O'Connell served as quarterbacks coach for the Cleveland Browns. There he worked with Josh McCown, who became the first player in Browns franchise history to throw for 300-or-more yards in three consecutive games, as he eclipsed the mark in each game from Week 3 to Week 5 that season. Under O'Connell, McCown also set a career high and Browns single-game record with 457 passing yards at Baltimore.

Originally a third-round pick (94th overall) by the New England Patriots in the 2008 NFL Draft, O'Connell spent time with the Patriots, Lions, Jets, Dolphins and Chargers during his five-year playing career (2008-12).

A four-year team captain at San Diego State (2004-07), O'Connell appeared in 40 games and finished his collegiate career ranked third in school history in completions (664), fourth in passing yards (7,689) and fifth in passing touchdowns (46). He also finished his career holding school records for career rushing yards by a quarterback (1,312), career rushing touchdowns by a quarterback (19) and single-season rushing touchdowns by a quarterback (11). In 2007, O'Connell became the first player in San Diego State history to lead the team in both passing (3,063) and rushing yards (408) in the same season. He earned his bachelor's degree in political science in 2007.

Born in Knoxville, Tenn., O'Connell attended La Costa Canyon H.S. in Carlsbad, Calif. He and his wife, Leah, have a son, Kaden, and a daughter, Quinn.

MALCOLM BLACKEN
DIRECTOR OF PLAYER DEVELOPMENT

21ST NFL SEASON
12TH WITH REDSKINS

Malcolm Blacken enters his sixth season as Director of Player Development in 2018 after being named to the position by the Redskins on March 13, 2013.

Blacken's hiring served to start his third stint with Washington after having previously served as a strength and conditioning coach for the Redskins on two occasions (1996-2000 and 2010). In his last season in Washington in 2010, Blacken was responsible for assisting with all aspects of the Redskins' strength and conditioning program.

In his current role, Blacken guides the development and education of Redskins players as it pertains to both their personal and professional lives. His guidance covers topics including but not limited to: financial education; healthy and unhealthy relationships; total wellness and mental health; league policies on substance abuse, performance enhancing drugs and personal conduct; social responsibility; social media; decision making; stress and time management; team history and tradition; and the expectations of being a player in the National Football League.

In addition, Blacken works hand-in-hand with the Washington Redskins Charitable Foundation and was a principal figure in instituting the team's Rookie Community Club, which annually takes the team's rookies and immediately integrates them into the Washington, D.C. area community through a series of service efforts. He also provides assistance with continuing education and offers guidance for players' academic pursuits.

From 2011-12, Blacken served as Director of Speed, Strength & Conditioning for the University of Colorado. He worked directly with the football program on a day-to-day basis while overseeing the speed, strength and conditioning needs of all 16 of Colorado's varsity programs.

In between his first two stops in Washington, Blacken spent nine years as the Detroit Lions' strength and conditioning coach from 2001-09. Blacken was an assistant strength coach for the University of Virginia's football program in 1995 and worked with all other sports in the Cavaliers' athletic department as well. For three years (1992-94), Blacken served as the head strength and conditioning coach for George Mason University, where he oversaw the program for all of the university's varsity sports.

Blacken began his coaching career at the University of South Carolina in 1990-91 as the football program's assistant strength and conditioning coach.

Blacken graduated from Virginia Tech in 1989 with bachelor's degrees in art and physical education. He was a Hokies running back from 1984-88 and was a four-time letter winner. While at Virginia Tech, Blacken was a two-time winner of the Super Iron Hokie Award (1987-88), which is given yearly to the football program's strongest player at each position.

Off the field, Blacken is an accomplished artist whose paintings have been displayed across the country. Recently he participated in the 2016 NFLPA Smocks and Jocks art auction in Houston for Super Bowl LI, with proceeds donated to the retired players fund. Chad Englehart is entering his ninth season with the Redskins and his second as the team's head strength and conditioning coach in 2018 after being promoted to the role during the 2017 offseason. He initially joined the team as an assistant strength and conditioning coach on February 26, 2010.

Prior to joining the Redskins, Englehart served as the head strength and conditioning coach with the Florida Tuskers of the United Football League in 2009. During that time, he worked with Redskins Head Coach Jay Gruden, who served as the Tuskers' offensive coordinator that season. The Tuskers finished with a perfect 6-0 regular season record before losing in the UFL's inaugural championship game.

In 2008, Englehart served as director of strength and conditioning at Xcel Sports Performance in Louisiana. Before that, he was head strength and conditioning coach in 2007 at HS2 Athletic Performance in Mandeville, La., and at the University of New Orleans in 2006.

Englehart holds a Master's degree in human movement with a concentration in corrective exercise from A.T. Still University. He also holds a bachelor's degree in kinesiology with a concentration in exercise science from Southeastern Louisiana University. He is a certified strength and conditioning specialist with the National Strength and Condition Association and is a Performance Enhancement Specialist and Corrective Exercise Specialist with the National Academy of Sports Medicine (NASM). Englehart also holds certifications with USA Weightlifting and USA Track and Field, Functional Movement Screen and TRX Suspension Training certifications as well as a Fitness Nutrition Specialist certification from the NASM and a 3DMAPS (3D Movement Analysis and Performance System) certification from Gray Institute.

Englehart and his wife, Lyndsey, have two daughters, Blair and Elise.

2013-15	Def. Secondary/Pass. Game Coord.	Virginia Tech
2016	Defensive Backs Coach	Florida
2017-Pres.	Defensive Backs Coach	Washington Redskins

Torrian Gray is entering his seventh NFL season and his fourth in a coaching capacity after joining the Redskins as the team's defensive backs coach on February 8, 2017.

Gray joined the Redskins in 2017 with 18 previous years of coaching experience overseeing defensive backfields. He helped develop a number of NFL defensive backs at the collegiate level, including cornerback Brandon Flowers, safety Kam Chancellor and cornerback Kyle Fuller, among others. He also oversaw the development of two Redskins draft picks, defensive back Kysheon Jarrett (2015) and cornerback Kendall Fuller (2016).

In his first season in Washington in 2017, Gray's defensive backs helped produce the team's strongest season against the pass in nearly a decade. The unit ranked third in the NFL in completion percentage allowed (57.6 percent), the team's best ranking since leading the NFL in the category in 2005 (54.4), while finishing ninth in passing yards allowed per game (213.8, the team's lowest since 2009) and 10th in opponent passer rating (81.0, lowest since 2008).

Gray reunited with former pupil Kendall Fuller, who developed into one of the league's top slot cornerbacks and tied for the team lead with four interceptions. Gray also integrated unrestricted free agent safety D.J. Swearinger into the defense and helped install him as one of the unit's leaders, as Swearinger earned captaincy status before ever playing a snap for Washington and finished the season with a career-high four interceptions. Gray also helped develop rookie safety Montae Nicholson, who flashed his talent in an injury-truncated rookie campaign, and contributed to the success of cornerbacks Josh Norman, Bashaud Breeland and Quinton Dunbar.

In 2016, Gray served as the defensive backs coach at the University of Florida. Under Gray's guidance, cornerback Teez Tabor earned first-team All-SEC honors from both the Associated Press and the league's coaches while also garnering second-team All-American honors from numerous outlets. Gray also helped guide defensive back Quincy Wilson to second-team All-SEC honors.

Prior to his time at Florida, Gray spent 10 seasons coaching defensive backs at his alma mater, Virginia Tech. In his 10 seasons in Blacksburg, his unit allowed just 185.0 passing yards per game and a 106.5 opponent passer rating – both ranked second in the nation over that span. Opposing quarterbacks completed just 50.4 percent of their passes in those 10 seasons, the lowest percentage against any defense in the nation.

During Gray's tenure, a total of 11 Hokie defensive backs were selected in the NFL Draft, including Aaron Rouse (2007, Round 3), Brandon Flowers (2008, Round 2), Victor "Macho" Harris (2009, Round 5), Cody Grimm (2010, Round 7), Kam Chancellor (2010, Round 5), Roc Carmichael (2011, Round 4), Jayron Hosley (2012, Round 3), Antone Exum (2014, Round 6), Kyle Fuller (2014, Round 1), Kysheon Jarrett (2015, Round 6) and Kendall Fuller (2016, Round 3).

Before returning to Virginia Tech, Gray spent two seasons in the NFL as assistant defensive backs coach for the Chicago Bears from 2004-05. In 2005, Gray's unit helped the Bears rank fifth in the NFL in passing defense and finished tied for second in interceptions (24) as defensive backs Nathan Vasher and Mike Brown both earned Pro Bowl selections.

Gray began his coaching career at the University of Maine, serving as defensive backs coach for two seasons from 2000-01. He then spent the 2002-03 seasons as defensive backs coach at the University of Connecticut. During his time with the Huskies, he coached cornerback Justin Perkins, helping him to two all-conference selections and 12 career interceptions.

Following a standout career at Kathleen H.S. in Lakeland, Fla., Gray played collegiately at Virginia Tech and became a three-time all-conference selection. He helped lead the Hokies to a pair of conference titles and was drafted by the Minnesota Vikings in the second round (49th overall) of the 1997 NFL Draft. He spent three seasons with the Vikings before retiring with a career-ending knee injury in the spring of 2000.

A native of Lakeland, Fla., Gray was born March 18, 1974. He has two daughters, Tori and Lexi.

2013-14	Defensive Quality Control	San Diego Chargers
2015-16	Defensive Quality Control	Washington Redskins
2017-Pres.	Outside Linebackers Coach	Washington Redskins

Chad Grimm enters his fourth season with the Redskins and his second as the team's outside linebackers coach in 2018 after initially joining the team in a defensive quality control role on January 29, 2015.

In his first season as outside linebacker coach in 2017, Grimm oversaw another stellar campaign by Ryan Kerrigan, who posted 13.0 sacks en route to his third Pro Bowl selection and became the first member of the Redskins to post consecutive campaigns with double-digit sack totals since 1985-86, when both Charles Mann and Dexter Manley accomplished the feat. Meanwhile, Grimm's coaching was integral in a resurgent campaign by third-year linebacker Preston Smith, who matched his career high with 8.0 sacks, including a sack in each of the team's first four games.

Grimm spent his first two seasons in Washington in 2014-15 serving in a defensive quality control capacity while also assisting the team's outside linebackers. In 2015, Grimm helped Smith lead all NFL rookies with 8.0 sacks, and a year later, Grimm and Greg Manusky helped Kerrigan and Trent Murphy become the first pair to record at least nine sacks each in a single season for the Redskins since Andre Carter and Brian Orakpo in 2009.

Prior to joining the Redskins, Grimm spent two years in the same capacity with the San Diego Chargers. Grimm spent his first four NFL seasons with the Arizona Cardinals after entering the league in 2009 as an offensive quality control coach.

Grimm comes from a football pedigree. He is the son of Russ Grimm, a Pro Football Hall of Famer and three-time Super Bowl champion who stands as one of the most decorated players in Redskins history. Russ – a founding member of the franchise's famed "Hogs" – played 11 seasons in Washington from 1981-91 and served in various assistant roles for the team from 1992-2000. His brother, Cody, played at Virginia Tech, was a seventh-round draft pick by Tampa Bay in 2010 and played safety for the Buccaneers from 2010-12.

Grimm played collegiately as a linebacker and special teamer at Virginia Tech from 2003-06. The Fairfax native played both football and lacrosse at Oakton H.S. in Vienna, Va., helping the school reach the state finals in both sports for the first time in school history.

2014-Pres.	Wide Receivers Coach	Washington Redskins

Ike Hilliard is entering his sixth season as the Redskins' wide receivers coach in 2018 after returning for his second stint with the team on January 20, 2014.

Hilliard oversaw a young wide receiver corps in 2017 that helped quarterback Kirk Cousins become the first player in team history to record a third consecutive 4,000-yard passing season. Jamison Crowder led the Redskins in receptions (66) and receiving yards (789), and at age 24 on the final day of the calendar year, became the youngest player to lead the Redskins in receptions since Gary Clark (24) in 1986, according to records provided by Pro Football Reference. Meanwhile, second-year pro Josh Doctson, who had been limited by injury to only two games in his rookie campaign, led the Redskins with six receiving touchdowns, and fourth-year pro Ryan Grant recorded career highs in receptions (45), receiving yards (573) and receiving touchdowns (four).

Hilliard's group played a major role in the Redskins' record-setting offense in 2016, a unit that set single-season team records in yards per game (403.4), yards per play (6.40), net passing yards (4,758), completions (407), passing first downs (226) and 500-yard games (three). Veteran wideouts Pierre Garçon (1,041) and DeSean Jackson (1,005) both eclipsed the 1,000-yard mark on the season, representing the first time the Redskins featured multiple 1,000-yard receivers since 1999 (Albert Connell and Michael Westbrook). Meanwhile, in his second season, Crowder took another step as one of the league's most underrated slot receivers, leading the Redskins with seven touchdown receptions while contributing 847 receiving yards on 67 receptions.

During the Redskins' NFC East championship season in 2015, Hilliard coached a group that prominently featured two prolific veterans (Garçon and Jackson) and two young players in their first or second NFL seasons (Crowder and Ryan Grant, respectively). Garçon posted 72 receptions, the second-highest total of his career, while Jackson recorded 528 receiving yards and four touchdowns despite being limited by injury to nine games. Hilliard's guidance also helped Crowder to a Redskins-rookie-record 59 receptions in 2015.

In his return to Washington in 2014, Hilliard oversaw the incorporation of Jackson into the team's offense after joining the team as a free agent. Jackson led the Redskins with 1,169 receiving yards on 56 receptions, becoming the fifth member of the Redskins to post 1,000 receiving yards in his first season in Washington (Bobby Mitchell in 1962, Henry Ellard in 1994, Laveranues Coles in 2003 and Santana Moss in 2005). Jackson averaged an NFL-best 20.9 yards per reception and was the first member of the Redskins to finish a season as the NFL leader in yards per reception since Henry Ellard (19.5 in 1996).

Hilliard served as wide receivers coach for the Buffalo

Bills in 2013, helping mold a young group that included rookie second-round pick Robert Woods (40 receptions for 587 yards with three touchdowns) and rookie third-round pick Marquise Goodwin (17 receptions for 283 yards with three touchdowns).

In his first stint with the Redskins in 2012, Hilliard guided the team's receivers to the franchise's first division title since 1999. He incorporated free agents Pierre Garçon and Joshua Morgan into the offense, helping Garçon lead the team in receiving yards (633 in only 10 games) and helping Morgan lead the Redskins in receptions (48). Hilliard also oversaw the resurgence of veteran slot receiver Santana Moss, who caught 41 passes for 573 yards and eight touchdowns, his most since recording nine receiving touchdowns in his first season in Washington in 2005. The group's toughness on the perimeter also helped the offense rush for a league-best 2,709 yards, a franchise record.

In 2011, Hilliard served as the assistant wide receivers coach for the Miami Dolphins. He helped in the development of wide receiver Brandon Marshall, who was selected for his third Pro Bowl and first as a member of the Dolphins. Additionally, Marshall finished third in the AFC in receiving yards with 1,214 and recorded his fifth-consecutive 1,000-plus yard season.

Prior to joining the Dolphins, Hilliard spent two seasons coaching for the Florida Tuskers of the United Football League. Hilliard worked as a volunteer coach with the Tuskers in 2009 and was elevated to the position of Receivers Coach for 2010 under current Redskins Head Coach Jay Gruden.

As a player, Hilliard was a first-round selection in the 1997 NFL Draft (No. 7 overall). He played 12 seasons, eight with the New York Giants (1997-2004) and four with the Tampa Bay Buccaneers (2005-08). In 161 career games (106 starts), Hilliard caught 546 passes for 6,397 yards and 35 touchdowns.

Hilliard played collegiately at the University of Florida from 1994-96, catching 126 passes for 2,214 yards and 26 touchdowns. He earned first-team All-SEC and All-American honors as a junior. In the final game that season, he recorded seven catches for 150 yards and three touchdowns to help lead the Gators to a 52-20 Sugar Bowl win to secure the school's first national championship.

Hilliard is a native of Patterson, La.

1995-97	Running Back	Jacksonville Jaguars
1998-2002	Running Back	Oakland Raiders
2003	Special Teams Assistant	Oakland Raiders
2004-07	Running Backs Coach	Nebraska
2008-11	Running Backs Coach	Texas A&M
2012-13	Running Backs Coach	North Carolina
2014-Pres.	Running Backs Coach	Washington Redskins

Randy Jordan enters his fifth season as the Redskins' running back coach in 2018 after initially being named to the position on January 26, 2014.

A nine-year NFL veteran as a player from 1993-2002, Jordan appeared in 122 career games with the Raiders and Jaguars. He was the recipient of the NFL Unsung Hero Award and the Ed Block Courage Award in 2001 and served as special teams captain for the Raiders' AFC Championship team in 2002.

In 2017, Jordan oversaw a group that was ravaged by injury, as his coaching acumen was called upon to prepare eight different running backs for game action, tied with Arizona for the most in the NFL. The group was particularly efficient as receivers out of the backfield, accounting for 885 receiving yards, the fourth-most in the NFL (Saints, 1,254; Patriots, 957; Browns, 923) and the most by a group of Redskins running backs since 2000 (1,127).

Jordan also presided over a breakout 2017 campaign for Chris Thompson, who led the Redskins in both rushing and receiving yards prior to suffering a season-ending injury in Week 11. Thompson recorded only the sixth season in franchise history with at least 275 rushing yards and at least 500 receiving yards and was one of six NFL players to accomplish the feat in 2017 (Todd Gurley II, Le'Veon Bell, Alvin Kamara, Christian McCaffrey and Duke Johnson Jr.), though Thompson accomplished the feat in 10 games while the other five players all appeared in at least 15 contests.

Jordan's hard-nosed approach to the position was evident in the team's running backs in 2016, a year in which the Redskins gained 1,058 of their rushing yards after contact, second-most in the NFL. Jordan oversaw the development of rookie free agent Rob Kelley, who ascended to the starting role mid-year and finished the season as the team's leader in rushing attempts (168), rushing yards (704) and rushing touchdowns (six). Jordan also helped Chris Thompson become the first member of the Redskins to record at least 325 rushing yards and 325 receiving yards in a single season since Roy Helu Jr. in 2011, all while serving as a critical component in pass protection to the team's record-setting aerial attack despite standing 5-foot-8 and 195 pounds.

In 2015, Jordan oversaw a rotating stable of backs that included workhorse Alfred Morris (202 carries for 751 yards with one touchdown), third-round pick Matt Jones (144 carries for 490 yards with three touchdowns) and Thompson (gained 6.2 yards per carry on 35 attempts). The group also contributed heavily in pass protection, helping the Redskins decrease their sack total from 58 in 2014 to 27 in 2015.

In his first season in Washington in 2014, Jordan helped Morris earn his second consecutive Pro Bowl berth, making Morris the first Redskins running back selected to consecutive Pro Bowls since Stephen Davis in 1999-2000. Morris joined Davis as the only backs in team history to record three consecutive 1,000-yard rushing seasons. Jordan's work was also evident in the play of fullback Darrel Young, who matched his career highs in rushing touchdowns (three) and receiving touchdowns (two) en route to a career-high five total touchdowns in 2014.

Before joining the Redskins, Jordan spent two years as the running backs coach at his alma mater, North Carolina. In his first season with UNC in 2012, Jordan's Tar Heels averaged 193.8 rushing yards per game, third-most in the Atlantic Coast Conference and the program's highest average since 1994. That season, he tutored tailback Giovani Bernard - who played for current Redskins Head Coach Jay Gruden in Cincinnati in 2013 - to one of the best seasons in UNC history, helping Bernard average 122.8 rushing yards per game, most in the ACC and 11th in the nation.

Jordan coached running backs at Texas A&M for four seasons from 2008-11. In 2011, the Aggies averaged 199.1 rushing yards per game, fourth-most in the Big 12 Conference, and had two different backs - Cyrus Gray and Christine Michael - finish among the top five in the conference in rushing yards per game.

Jordan left for AggieLand from the University of Nebraska where he served as the running backs coach for the Cornhuskers from 2004-07. Jordan helped shape the I-back position, coaching two 1,000-yard rushers in Cody Ross in

STAFF BIOS

2004 and Marlon Lucky in 2007. He oversaw a committee of backs in 2006 that produced nearly 2,400 rushing yards and 26 rushing touchdowns, as an improved effort on the ground helped NU move from 107th in 2005 to 23rd nationally in rushing offense in 2006.

Jordan began his coaching career with the Oakland Raiders as a special teams assistant midway through the 2003 season. He played nine years in the NFL as a running back, playing in 122 career games from 1993 through 2002. He began his career with the Los Angeles Raiders before joining the expansion Jacksonville Jaguars in 1995 and playing three seasons. Jordan holds the distinction of scoring the very first touchdown for the Jacksonville club, a 71-yard reception against Cincinnati in 1995.

After the 1997 season, Jordan rejoined the Raiders' organization where he played five more seasons. In 1998, Jordan rushed for 159 yards for the Raiders. He had a career-high 213 yards rushing and three touchdowns in helping the Raiders reach the AFC Championship Game in 2000. He also caught 27 passes for 299 yards and a touchdown that same season.

Jordan finished his career with 574 yards rushing and seven touchdowns, while making 58 catches for 596 yards and two touchdowns. Jordan was also a standout special teams player. He finished his career with 801 yards on 38 career kick returns, including a season best of 553 yards on 26 returns for Jacksonville in 1996. He also recorded 64 career tackles on special teams.

Jordan played for the University of North Carolina under coach Mack Brown from 1989-92. He earned three letters for the Tar Heels rushing for 1,134 yards and nine touchdowns in his career, including 618 yards and seven touchdowns in 1991.

Jordan earned his bachelor's degree in speech communication from North Carolina in 1993. He was born in Manson, N.C. Jordan and his wife, Romonda, have a daughter, Raven – a volleyball player at the University at Buffalo – and two sons, Jalen and Justin.

9TH WITH REDSKINS

Paul Kelly enters his 20th NFL season and his ninth as the Redskins' Director of Football Operations in 2018. Kelly, who was named to the post on February 16, 2010, works directly with Head Coach Jay Gruden and is responsible for coordinating the team's daily operations, including all travel and accommodations for home and away games, managing all football department budgets, coordinating training camp logistics and managing the year-round football schedule.

Additionally, Kelly serves as the coaching staff's liaison on all matters relating to the athletic training, equipment, video and the public relations departments, serving as the point of communication in administering every Redskins practice and team function, including all mini-camps, OTA days and training camp.

Kelly previously spent five seasons with the Tampa Bay Buccaneers (2004-08) and six seasons with the Oakland Raiders (1998-2003). He spent the 2009 season assisting the broadcast team of ESPN's Monday Night Football.

In his five seasons with the Buccaneers, Kelly worked directly with Head Coach Jon Gruden in organizing football operations for the club and directed many of the day-to-day operations of the team. During Kelly's five seasons as a member of the Buccaneers' staff, the Buccaneers captured NFC South titles in 2005 and 2007.

Kelly spent six seasons (1998-2003) as an assistant on the Oakland Raiders coaching staff, which included three consecutive Division Championships (2000, 2001 & 2002). In 2002, he helped Head Coach Bill Callahan guide Oakland to its first Super Bowl appearance in 19 years as the Raiders represented the AFC in Super Bowl XXXVII.

Kelly graduated with a bachelor's degree in business administration with an emphasis in new ventures and small business management from California State University Hayward in 1990. Prior to joining the Raiders, he owned and managed his own San Francisco Bay Area-based business-es.

Kelly and his wife, Catherine, have three children. His oldest son, Colin, is a lieutenant in the United States Army. His daughter, Lauren, is a student and women's soccer player at William & Mary. His youngest son, Hunter, is a student at George Mason and a batboy for the Washington Nationals.

Cannon Matthews enters his 10th NFL season and his second with the Redskins in 2018 after being named as defensive quality control on February 13, 2017.

Matthews joined the Redskins in 2017 with eight years of previous NFL coaching experience. Before coming to Washington, he served as the assistant defensive backs coach for the Cleveland Browns in 2016, helping guide a unit that recorded all 10 of the team's interceptions that season. The stint was his second with the Browns, including a defensive coaching internship during the 2013 season in which Cleveland jumped from 23rd to ninth in the NFL in total defense.

From 2014-15, Matthews held the defensive quality control role for the Tennessee Titans, assisting with the team's linebackers. In his first season with the Titans in 2014, the team recorded at least one sack by 18 different players, a team record and the most in the NFL. A year later, the Titans finished sixth in the NFL in sacks per pass play, seventh in passing yards allowed and eighth in opponent rushing average.

Matthews spent one season as the running backs coach at Kentucky Christian University in 2012, helping the Knights to a 7-4 record and top-25 ranking during the first winning season in school history.

Prior to his time at the collegiate level, Matthews spent four years with the Buffalo Bills. He served as a defensive and special teams coaching assistant from 2008-09 before transitioning to the offensive side of the ball for the 2010-11 seasons. He entered pro football as a personnel intern with the Arena Football League's Arizona Rattlers in 2008.

A native of Bedford Heights, Ohio, Matthews earned a degree in sport management from Ohio University.

Bret Munsey enters his fifth season with the Redskins in 2018 after initially joining the team during the 2014 offseason.

In 2017, Munsey and Special Teams Coordinator Ben Kotwica helped the Redskins rank second in the NFL in kickoff return average allowed at 18.7 yards per return, the team's lowest average allowed since 2001 [17.2]. The performance guided the Redskins to their eighth Top 5 finish in the NFL (2006-11, 2015, 2017) in kickoff coverage in a 12-year span. The unit accomplished the feat despite being forced by injury-related attrition to use 66 different players on special teams, the franchise's most in a season in participation data records dating back to 1993.

Munsey helped a number of Redskins special teamers turn in notable performances in 2016. With 34 field goals on the year, kicker Dustin Hopkins broke Mark Moseley's team record of 33 field goals set in 1983. Meanwhile, returner Jamison Crowder ended the team's 124-game drought without a punt return for touchdown in Week 5 at Baltimore, returning a punt 85 yards for a touchdown in an eventual six-point win. The Redskins finished the season with an 11.9-yard punt return average, fourth-best in the NFL, marking the Redskins' first finish in the Top 5 in punt return average since leading the league in the category in 1995.

Munsey contributed to the Redskins' special teams success in 2015 during its NFC East championship season. The unit posted a Top 5 ranking in kickoff coverage (20.1 yards allowed per return) and contributed three special teams touchdowns, including a team-record-tying two kickoff returns for touchdowns and a blocked punt recovery for a touchdown.

Prior to joining the Redskins, Munsey served as a national scout for the Philadelphia Eagles during the 2013 season. He spent the 2012 season as the head coach of the Orlando Predators of the Arena Football League. Prior to his stint in Orlando, he served two seasons as the director of player personnel for the Florida Tuskers of the UFL (2009-10), working with current Redskins head coach Jay Gruden. In 2011, the team moved to Virginia Beach, and as Director of Personnel, Munsey helped guide the Virginia Destroyers to the 2011 UFL Championship.

From 2006-08, Munsey served as head coach of the AFL's Philadelphia Soul. Munsey finished with a 35-20 overall record, including a 16-3 record and Arena Bowl title in 2008. In his first season with the Soul, Munsey led the team to their first postseason appearance in franchise history, finishing with a 9-7 record.

From 2003-05, Munsey served as the secondary coach and director of player personnel for the Predators in his first stint in Orlando, working alongside Gruden, who was the team's head coach at the time. In 2002, Munsey was the head coach of the Tennessee Valley Vipers in the af2 league, where he was named the league's coach of the year. He spent one season with the Carolina Cobras of the AFL in 2001, after beginning his coaching career in 2000 as the defensive coordinator of the Augusta Stallions of af2.

A native of Winter Park, Fla., Munsey was a three-sport star at Winter Park H.S. He played collegiately at Concord University (W.Va.) and played professionally for the Predators from 1991-95.

2014-16	Offensive Coaching Associate	Jacksonville Jaguars
2017-Pres.	Offensive Quality Control	Washington Redskins

Chris O'Hara enters his fifth NFL season and his second with the Redskins in 2018 after formally joining the Redskins in an offensive quality control role on March 15, 2017.

O'Hara joined the Redskins after having spent the previous three seasons as an offensive coaching associate with the Jacksonville Jaguars. In 2015, the Jaguars' offense accounted for 35 touchdown passes, shattering the previous team record of 28 set in 2007.

Before entering the NFL ranks, O'Hara spent three seasons coaching on the defensive side of the ball at the University of Miami from 2011-13, including one season as a graduate assistant and two as a student assistant. In his final season with the Hurricanes, O'Hara and the Miami defense ranked third in the ACC with 27 takeaways and helped propel linebacker Denzel Perryman to first-team all-conference honors.

Prior to working at Miami, O'Hara spent two seasons at Temple University, serving as a student assistant with the school's football team.

A native of Swoyersville, Pa., O'Hara graduated from Miami in December 2012 with a degree in sports administration.

2014-Pres.	Inside Linebackers Coach	Washington Redskins

Kirk Olivadotti enters his 16th NFL season – all with the Redskins – in 2018 after returning for his second stint with the team on January 16, 2014.

Olivadotti returned to the Redskins – with whom he spent 11 NFL seasons in various capacities from 2000-10 – in 2014 after three years coaching inside linebackers at the University of Georgia from 2011-13. Olivadotti is one of 11 members of the Redskins' assistant coach honor roll, which recognizes coaches with at least 10 seasons of service as an assistant in Washington.

In 2017, Olivadotti oversaw the a highly productive campaign by unrestricted free agent signing Zach Brown, who started all 13 games in which he played and posted a team-high 127 tackles (84 solo), the most by a member of the Redskins since London Fletcher in 2012 (139). Brown missed the final three games while fighting various injuries, but following the time of his final game in Week 14, Brown led the NFL in tackles and even still led the league a week later despite missing Week 15. The group also received steady performances from Mason Foster and Will Compton, who recorded interceptions in wins in Los Angeles and Seattle, respectively.

Olivadotti's linebackers contributed heavily to the team's 986 total tackles in 2016, third-most in the NFL. He helped further develop fourth-year pro Will Compton, who completed his journey from practice squad player (2013) to special teamer (2014) to spot starter (2015) to defensive captain (2016). He also created an effective platoon at the opposite linebacker spot, helping Mason Foster to a team-high 123 tackles (88 solo) on primarily early downs while integrating hybrid rookie weapon Su'a Cravens in that role in passing situations. Olivadotti's teaching helped Cravens become the second-youngest player to play in a season opener for the Redskins (21 years and 67 days old).

In 2015, Olivadotti successfully coached a unit that helped guide the Redskins to a 9-7 record and an NFC East championship despite featuring a rotating cast of players as the result of injuries. The Redskins began the year with Keenan Robinson and Perry Riley, Jr. patrolling the inside linebacker positions, with the duo recording an interception off of former Super Bowl MVPs Tom Brady and Eli Manning, respectively. Olivadotti groomed and developed Compton into a reliable starter during the team's season-ending four-game winning streak and effectively integrated Foster, a midseason acquisition, into the spot opposite Compton.

In his first season back in Washington in 2014, Olivadotti's tutelage helped Robinson blossom in his first season as a starter. Despite missing three games, Robinson led the Redskins with 108 total tackles, including a 14-tackle performance in a win vs. Tennessee in which Robinson earned NFC Defensive Player of the Week honors.

At Georgia, Olivadotti coached a linebacker corps that produced NFL draft picks Jarvis Jones and Alec Ogletree. The Bulldogs averaged 10 wins a season in Olivadotti's three years, including ending the 2012 season with a 12-2 record and a No. 5 national ranking.

During Olivadotti's initial 11-season stint with the Redskins, Washington finished in the top 10 in the NFL in overall defense on eight occasions. The Redskins allowed an average of 313.1 yards per game in Olivadotti's 11 years on staff, fourth-fewest in the NFC and seventh-fewest in the NFL in that time frame.

In 2009, he tutored a pair of linebackers to their first Pro Bowl: London Fletcher, who earned his initial trip in his 12th season, and Brian Orakpo, who was one of four NFL rookies selected. Fletcher led the Redskins in tackles with 172 and added two sacks, one interception and 10 passes defended. He eclipsed the 100-tackle mark for the 11th consecutive season.

Orakpo became the first Redskins defensive rookie to make the Pro Bowl since the 1970 merger. He is only the second Redskins rookie to be chosen, joining kick returner Tony Green (1978). Orakpo finished with 60 tackles, including three for loss, 11 sacks for 76 yards lost, one forced fumble and two passes defended. He led all rookies in sacks and tied for most among NFC linebackers with Dallas' DeMarcus Ware. Orakpo's 11 sacks finished tied for seventh in the NFL and fourth in the NFC, and set the franchise rookie record, surpassing the previous mark of six by Dean Hamel (1985) and Andre Collins (1990).

In 2008, Olivadotti's linebackers played a pivotal role in Washington ranking fourth overall in yards allowed per game

STAFF BIOS

(288.8), sixth in points allowed per game (18.5) and eighth in rushing yards allowed per game (95.4 yards).

The previous year, in Olivadotti's first season as linebackers coach, Washington finished eighth in the NFL in overall defense (305.3 yards per game) and fourth in the league in rush defense (91.3 yards per game). The tandem of Fletcher (156 tackles) and Rocky McIntosh (105 tackles) finished as the team's top tacklers.

Throughout his NFL coaching career, Olivadotti has worked with some of the best defensive minds in the NFL, including Ray Rhodes, Marvin Lewis, Gregg Williams, Greg Blache and Jim Haslett. Olivadotti began his NFL coaching career with the Redskins in 2000 as a defensive quality control coach. He served in that role for four seasons and also helped coach the defensive backs.

He continued as quality control coach in 2004, but also took on a role assisting the Redskins' special teams units. In 2006, Olivadotti's role expanded to working with the Redskins' defensive line.

Olivadotti began his coaching career on the college level, working with wide receivers and tight ends at Maine Maritime for one season (1997). He moved to Indiana State as an assistant coach for two years (1998-99) before making the transition to Washington and the NFL.

Olivadotti was a four-year letter winner as a wide receiver at Purdue from 1993-96. He earned his bachelor's degree in education and his master's degree in education administration, both from Purdue. He is the son of Tom Olivadotti, a long-time defensive coach in the NFL with the Browns, Dolphins, Vikings, Giants and Texans. Kirk and his wife, Keely, have a daughter, Kasyn, and a son, Kruz.

2007-10	Quality Control/Off. Asst.	Dallas Cowboys
2011-12	Asst. Offensive Line Coach	Dallas Cowboys
2013	Tight Ends Coach	Dallas Cowboys
2014-Pres.	Tight Ends Coach	Washington Redskins

Wes Phillips enters his fifth season as the Redskins' tight ends coach in 2018 after initially being named to the position on January 17, 2014.

In 2017, Phillips helped mold ageless 12-year veteran Vernon Davis into one of the team's most explosive threats. Davis recorded 43 receptions for 648 yards with three receiving touchdowns, leading the Redskins with a 15.1-yards-per-catch average. Davis finished the season second in yards per catch among qualified NFL tight ends (Rob Gronkowski, 15.7) and was the first member of the Redskins to finish in the Top 2 in the NFL in receiving average among tight ends since Clint Didier led the league at the position group in 1986. At age 33 on the final day of the calendar year, Davis became the oldest NFL tight end to average at least 15.0 yards per reception (min. 15 receptions) since Pro Football Hall of Famer Jackie Smith (16.5 at age 34) in 1974.

Phillips oversaw one of the league's most productive duos in 2016, further developing one of the game's emerging threats while integrating one of its most productive veterans. Fourth-year pro Jordan Reed earned his first Pro Bowl nod in 2016 after catching 66 passes for 686 yards with six receiving touchdowns in only 12 games with eight starts. During the year, Reed became the fastest tight end in NFL history to reach 200 career receptions, reaching the milestone in 38 career games and surpassing the mark set by Pro Football Hall of Famer Kellen Winslow (39 career games). Phillips also helped guide Davis to a 44-catch, 583-yard campaign, as Washington finished the year as one of only two teams to have multiple tight ends record at least 40 receptions during the season (Houston).

Phillips presided over arguably the most prolific season by a tight end in Redskins history in 2015, as Reed shattered team records for receptions (87) and receiving yards (952) by a tight end. Including a 24-yard touchdown reception in the NFC Wild Card Round vs. Green Bay, Reed tied a team record for combined regular season and postseason receiving touchdowns (12) in a single year. Reed's breakout campaign was supplemented by a rotating cast of tight ends, as Phillips effectively integrated preseason trade acquisition Derek Carrier, midseason signings Anthony McCoy and Alex Smith, waiver addition Marcel Jensen, first-year player Je'Ron Hamm and eligible-tackle Tom Compton after the unit lost two presumptive contributors (Niles Paul and Logan Paulsen) to injury in the preseason.

In his first season in Washington in 2014, Phillips guided Paul to a breakout campaign, as the special teams standout shattered career highs in receptions (39) and receiving yards (507) after entering the season with 14 career catches and 228 career receiving yards to his credit in his first three years in the league. Phillips also oversaw the development of Reed, who finished third on the team with a then-career-high 50 receptions in his sophomore campaign.

Prior to joining the Redskins, Phillips spent seven seasons in various capacities with the Dallas Cowboys. He joined Dallas in 2007 as the club's quality control/offensive assistant coach before relinquishing his role as a quality control coach in 2011 to become the club's assistant offensive line coach in addition to continuing to assist special teams. In 2013, Phillips was named the tight ends coach, helping Jason Witten post the second-most touchdowns in a season in his career (eight).

In 2012, Phillips assisted with an offensive line that helped the Cowboys finish with 5,994 net yards, the third-most in a season in franchise history, and set a single-season club record with 4,729 passing yards despite having Phil Costa, the team's starting center, for only three games. In 2011, the unit integrated new starters at four of the five positions, helping Tony Romo post his third career 4,000-yard season while rookie running back DeMarco Murray established a single-game team rushing record with a 253-yard performance against St. Louis.

In Phillips' four seasons as Dallas' quality control/offensive assistant coach from 2007-10, the Cowboys' offense posted total yardage numbers ranking in the Top 10 in team history three times, including setting single-season club records in 2010 that included 6,390 yards of total offense - marking the first time a Cowboys team topped 6,000 yards in a season in team history - and 4,287 passing yards. The offense as a whole finished second in the league in total offense, averaging 399.4 yards per game.

Before landing in Dallas, Phillips coached quarterbacks at Baylor in 2006. His work with quarterback Shawn Bell paid dividends as Bell established school single-season records despite missing the final three games with a knee injury.

Prior to his one-year stint at Baylor, Phillips spent two seasons as the quarterbacks coach at West Texas A&M University. The Buffaloes celebrated their most successful season in almost 55 years in 2005, finishing 10-2 to post their first winning season since 1998 and the program's first 10-win season since 1950.

WTAMU won the Lone Star Conference with an 8-1 record, its first league title since 1986 and advanced to the quarterfinals of the NCAA D-II Playoffs for the first time in school history. The school led the 2005 Division II ranks in passing offense, racking up 363.8 yards per game. He tutored quarterback Dalton Bell, a finalist for the Harlon Hill Trophy, which goes to the top Division II player.

Prior to joining the WTAMU staff, Phillips spent one season as a student assistant coach at his alma mater, UTEP, and played two seasons at quarterback for the San Diego Riptide of the af2.

A three-year letter winner at UTEP (1999-2001), Phillips was a member of the 2000 Miners team that shared the WAC title, posted the school's highest win total in more than a decade and played in the Humanitarian Bowl. Phillips left the collegiate ranks among the school's single-season leaders in both pass efficiency (ninth - 120.0 in 2001) and completion percentage (eighth - 55.6 in 2001).

Phillips received his bachelor's degree in philosophy from UTEP in 2001. Phillips and his wife, Anna, were married in 2009 and have two daughters, Ivy and Minnie, and a son, Mac.

Phil Rauscher is entering his fourth NFL season and his first with the Redskins after joining the organization during the 2018 offseason.

Rauscher joined the Redskins having previously spent the three previous seasons with the Denver Broncos, including serving as Assistant to Head Coach Vance Joseph in 2017. He spent the 2015-16 seasons serving as an offensive coaching assistant on the Broncos' staff, helping guide the team to victory in Super Bowl 50 following the 2015 campaign.

Prior to his tenure in Denver, Rauscher spent one season as the offensive coordinator and offensive line coach at California Lutheran University following two seasons as tight ends coach and recruiting coordinator at the University of Hawaii from 2012-13.

Rauscher spent the 2011 season at the University of Utah, where he was an administrative assistant and tight ends coach. Prior to his time at Utah, he served as offensive coordinator at Dixie State University in 2010.

Rauscher began his coaching career at his alma mater, UCLA, in 2006 as an undergraduate assistant and earned three letters as an offensive lineman before injuries cut his career short. After earning his bachelor's degree in history, Rauscher served as a graduate assistant at UCLA from 2008-09, assisting with tight ends.

James Rowe enters his second season as the Redskins' assistant defensive backs coach in 2018 after being named to the position on February 9, 2017.

In his first season in Washington in 2017, Rowe and Defensive Backs Coach Torrian Gray helped the unit produce the team's strongest season against the pass in nearly a decade. The unit ranked third in the NFL in completion percentage allowed (57.6 percent), the team's best ranking since leading the NFL in the category in 2005 (54.4), while finishing ninth in passing yards allowed per game (213.8, the team's lowest since 2009) and 10th in opponent passer rating (81.0, lowest since 2008).

Prior to joining the Redskins, Rowe served as Defensive Coordinator at Valdosta State, helping the Blazers to an 8-3 record in 2016. Among Division II schools, his defense led the nation with 27 interceptions and ranked fifth in the country in opposing passing efficiency, limiting opposing quarterbacks to a 96.2 passer rating. Under Rowe's guidance, Valdosta State safety Kenny Moore earned first-team All-American honors from the American Football Coaches Association.

In 2015, Rowe spent one season as a defensive graduate assistant at the University of Florida. That season, the Florida defense ranked No. 8 in scoring defense, No. 6 in total defense and No. 11 in pass defense, while Rowe assisted in the development of All-American defensive backs Vernon Hargreaves, Marcus Maye, Keanu Neal and Teez Tabor.

From 2012-14, Rowe served in a variety of coaching capacities at Jacksonville University. He began his tenure assisting with the team's defensive backs in 2012, adding the wide receivers to his purview in 2013 and eventually being promoted to defensive coordinator in 2014. He began his collegiate coaching career as a graduate assistant at Bethel (Tenn.) University in 2011, helping the Wildcats finish the year ranked No. 14 in the nation.

Rowe, a native of Cocoa, Fla., was a student-athlete at South Florida, lettering three times as a member of the Bulls' baseball team. After majoring in business administration, he earned his degree from the university in 2009.

**NFL Europe experience included in separate box

Jim Tomsula enters his second season as the Redskins' defensive line coach in 2018 after being named to the position on January 23, 2017.

Tomsula joined the Redskins in the 2017 offseason with 32 previous seasons of football experience at the high school, college and professional levels since the fall of 1989. Prior to joining the Redskins, he spent nine years with the San Francisco 49ers, including serving as the 19th head coach in franchise history in 2015 after serving one game as the team's interim head coach in 2010.

In his first season in Washington in 2017, Tomsula inherited and developed a young group that included first-round pick Jonathan Allen and second-year players Matt Ioannidis and Anthony Lanier II in addition to veteran Ziggy Hood and free agent signings Terrell McClain and Stacy McGee. Both Ioannidis and Lanier made developmental leaps in their second seasons under Tomsula's purview, as Lanier led all Redskins defensive linemen with 5.0 sacks, the fifth-most by a Redskins defensive lineman since the team switched to a 3-4 base in 2010, while Ioannidis recorded career highs in games played (14), starts (10), total tackles (27), solo tackles (13), sacks (4.5) and forced fumbles (one).

During an eight-year run as the 49ers' defensive line coach from 2007-14, Tomsula was instrumental in developing one of the league's top-performing defenses in that timeframe. Across those eight seasons, the 49ers ranked fourth in the league in rushing yards allowed per game (98.4) and second in rushing average (3.72). San Francisco's defense also ranked third in the NFL in points per game allowed (19.4) and fourth in yards per game allowed (320.9) during that stretch. In 2011, Tomsula's defensive line and the San Francisco defense set an NFL record by not allowing a rushing touchdown in their first 14 games of the season. The team surrendered just three rushing touchdowns all year, the fewest allowed in the NFL since the league went to a 16-game schedule in 1978.

Under Tomsula's tutelage, defensive tackle Justin Smith was named to five consecutive Pro Bowls (2009-13) and earned All-Pro honors three times from 2011-13. Despite being the fourth overall pick in the 2001 NFL Draft, Smith had never been selected to either team prior to working with Tomsula.

Tomsula joined the 49ers after enjoying one of the most successful stints in NFL Europe history. Prior to being named the head coach of the Rhein Fire — which made him the youngest head coach in NFL history at age 38 in 2006 — Tomsula served as the Berlin Thunder's defensive coordinator for two seasons, winning World Bowl XII in his first season with a defense that ranked first in the NFL against the run.

Tomsula joined the NFL in 1998 as the defensive line coach of the England Monarchs. He then went on to serve in the same capacity for five seasons with the Scottish Claymores, where he established a reputation for producing some of the league's most dominant lines. He also played a leading role in mentoring and teaching young talent in the league's National Player Development program.

Between NFL Europe seasons, Tomsula spent each fall as a member of the coaching staff Division II Catawba College in Salisbury, N.C., where he had been a defensive lineman after transferring from Middle Tennessee State.

Tomsula's coaching career began with great uncertainty, but his desire to coach the game was steadfast. In 1989, Tomsula began his coaching career as an assistant at his alma mater following a career-ending knee injury. The following season, he went on to coach the defensive line at Woodland Hills (Pa.) H.S. After spending the next two years out of coaching to provide for his family as a medical equipment sales rep with Thera-Kinetics, Tomsula landed a position as an assistant on the Charleston Southern University coaching staff (1992-95). He would once again spend two seasons out of coaching, as he returned to his hometown of Pittsburgh to serve as a sales representative with Cisco Foods. Urged by his family to continue his dream of coaching football, Tomsula returned to the coaching ranks in 1997 as the volunteer assistant defensive line coach at Catawba.

He and his wife, Julie, have two daughters, Britney and Brooke, and a son, Bear.

DOUG WILLIAMS
SR. VP OF PLAYER PERSONNEL

22ND NFL SEASON
9TH WITH REDSKINS

Doug Williams was named as the Redskins' Senior Vice President of Player Personnel on June 13, 2017, after initially returning to the team as a personnel executive in February 2014. In his current role, one of the most celebrated athletes in franchise history now helps lead and guide the efforts of the team's personnel department across the pro and collegiate scouting ranks.

"His résumé is impressive, as you all know, but it's really remarkable when you consider everything he's done that matters in this job. This job is daily communication and leadership of the personnel department. It's daily communication and leadership of our coaches and players," President Bruce Allen said upon Williams' promotion. "Doug being a high school coach, a high school athletic director, obviously an outstanding player, fits the role perfectly for where we want to be as Washington Redskins. His probably most-understated accomplishment, he's one of only a handful of people who is in two Ring of Honors in the NFL. And it's not just about the player, it's about the man."

Williams, a member of the 80 Greatest Redskins and a Redskins Ring of Famer, played with the Redskins from 1986-89 and led Washington to a Super Bowl XXII title, a 42-10 rout of the Denver Broncos. Williams, the first African-American quarterback to play in a Super Bowl, completed 18-of-29 passes for 340 yards with four touchdown passes to earn Super Bowl XXII MVP honors.

Williams is a veteran of 21 NFL seasons, including nine as a player and 12 in scouting/personnel roles. He spent five seasons as Personnel Executive with the Tampa Bay Buccaneers from 2004-08 before being named the team's Director of Pro Personnel for the 2009 season.

Williams joined the Buccaneers' front office in 2004 following a successful tenure as head coach at his alma mater, Grambling State, and one of the most storied playing careers in league and team history. His responsibilities in Tampa included coordinating the scouting and recruiting of all NFL players, while also monitoring NFL transactions and overseeing player tryouts. In addition, he was in charge of Tampa Bay's evaluating efforts of all other professional football leagues, including the Canadian Football League.

Williams, a first-round pick by Tampa Bay in the 1978 NFL Draft (17th overall), led the Buccaneers to the first three playoff appearances in team history. He propelled the team to three winning seasons (10-6 in 1979, 9-7 in 1981 and 5-4 in 1982), the only campaigns in franchise history with a winning record until more than 15 years later, in the 1997 season. Williams, who started 67 career games for the Buccaneers, was a two-time team MVP in 1980 and 1981. He ended his Tampa Bay career in 1982 as the all-time franchise leader in touchdown passes, passing yards, attempts and completions.

In 1986, the Redskins traded for Williams' rights following two seasons with the USFL's Oklahoma Outlaws. In Williams' Super Bowl XXII MVP performance following the 1987 season, he set or tied several Super Bowl passing records, including most TD passes (four), most yards passing (340), longest pass completion (80 yards) and longest TD pass (80 yards).

In six seasons during his first tenure (1998-2003) at

Grambling State, Williams brought one of the most storied programs in college football history back to prominence, compiling a 52-18 record as head coach after succeeding the legendary Eddie Robinson, who was at the helm for 57 years from 1941-97 and re-wrote the record books as the winningest coach in the history of college football with 408 career wins.

Williams led the Tigers to three consecutive Southwestern Athletic Conference titles from 2000-02 as they were named National Black College Champions during the same three-year span. He was also named SWAC Coach of the Year in each of those three seasons. Williams was a two-time finalist for The Sports Network Eddie Robinson (Division I-AA) National Coach of the Year. He rejoined the program for three seasons from 2011-13, including earning the SWAC title in his first season back in 2011.

Williams started his college head coaching career at Morehouse College in 1997. He also has previous NFL experience as a scout for the Jacksonville Jaguars in 1995 and as offensive coordinator for the Scottish Claymores of the World League in 1995 and tutoring running backs for Navy in 1994. Williams also excelled on the high school level as head coach and athletic director at Point Coupee H.S. in New Roads, La., in 1991. In 1993, he was head coach at Northeast H.S. in his hometown of Zachary, La., where he guided the team to a 13-1 record and the state semifinals, including a win over Peyton Manning's Isidore Newman squad in the 1993 state quarterfinals.

As Grambling's quarterback from 1974-77, Williams had a spectacular college career as he passed for more than 8,000 yards and 93 touchdowns, leading the Tigers to three Black College National Championships and two SWAC titles. He posted a 35-5 record as a starter and finished fourth in voting for the 1977 Heisman Trophy.

In 2005, Williams and Shack Harris established The Shack Harris & Doug Williams Foundation with the function of providing grants for after-school initiatives, leadership development, mentoring programs and minority higher education assistance for economically disadvantaged youth. In March of 2009, the foundation put on its first annual Washington Football Legends for Charity in Washington, D.C. In 2010, the foundation established the Black College Football Hall of Fame, which will move to its new home in Canton, Ohio in 2018.

After Super Bowl XLII, the NFL honored the 20th anniversary of Williams' Super Bowl XXII victory as Williams was chosen to present the Lombardi Trophy to the New York Giants following their victory over the New England Patriots.

Williams and his wife, Raunda, have eight children: Ashley, Adrian, Carmelela, Doug, Jr., Jasmine, Laura, Lee and Temessia.

ERIC SCHAFFER
SR. VP OF FOOTBALL OPERATIONS/GENERAL COUNSEL

16TH NFL SEASON
16TH WITH REDSKINS

Eric Schaffer, now entering his 16th season with the Redskins in 2018, currently serves as the franchise's Senior Vice President of Football Operations and General Counsel.

Schaffer was promoted to his current role as Senior Vice President of Football Operations on June 13, 2017, and now assumes a larger role in the leadership and oversight of the team's personnel department. He remains the club's chief contract negotiator and is responsible for the strategic planning, management and forecasting of the Redskins' salary cap and cash budgets. In addition, Schaffer oversees extensive research and analysis of NFL player contracts and evaluates the roster composition of each club throughout the NFL. He also serves as the Redskins' primary liaison to the NFL Management Council.

In addition to his role as Senior Vice President of Football Operations, Schaffer serves as the Redskins' General Counsel, advising the club on all legal matters and contributing significantly to the team's business operations. His areas of oversight include sponsorships, licensing, vendor and employment agreements (for football and non-football employees), human resources issues, team litigation, as well as workers' compensation, among various others.

Schaffer works closely with President Bruce Allen, Senior Vice President of Player Personnel Doug Williams and Head Coach Jay Gruden along with the team's personnel staff to help shape the Redskins' roster. This offseason, Schaffer negotiated a long-term contract for Alex Smith that secured Smith's trade from Kansas City to provide the club with stability at quarterback. At the start of the NFL league year, he quickly signed up-and-coming receiver Paul Richardson Jr., veteran cornerback Orlando Scandrick and re-signed All-Pro linebacker Zach Brown.

In 2017, Schaffer negotiated a contract extension for Morgan Moses, one of the game's top young right tackles. Moses' contract was yet another multi-year extension to which Schaffer has signed the team's young talent in recent years, including deals with perennial Pro Bowler Trent Williams, Ryan Kerrigan, Jordan Reed, Tress Way and others. Schaffer also led the charge on key free agency additions in 2017, including the acquisitions of Brown, safety D.J. Swearingin, and defensive lineman Stacy McGee.

Prior to the 2016 season, Schaffer and the Redskins mobilized quickly to recruit and sign All-Pro cornerback Josh Norman. The moves followed a 2015 season in which Schaffer and the Redskins adeptly added veteran leaders with winning pedigrees to a young roster that ultimately secured the NFC East title. He has adroitly navigated the salary cap each year, including helping the club overcome a $36 million cap penalty in 2012 en route to its first NFC East title since 1999.

In the 2011 offseason abbreviated by the NFL labor dispute, Schaffer helped the team secure several key players in a flurry of activity after a new Collective Bargaining Agreement was agreed upon by the NFL and NFLPA. In 16 years (2003-18) with the Redskins, Schaffer has negotiated the contracts for every one of Washington's draft picks, including 24 first- and second-round picks.

Schaffer originally joined the Redskins in 2003 as the team's salary cap manager. He was promoted first to Director of Football Administration in 2005 and again to Vice President of Football Administration in 2007. He added the General Counsel role in 2012.

Prior to joining the Redskins, Schaffer spent 11 years with International Management Group (IMG) in various roles. He started as an intern for IMG's founder, the late Mark McCormack, and moved on to their motorsports division where he sold corporate sponsorships and managed young drivers. He eventually became the staff counsel for IMG Football, where he oversaw all legal issues related to 90 NFL clients and negotiated player contracts as an NFLPA registered agent.

Schaffer holds both a bachelor's degree in history from the University of Michigan and a law degree from Case Western Reserve University, where he completed his studies while working full-time for IMG. A native of Cleveland, Ohio, he is a member of the Ohio Bar Association as well as admitted in Virginia as Club Counsel. Schaffer currently resides in Ashburn, Va., with his wife, Jaymie, and three children, Cameron (12), Logan (10), and Bailey (7).

ALEX SANTOS
DIRECTOR OF PRO PERSONNEL

13TH NFL SEASON
13TH WITH REDSKINS

Alex Santos enters his 13th season with Washington in 2018 and his fifth as the Redskins' Director of Pro Personnel after being named to his current role on May 31, 2014. He is responsible for coordinating the advance scouting of Redskins opponents and the evaluation of all professional leagues for potential free agents and trade prospects. He also contributes to the team's draft preparation, making school visits to help evaluate top college talent.

In addition to helping the team acquire top talent in unrestricted free agency, Santos has routinely helped supplement the Redskins' roster by identifying key midseason additions. As the team faced an injury-ravaged 2017 campaign, Santos and his staff added a number of players that became important contributors down the stretch, including running back Kapri Bibbs (caught a 36-yard touchdown pass in his Washington debut in Week 15), versatile offensive lineman Tony Bergstrom (played in nine games with three starts) and kicker Nick Rose (10-of-11 on field goal attempts with the Redskins while filling in for an injured Dustin Hopkins).

In 2015, thanks in part to Santos and his staff, the Redskins received significant contributions from a number of in-season signings during the team's NFC East championship campaign, including cornerback Will Blackmon (tied for team lead in interceptions after signing prior to Week 2), linebacker Mason Foster (started the final five games of the season after signing in Week 4) and running back Pierre Thomas (caught seven passes for 67 yards in division-clinching win after signing with the team only two weeks earlier).

Santos previously spent five seasons from 2009-13 as a pro scout, where in addition to the advance scouting of opponents, he was responsible for assisting with the club's evaluation of personnel in the NFL and Canadian Football League. He originally joined the Redskins in 2006 as a pro personnel assistant.

Santos spent 2005 as a graduate assistant and quality control/offensive line intern coach at Vanderbilt University.

Prior to that, he was the assistant head football coach at Eastside High School in Paterson, N.J. At Eastside, he also coached the offensive line, directed the strength and conditioning program and was one of the school's special education instructors.

A four-year starter at guard for North Carolina State University, Santos graduated in 2000 with a bachelor's degree in Spanish literature. He also earned a Master's degree from New Jersey City State University. A native of Paterson, N.J., he currently resides in Northern Virginia, with his wife, Melanie, and their daughter.

KYLE SMITH
DIRECTOR OF
COLLEGE PERSONNEL

9TH NFL SEASON
9TH WITH REDSKINS

Kyle Smith is entering his ninth season with the Redskins and his second as the team's Director of College Personnel in 2018.

Smith initially joined the team on a full-time basis as an area scout during the 2011 offseason. After being promoted to Director of College Personnel in June 2017, Smith now oversees the organization's evaluation of collegiate talent, managing scouting efforts at both the area and national levels.

Smith began his professional career as an intern with the Redskins in 2010. He joined the team on a full-time basis in 2011 and spent six seasons as an area scout for the organization. Prior to his promotion to Director of College Personnel, he most recently oversaw the team's scouting efforts in the Southeast region, a region that produced the team's first- and second-round picks in both the 2017 and 2018 NFL Drafts.

In his first draft as Director of College Personnel, Smith collaborated with his staff and Senior Vice President of Player Personnel Doug Williams in identifying and selecting the eight players that comprised the team's 2018 draft class. Among the selections were first-round defensive lineman Daron Payne, who joined the Redskins following his dominant showing for Alabama in the College Football Playoff, as well as second-round running back Derrius Guice, who exited his collegiate career at LSU ranked second only to Auburn legend Bo Jackson in yards per carry in SEC history.

Smith graduated from Youngstown State, where he was twice named honorable mention all-conference while playing wide receiver and punt returner from 2002-05. He finished his collegiate career ranked 11th in program history in career receptions [101] and receiving yards [1,534], third in punt returns [56] and fourth in punt return yards [377]. Smith also owned the school record for consecutive games with a reception [30].

As a senior, Smith was elected a team captain and earned the team's Most Valuable Player Award. Following the season he was invited to play in the 2006 Hula Bowl All-Star Game. Smith signed as a college free agent with the Minnesota Vikings, where he spent part of the 2006 offseason. In January of 2007, he was signed by Tampa Bay, which allocated him to NFL Europe's Berlin Thunder. He later had practice squad stints in the Arena Football League and Canadian Football League.

Smith was born in Warwick, R.I., and raised in Buffalo, N.Y. He is the son of long-time NFL executive A.J. Smith.

TIM GRIBBLE
ASST. DIRECTOR OF

19TH NFL SEASON
17TH WITH REDSKINS

Tim Gribble is entering his 19th season in the NFL and 17th with the Redskins in 2018. He was formally promoted to Assistant Director of College Personnel in June 2017.

In his current role, Gribble assists Director of College Personnel Kyle Smith and the Redskins' personnel staff by providing evaluations of collegiate talent at the national level. In 2018, Gribble played a key role in assisting Smith and Senior Vice President of Player Personnel Doug Williams in identifying and selecting the team's eight draft picks, including a pair of SEC standouts in Daron Payne and Derrius Guice in the first two rounds.

Prior to his promotion in 2017, Gribble spent the previous 11 seasons as an area scout for the Redskins, most recently overseeing scouting operations in the Midlands region. Gribble originally joined the Redskins in 2002 and served as a pro personnel assistant, later adding responsibility as the team's Northeast scout in 2003. He also covered the South and Midwest regions at various points during his first 16 years with the organization.

Before coming to Washington, Gribble spent two seasons with the Pittsburgh Steelers as an assistant in the scouting department. Prior to joining the NFL, he was an assistant coach for his alma mater, Duquesne University. He served as the Dukes' special teams coordinator (1996-2000), defensive line coach (1996-98) and running backs coach (1998-2000).

Gribble was a four-year starter (1992-96) at fullback and team captain at Duquesne. He also played baseball for the Dukes and earned dual degrees in psychology and sociology. He is married to his wife, Jennifer.

RICHARD MANN II
ASST. DIRECTOR OF
PRO PERSONNEL

12TH NFL SEASON
9TH WITH REDSKINS

Richard Mann II is entering his ninth season with the Washington Redskins and his second as Assistant Director of Pro Personnel in 2018.

Mann served as a pro scout in his first seven seasons with the Redskins. In addition to weekly advance scouting of Redskins opponents in that time frame, he was responsible for assisting in the evaluation and writing of player reports on potential talent in NFL free agency, the Canadian Football League and the Arena Football League.

Mann spent his first three seasons with the Tampa Bay Buccaneers, where he served as a personnel assistant in 2007 and 2008 and a college personnel assistant in 2009. With the Buccaneers, he was able to work with his father, NFL coach Richard Mann, a veteran assistant coach who retired in the 2018 offseason following 33 years of NFL service.

A return specialist at Salisbury University, Mann earned his bachelor's degree in interpersonal communication with a minor in marketing before receiving his Master's degree in sports leadership from Duquesne University in June 2008. Mann was a three-year member of the football team at Salisbury, earning All-Conference honors in 2002, while averaging 31.8 yards per kickoff return.

His first NFL experiences came in the summer of 1994 as equipment assistant with the Cleveland Browns and in 2003 as a pro personnel intern with the Baltimore Ravens. He and his wife, Chenel, have one son, Richard Mann III, and one daughter, Liliana, and reside in Leesburg, Va.

JEFF SCOTT
DIRECTOR OF FOOTBALL
STRATEGY/SCOUT

7TH NFL SEASON
7TH WITH REDSKINS

Jeff Scott enters his seventh season with the Redskins and his first as the team's Director of Football Strategy/Scout in 2018.

Scott originally joined the team in January 2012 as a salary cap intern, assisting with cap analysis and contracts before becoming a scouting intern in May 2012. He served as a player personnel assistant during the 2013 season and as a Pro Scout starting. In 2018, he was formally promoted to Director of Football Strategy/Scout in 2018.

Scott is responsible for advance scouting of opponents, evaluating players in free agency and writing scouting reports of players entering the NFL Draft. In addition, he assists the Senior Vice President of Football Operations with contract negotiations, strategic planning, Management Council compliance and salary cap management. He also manages research and strategic efforts, providing frequent analysis on special projects for both the Player Personnel department and the coaching staff.

Scott graduated with a bachelor's degree in political science from Davidson College, where he played defensive back from 2004-07. During his sophomore season in 2005, he led the Pioneer Football League in fumbles forced. Scott received his Master's degree in sports management from Georgetown University in 2012.

Scott is originally from Fredericksburg, Va., and currently resides with his wife, Rachel, and daughter, Alivia, in Northern Virginia.

BRIAN ZECHES
PERSONNEL COORDINATOR/
PRO SCOUT

6TH NFL SEASON
5TH WITH REDSKINS

Brian Zeches enters his sixth NFL season and his fifth with the Redskins in 2018 after joining the team during the 2014 offseason.

In his current role, Zeches contributes to both the pro and college scouting departments. As part of his pro scouting duties, he contributes advance scouting reports of opponents, evaluates and presents reports on potential free agents, and coordinates player workouts. On the college side, he serves as the liaison to the annual NFL Scouting Combine and BLESTO Scouting, handles logistics for all draft meetings, maintains the team's prospect database, and coordinates both the team's pre-draft visits and annual local pro days.

Zeches joined the Redskins after working for DVSPORT, Inc., a company that provides digital video acquisition, analysis and playback software designed specifically for the sports market. He previously served as a scouting assistant for the Kansas City Chiefs in 2012.

Zeches' background also includes having coached running backs at Weber State for two seasons from 2010-11. In addition, he previously worked as a graduate assistant at the University of New Mexico from 2006-07 and at UTEP from 2008-09.

Zeches began his collegiate career at the University of Illinois before transferring to Idaho State, where he played quarterback for three seasons. His father, Jim, spent 16 seasons, including 12 with the Redskins, as an NFL scout.

CHUCK COOK
COLLEGE SCOUT

34TH NFL SEASON
2ND WITH REDSKINS

Chuck Cook is entering his 34th NFL season and his second with the Redskins after joining the organization during the 2017 offseason. He oversees the team's scouting operations in the Midwest region.

Prior to joining the Redskins, Cook previously spent six seasons with the Buffalo Bills from 2011-16. He served in various capacities in his time with the Bills, including two seasons each as Director of College Scouting, as a national scout and as an area scout.

Before his time in Buffalo, Cook spent the two seasons with the Miami Dolphins as a regional scout, focusing on the Southwest region in the Dolphins' system from 2008-10. He also spent 11 years as the Director of College Scouting for the Kansas City Chiefs from 1997-2007. In that role, Cook was in charge of coordinating the team's college scouting and preparation for the annual NFL Draft after being promoted to the position in May of 1997. He had previously spent 13 years as a regional scout in the Chiefs' system, focusing primarily on the Southeast.

Cook joined the NFL ranks in 1984, when he was originally hired by the Chiefs after serving as an offensive assistant with the USFL's Arizona Wranglers (1982-83). He began his coaching career at the University of Wyoming from 1980-81.

Cook starred as a wide receiver, running back and defensive back at Southern Mississippi and was inducted into the school's Hall of Fame in 1993. Following his collegiate career, he was a member of training camps with the New York Giants and New York Jets before embarking on his off-field career. He followed the path of his father, Hamp, who served as a scout for the New Orleans Saints for many years.

A native of Andalusia, Ala., Cook earned a Bachelor of Arts degree from Southern Mississippi. He and his wife, Carla, have twin daughters, Carley and Cori, and a son, Colby.

MATT EVANS
COLLEGE SCOUT

5TH NFL SEASON
5TH WITH REDSKINS

Matt Evans enters his fifth NFL season in 2018 after joining the Redskins during the 2014 offseason. He currently oversees scouting operations in the Northeast region.

Evans originally joined the Redskins in 2014 as a player personnel assistant, during which time he assisted with advance scouting of Redskins' opponents, evaluating players in free agency and writing descriptions of draft prospects. He transitioned into area scouting in 2015.

In 2013, Evans participated in rookie minicamps with the New England Patriots and the Philadelphia Eagles after completing a decorated collegiate playing career at the University of New Hampshire from 2008-12.

Evans was a four-year standout at linebacker at New Hampshire, posting a school-record 480 career tackles and becoming only the fifth player in UNH history to have his jersey number (No. 52) retired. The three-time Walter Camp All-American earned the Buck Buchanan Award, given annually to the most outstanding defensive player in the Football Championship Subdivision, in 2011. He earned induction in the UNH Athletics Hall of Fame as part of the Class of 2018.

Evans graduated with a bachelor's degree in business administration in December 2012. He is a native of Hanover, Mass.

DARRYL FRANKLIN
PRO SCOUT/ANALYST

11TH NFL SEASON
7TH WITH REDSKINS

Darryl Franklin is entering his seventh season with the Redskins in 2018. During his tenure in Washington, Franklin has handled both BLESTO and pro scouting duties and now serves as a pro scout and analyst.

During the 2010-11 seasons, Franklin was based in Jacksonville, Fla., as a scouting assistant for BLESTO. He spent the 2009 season as an intern for BLESTO before transitioning to a full-time position. Franklin spent the 2008 season with the Detroit Lions as a player personnel intern, aiding in both college and pro scouting. He currently assists in evaluating prospects from other NFL teams and is responsible for scouting Canadian Interuniversity Sport prospects and Canadian Football League players.

Prior to entering the NFL, Franklin spent three years as a graduate assistant at Central Michigan, where he initially helped with the defense before later assisting with the offense. While at Central Michigan, Franklin earned a Master's degree in administration with a sport concentration. He completed his Master's project on predicting NFL career longevity using combine results.

Franklin earned undergraduate degrees at the University of Missouri, majoring in broadcast journalism and political science. He also served as a student assistant for the Tigers' football team, primarily working with the school's recruiting coordinator and quarterbacks coach.

Originally from Toronto, Franklin attended Mount Hebron H.S. in Ellicott City, Md., where he served as the football team's student assistant.

PAUL SKANSI
COLLEGE SCOUT

27TH NFL SEASON
2ND WITH REDSKINS

Paul Skansi is entering his second season with the Redskins after joining the team as a college scout during the 2017 offseason. He oversees the team's scouting operations in the West region.

Skansi joined the Redskins as a veteran of 25 previous NFL seasons, including spending 16 seasons with the San Diego Chargers from 2000-15 scouting the Midwest, West and Southwest regions at various points of his tenure with the organization.

An All-America honorable mention and All-Pac-10 receiver at the University of Washington, Skansi finished his career as the Huskies' all-time leading receiver (138 rec., 1,723 yards). He returned to his alma mater in 2016 as a volunteer advance scout.

Skansi was drafted by Pittsburgh in the fifth round of the 1983 NFL Draft and spent his rookie season with the Steelers. In 1984, he signed with Seattle, and from 1984-91, he caught 186 passes for 1,950 yards and 10 touchdowns for the Seahawks. In 1992, he concluded his playing career with the CFL's Ottawa Rough Riders.

Skansi, who has a degree in sociology, spent the 1994 season as an assistant wide receivers coach at Washington. In 1995, he coached wide receivers at Idaho, and in 1999, he followed head coach Chris Tormey to Nevada.

A native of Gig Harbor, Wash., Skansi and wife, Stephanie, have two daughters, Taylor and Madison. The family resides in Poulsbo, Wash.

COLE SPENCER
COLLEGE SCOUT

9TH NFL SEASON
9TH WITH REDSKINS

Cole Spencer enters his ninth season with the Redskins and his seventh season as a college scout for the team in 2018. Spencer oversees scouting operations in the Southeast region.

Spencer originally joined the Redskins in 2010 and served as a scouting intern where he assisted in advance scouting and evaluation of NFL personnel. He also helped coordinate free agent workouts and college player visits.

Prior to entering the NFL, Spencer worked at Eastern Illinois for a year as Football Operations and Defensive Quality Control Assistant.

Spencer graduated with a degree in economics and a minor in history from Northern Illinois University where he played tight end before an injury cut his playing career short. He played for Olentangy H.S., near Columbus, Ohio, where he grew up.

Spencer learned the game at a young age from his father, Tim, who is currently the running backs coach for the Tampa Bay Buccaneers. His brother, Evan, is a wide receiver who was selected by the Redskins in the sixth round of the 2015 NFL Draft.

ROGER TERRY
COLLEGE SCOUT

4TH NFL SEASON
4TH WITH REDSKINS

Roger Terry enters his fourth season with the Redskins in 2018 after joining the team prior to its 2015 NFC East championship season. He oversees scouting operations in the Midlands region.

Terry joined the Redskins after working as a recruiting assistant at Ohio State University during the 2013-14 seasons. He assisted Head Coach Urban Meyer and the Buckeyes staff with talent evaluation, helping guide the Buckeyes to a Big Ten championship, Sugar Bowl championship and national championship in 2014.

Terry's background also includes a summer scouting internship with the Atlanta Falcons in 2014, a recruiting internship at the University of Kentucky in 2012 and a stint as a defensive graduate assistant at Tennessee State University in 2011.

A Memphis native, Terry graduated in 2010 from the University of Memphis, where he played linebacker for the Tigers after transferring from Arkansas State.

DAVID WHITTINGTON
COLLEGE SCOUT

10TH NFL SEASON
10TH WITH REDSKINS

David Whittington enters his 10th season with the Washington Redskins in 2018. He oversees scouting operations in the Southwest region.

Whittington previously spent two seasons serving as the team's BLESTO scout, as well as assisting with scouting college players in the Northeast region. He spent 2009 as an intern in the personnel department, where he assisted both the college and pro scouts with advance scouting. He also coordinated free agent and college player visits.

Whittington was a three-year letter winner at Vanderbilt where he played fullback and defensive line and was a member of the 2007 Southeastern Conference Academic Honor Roll. He graduated from Vanderbilt in 2008 with a degree in human and organizational development.

Whittington is originally from Lafayette, La., and currently resides in Houston, Texas, with his wife, Lauren, his son, Halston, and his daughter, Olivia.

HARRISON RITCHER
BLESTO SCOUT

6TH NFL SEASON
2ND WITH REDSKINS

Harrison Ritcher is entering his sixth NFL season and his second with the Redskins after joining the organization as the team's BLESTO scout during the 2017 offseason.

After beginning his career as a recruiting intern at Florida State in 2010, Ritcher spent his first four NFL seasons with the Cleveland Browns from 2012-15. He spent his first two years interning in the Browns' personnel department before being promoted to Player Personnel Associate prior to the 2014 campaign.

Ritcher, a native of Raleigh, N.C., played collegiately as a fullback at North Carolina State from 2006-09. He is the son of 16-year NFL veteran Jim Ritcher, who played for the Bills and Falcons from 1980-95. Jim was a consensus first-team All-American and Outland Trophy winner as the nation's best college offensive lineman during his tenure at NC State who would later go on to start in all four of the Bills' Super Bowl appearances.

Picerelli played collegiately at Tulane from 2012-15. In 2013, he was named a semifinalist for the Ray Guy Award, presented annually to the nation's top punter. He studied business law during his time at Tulane and also completed an internship with Alliance Sports Management Group.

Picerelli is a native of Warren, R.I.

ATHLETIC TRAINING

LARRY HESS
HEAD ATHLETIC TRAINER

17TH NFL SEASON
17TH WITH REDSKINS

Larry Hess is entering his 17th season with the Washington Redskins and his eighth as Head Athletic Trainer in 2018. He previously spent four seasons as the Redskins Director of Rehabilitation (2006-09) after originally joining the club as Physical Therapist/Assistant Athletic Trainer (2002-05).

Hess oversees the team's athletic training and medical needs and works as a liaison to the coaching staff and front office. In his previous role, Hess directed and implemented the team's rehabilitation program, ensuring athletes' healthy return to the playing field and preventing future injury.

In 2018, Hess played a leading role in creating a state-of-the-art recovery center at Inova Sports Performance Center at Redskins Park, visiting other facilities across various sports and continents before implementing his vision for the nearly 2,000-square-foot center in the facility's southwest corner. The innovative center features a cryotherapy chamber, photobiomodulation therapy bed and sensory deprivation float orbs in addition to a dedicated space for sports vision training.

In addition to his responsibilities with the Redskins, Hess also extends his knowledge and first-hand experience to colleagues and peers by delivering presentations and talks on injuries and conditions that he has encountered through his work with the team.

Hess is a certified strength and conditioning specialist. From 2012-13, he served as the Director of Internal Education for the Professional Football Athletic Trainers Society (PFATS). He served as President of PFATS Research and Education Foundation from 2014-17.

Hess originally entered the NFL with the Miami Dolphins in 1998 as a training camp intern. He spent three seasons working with the Dolphins during training camp, mini-camps and on game days. He also served as the head athletic trainer at Dunbar High School in Fort Myers, Fla.

A native of Pittsburgh, Hess earned his bachelor's degree in life science in 1998 and his master's degree in physical therapy in 2001, both from Nova Southeastern University in Ft. Lauderdale, Fla. He and his wife, Beth, have three sons, Matthew, Zachary and Jonathan. The family resides in Leesburg, Va.

YEAR-BY-YEAR

2017 (REDSKINS)

Led the Redskins in scoring with 60 points in only eight games after finishing the season 14-of-17 on field goal attempts and 18-of-19 on PATs... Went 2-for-2 on PATs and converted his only field goal attempt from 33 yards out vs. PHI (9/10)... Went 2-for-3 on field goal attempts and 3-for-3 on PATs in a win at LAR (9/17). First field goal of the day pushed him past Kai Forbath (60) for sole possession of fifth-most career field goals in Redskins history... Hit field goals of 23 and 28 yards in a 2-for-3 performance in a win vs. OAK (9/24)... Converted two field goal attempts at KC (10/2), including what was a then-game-tying 40-yarder in the final minute... Hit field goals of 48 and 21 yards, respectively, and was 2-of-3 on PATs in a win vs. SF (10/15)... Placed on Reserve/Injured list with a hip injury in Week 7... Activated in Week 15 after being designated for return... Went 2-for-2 on field goal attempts in his return to action in a win vs. ARI (12/17)... Converted both field goal attempts in a win vs. DEN (12/24)... Hit a season-long 49-yard field goal on the final play of the first half at NYG (12/31).

2016 (REDSKINS)

Converted 34-of-42 field goal attempts (81.0 percent) and 36-of-39 PATs for 138 points in 16 games. His 34 field goals broke Mark Moseley's 1983 team record (33)... Named the NFC's Special Teams Player of the Month for September after opening the season 11-for-11 on field goal attempts, becoming the first Redskins kicker to earn the honor. His 11 field goals were the most through the first three games in team history... Converted 3-of-3 field goal attempts and his lone PAT vs. PIT (9/12)... Added another 3-for-3 performance on field goals vs. DAL (9/18)... Tied a team record by converting a career-high five field goals on five attempts in a win at NYG (9/25), earning his first career NFC Special Teams Player of the Week honor... Made a 49-yard field goal and four PATs in a win vs. CLE (10/2). Extended career-long streak of consecutive regular season field goals to 16, dating back to 2015... Had his streak of consecutive field goal attempts end at 16 in a win at BAL (10/9) when his 56-yard attempt into 30 mph wind gusts fell short... Went 2-for-2 on field goal attempts including a 50-yarder in a win vs. PHI (10/16)... Went 1-for-2 on field goals at DET (10/23)... Helped force overtime with a 40-yard field goal in the fourth quarter but finished 2-for-4 on field goals in a tie against CIN (10/30) in London... Converted 4-of-4 field goal attempts and 2-of-2 PATs in a win vs. MIN (11/13). In the process, became the 29th player in team history to record 200 career points with the Redskins. Passed Scott Blanton (44) for 10th-most career field goals in franchise history... Made a 37-yard field goal and was 3-for-4 on PATs in exceedingly windy conditions in a win vs. GB (11/20)... Went 2-for-4 on field goals at DAL (11/24). Also added two PATs to reach 100 points on the season, becoming the first member of the Redskins to accomplish the feat in consecutive seasons since Graham Gano in 2010-11... Went 3-for-3 on field goal attempts at ARI (12/4), including a season-long 53-yarder. Set a new single-season career high and passed Brett Conway (52) for ninth on the team's all-time career field goals list... Had a streak of 15 consecutive games with a field goal snapped in a win at PHI (12/11). Was one game shy of tying Mark Moseley (16 consecutive games across the 1976-77 seasons) for the second-longest streak in team history... Converted all three field goal attempts vs. CAR (12/19). Entered the Top 10 in points in a single season in franchise history (including both kickers and position players). Pushed his field goal total this season to 31, tying Graham Gano (31 in 2011) and Chip Lohmiller (31 in 1991) for second-most in team history. Passed Sam Baker and John Hall (54 each) for seventh on the team's all-time made field goals list... Converted 2-of-2 field goal attempts and five PATs in a win at CHI (12/24). With his second field goal, tied Mark Moseley's record (33 in 1983) for the most field goals in a single season in team history. Passed No. 6 Terry Allen (126 in 1996), No. 5 Chip Lohmiller (128 in 1989) and No. 4 Lohmiller (131 in 1990) on the franchise's single-season scoring list... Broke Mark Moseley's team record for field goals in a season with his 34th field goal of the season vs. NYG (1/1). Became the 18th player in Redskins history (including both kickers and position players) to record 250 career points, and his field goal also tied him with Graham Gano (59) for sixth-most career field goals made in Redskins history.

2015 (SAINTS/REDSKINS)

Completed first season 25-of-28 on field goal attempts for Washington. His 89.3 field goal percentage in 2015 marked the third-best single-season percentage in Redskins history... Spent the offseason with the Saints before being waived during final cuts... Signed with the Redskins in Week 2... Credited by STATS with 369 tackles (275 solo), 71.5 sacks, three interceptions (all returned for touchdowns), 22 forced fumbles and two fumbles recovered through the 2017 season... Ranked third on the Redskins' all-time sack list (71.5) after his first seven seasons... Became the first member of the Redskins to start all 16 games in each of the first seven seasons of an NFL career since the adoption of the 16-game schedule in 1978... Became the first member of the Redskins since the 1970 merger to open a career with 100 consecutive starts, according to the Elias Sports Bureau... Is one of five players (Jared Allen, Derrick Thomas, DeMarcus Ware and Reggie White) in NFL history to record at least 7.5 sacks in each of the first seven seasons of a career since the NFL adopted sacks as an official statistic in 1982... As of the end of the 2017 season, is one of only three players in NFL history with 60+ sacks and 3+ interceptions returned for touchdowns (Julius Peppers and Jason Taylor).

YEAR-BY-YEAR

Started all 16 games for a seventh straight season, recording 46 tackles (34 solo), a team-high 13.0 sacks, three forced fumbles and an interception (which he returned for a touchdown) en route to his third Pro Bowl selection... Recorded three tackles (two solo), a half-sack and returned an interception of Carson Wentz 24 yards for his third career touchdown vs. PHI (9/10). Tied DeAngelo Hall, Monte Coleman, Andre Collins, Brig Owens and Mike Bass for second-most interception return touchdowns in Redskins history. Became the sixth player in league history to record multiple Week 1 interception returns for touchdowns in a career, according to records provided by STATS, joining Lem Barney, Tyrone Braxton, Terrell Buckley, Chuck Howley and Aqib Talib, who all have two career Week 1 pick-sixes to their credit... Made one tackle — a five-yard sack-fumble — in a win at LAR (9/17). The sack was the 60th of his career, making him the third member of the Redskins to record 60.0 career sacks since the NFL adopted sacks as an official statistic in 1982 (Dexter Manley and Charles Mann). Started his 98th consecutive game, securing the longest active streak by an NFL linebacker with Miami's Lawrence Timmons being listed as inactive that week... Credited with four solo tackles (three for loss) and a sack in a win vs. OAK (9/24)... Made both his 100th career regular season appearance and his 100th career regular season start at KC (10/2). Became the first member of the Redskins since the 1970 merger to open a career with 100 consecutive starts, according to the Elias Sports Bureau... Notched two solo tackles — both sacks — vs. DAL (10/29), his first multi-sack game since Week 6 of the 2016 season vs. Philadelphia... Added three tackles (two solo) in a win at SEA (11/5)... Posted a solo tackle vs. MIN (11/12)... Contributed four solo tackles and a sack at NO (11/19)... Posted two sacks among his five tackles (three solo) in a Thanksgiving night win vs. NYG (11/23). During the game, joined Jared Allen, Derrick Thomas, DeMarcus Ware and Reggie White as the only players to register at least 7.5 sacks in each of the first seven seasons of an NFL career since the NFL adopted sacks as an official statistic in 1982. Also tied Dexter Manley for the most seasons with 7.5 or more sacks in Redskins history (seven)... Made four tackles (three solo) at DAL (11/30)... Posted two tackles (both solo) at LAC (12/10)... Recorded two solo tackles and a pass defended in a win vs. ARI (12/17)... Compiled four tackles (two solo) including 2.0 sacks in a win vs. DEN (12/24). Recorded his 10th sack of the season, his third career 10-sack season, to join Charles Mann (five) and Dexter Manley (four) as the only Redskins to record at least three 10-sack seasons since the NFL adopted sacks as an official statistic in 1982. Became the first member of the Redskins to post consecutive campaigns with double-digit sack totals since 1985-86, when both Mann and Manley accomplished the feat... Tallied two solo tackles — both sacks — and a forced fumble at NYG (12/31). Recorded 2.0 or more sacks in back-to-back games for the first time in his career, adding to his career-high with four games with 2.0 or more sacks in 2017. Became the first member of the Redskins to post 2.0 or more sacks in consecutive games since Andre Carter in Weeks 5-6 of the 2009 season.

2016 (REDSKINS)

Iron man started all 16 games for a sixth consecutive season, becoming the first member of the Redskins to start all 16 games in each of the first six seasons of an NFL career since the adoption of the 16-game schedule in 1978. Compiled 33 tackles (26 solo), 11.0 sacks, two forced fumbles and two passes defended on the year... Reached 10 sacks for the second time in his career, becoming the fifth member of the Redskins to post multiple 10-sack seasons since the NFL adopted sacks as an official statistic in 1982 (Dexter Manley, 4; Charles Mann, 4; Andre Carter, 2; Brian Orakpo, 2)... Recorded two solo tackles including a sack-fumble of QB Ben Roethlisberger vs. PIT (9/12)... Made three solo tackles including a half-sack vs. DAL (9/18)... Recorded four solo tackles, including two for loss, in a win at NYG (9/25)... Started vs. CLE (10/2) but exited the game early with an elbow injury... In a win at BAL (10/9), became the third Redskins player to record 50 career sacks since the NFL adopted sacks as an official statistic in 1982, joining Dexter Manley and Charles Mann... Posted four tackles (three solo) including 2.5 first-half sacks in a win vs. PHI (10/16), his ninth career multi-sack game... Recorded a sack at DET (10/23)... Recorded three solo tackles, a sack and a pass defended in a tie against CIN (10/30) in London. Recorded a sack in a fourth consecutive game for the first time since a five-game stretch in Weeks 12-16 of the 2014 season... Made three tackles (one solo) in a win vs. MIN (11/13)... Posted a sack in a win vs. GB (11/20)... Made five tackles (two solo) including a five-yard sack at DAL (11/24)... Recorded two solo tackles, a sack and a pass defended at ARI [12/4]... Made two solo tackles including a game-winning sack-fumble of Carson Wentz. The sack was his 11th of the season, tying him for the 10th-most in a single season in team history. Also marked the second time he had posted a sack in four consecutive games in the 2016 season (Weeks 5-8)... Made two tackles (one solo) vs. CAR [12/19]... Contributed on defense and special teams in a win at CHI [12/24]... Played but was limited by a dislocated finger vs. NYG [1/1].

DOB: Nov. 17, 1992 // Stephenson H.S. (Stone Mountain, Ga.)

TRANSACTIONS

Originally selected by the Washington Redskins in the second round (38th overall) of the 2015 NFL Draft.

PRO

Enters 2018 having appeared in all 48 regular season games and one postseason game for the Redskins since being drafted in 2015. Compiled 110 tackles (73 solo), 20.5 sacks, 10 passes defended, four forced fumbles, three interceptions and two fumble recoveries across his first three seasons from 2015-17... Scored the first points of his career in the 2015 postseason, sacking Aaron Rodgers for a safety in the NFC Wild Card Round.

YEAR-BY-YEAR

Started all 16 games for a second straight season, recording career highs in total tackles (42), solo tackles (31) and interceptions (two) while tying his career high with 8.0 sacks. Was one of six players — and one of only three defensive players (Ryan Kerrigan, D.J. Swearinger) — to start all 16 games for the Redskins... Posted four solo tackles and his first sack of the season vs. PHI (9/10)... Recorded three tackles (two solo) including a sack in a win at LAR (9/17)... Registered two solo tackles, a sack and a pass defended in a win vs. OAK (9/24). Posted a sack in three consecutive games for the first time since Weeks 15-17 of the 2015 season... Made two tackles (one solo) including a sack on the Chiefs' first play from scrimmage at KC (10/2)... Posted two tackles, half a sack and a pass defended in a win vs. SF (10/15). Joined Marco Coleman (2000), Fred Stokes (1991) and Charles Mann (1989) as the only Redskins to record at least half a sack in each of the first five games of a season since the NFL adopted sacks as an official statistic in 1982... Added five solo tackles at PHI (10/23)... Made a solo tackle for loss vs. DAL (10/29)... Recorded an assisted tackle and harassed quarterback Russell Wilson in a win at SEA (11/5)... Recorded two tackles (one solo) vs. MIN (11/12)... Pitched in four tackles (three solo) at NO (11/19)... Played on defense and special teams in a Thanksgiving night win vs. NYG (11/23)... Made five tackles (one solo) including a half-sack at DAL (11/30)... Contributed on defense and special teams at LAC (12/10)... Tallied three solo tackles, a sack, an interception and a fumble recovery in a win vs. ARI (12/17). Became the first member of the Redskins to record a sack, a fumble recovery and an interception in a single game since Monte Coleman against Atlanta on Dec. 19, 1993... Compiled five solo tackles, 2.0 sacks and a forced fumble in a win vs. DEN (12/24). Tied his single-season career high by reaching eight sacks on the year, matching the mark he set as a rookie in 2015... Recorded three tackles (two solo) and his career-high second interception of the season at NYG (12/31). Became the first Redskins linebacker to record multiple interceptions in a single season since Perry Riley Jr. (two) in 2015 and the first outside linebacker to accomplish the feat for Washington since Rob Jackson (four) in 2012.

2016 (REDSKINS)

Started all 16 games, compiling 38 tackles (22 solo), 4.5 sacks, three passes defended and an interception... Recorded three assisted tackles vs. PIT (9/12)... Made an assisted tackle vs. DAL (9/18)... Contributed five tackles (four solo) and a pass defended in a win at NYG (9/25)... Recorded four tackles (three solo, two for loss) in a win vs. CLE (10/2)... Made one solo tackle in a win at BAL (10/9)... Posted two tackles (one solo) including a half-sack in a win vs. PHI (10/16)... Recorded two solo tackles including a sack at DET (10/23)... Tallied three solo tackles in a tie against CIN (10/30) in London... Tallied four tackles (two solo), two sacks and the first interception of his career in a win vs. MIN (11/13). Became only the fourth member of the Redskins to record two sacks and an interception in a single game since 1982, joining Marcus Washington (Dec. 18, 2005), Shawn Springs (Dec. 26, 2004) and Monte Coleman (Dec. 19, 1993)... Made two tackles (one solo) in a win vs. GB (11/20)... Contributed on defense and special teams at DAL (11/24)... Added two solo tackles at ARI (12/4)... Recorded a tackle in a win at PHI (12/11)... Contributed three tackles (one solo) and a pass defended vs. CAR (12/19)... Posted a five-yard sack and blocked a field goal in a win at CHI (12/24). The block was the first of Smith's career and the Redskins' first since Nov. 4, 2012 (DeAngelo Hall vs. Carolina)... Made four tackles (one solo) vs. NYG (1/1).

2015 (REDSKINS)

Played in all 16 regular season games and one postseason game for the Redskins, earning a number of plaudits for his play in his rookie season including inclusion on Gil Brandt's NFL.com All-Rookie squad. Posted 30 tackles (20 solo), 8.0 sacks, four passes defended, three forced fumbles and a fumble recovery in the regular season... Led all NFL rookies in sacks, becoming the first member of the Redskins to do so since Brian Orakpo in 2009... Made NFL debut vs. MIA (9/13), recording his first career sack, forced fumble and fumble recovery on a single play when he jarred the ball loose from Dolphins quarterback Ryan Tannehill and recovered the ball 25 yards downfield. GAME 1

FedExField (Landover, Md.)

EAGLES 30, REDSKINS 17

LANDOVER, Md. – The Washington Redskins lost to the Philadelphia Eagles, 30-17, in front of an announced crowd of 78,685 people at FedExField in Week 1.

After ceding a 13-0 early lead to the Eagles, the Redskins responded with two touchdowns in the second quarter to temporarily take a 14-13 advantage. Linebacker Ryan Kerrigan intercepted Eagles quarterback Carson Wentz and returned the interception 24 yards for a touchdown. The interception was the third of Kerrigan's career, with all three having been returned for touchdowns.

With that touchdown and his pick-six in the 2011 season opener, Kerrigan became the sixth player in league history to record multiple Week 1 interception returns for touchdowns in a career, according to records provided by STATS. Kerrigan joined Lem Barney, Tyrone Braxton, Terrell Buckley, Chuck Howley and Aqib Talib, who all have two career Week 1 pick-sixes to their credit. Kerrigan tied DeAngelo Hall, Monte Coleman, Andre Collins, Brig Owens and Mike Bass for second-most career interception return touchdowns in Redskins history.

The second touchdown came via a 29-yard catch and run by running back Chris Thompson from quarterback Kirk Cousins. The touchdown was the 73rd touchdown pass of Cousins' career and the sixth receiving touchdown of Thompson's career.

The Redskins had the ball trailing 22-17 in the final minutes until Eagles defensive tackle Fletcher Cox recovered a Cousins fumble and returned it 20 yards for a touchdown. After video review to determine whether or not Cousins' arm was moving forward, the call stood, pushing the final score to 30-17.

With the performance, Cousins moved past Billy Kilmer (12,352) for the fifth-most career passing yards in Redskins history.

GAME 2

Los Angeles Memorial Coliseum

REDSKINS 27, RAMS 20

LOS ANGELES – The Washington Redskins defeated the Los Angeles Rams, 27-20, in front of an announced crowd of 56,612 people at Los Angeles Memorial Coliseum in Week 2.

The Redskins played in the greater Los Angeles area for the first time since Dec. 24, 1994, a 24-21 Redskins victory that represented the Rams' final contest in Los Angeles prior to the franchise's relocation to St. Louis. The Redskins improved to 26-13-1 against the Rams all-time, including postseason play, with the victory.

The Redskins raced out to a 13-0 lead, buoyed largely by the strength of the running game. The Redskins recorded 167 rushing yards in the first half, the team's most in a first half since Dec. 12, 2010, vs. Tampa Bay (174). Of those 167 first-half rushing yards, 75 came in the first quarter, the team's most in an opening frame since Week 2 of the 2015 season, coincidentally Washington's most recent contest against the Rams.

The Redskins finished the game with 229 rushing yards, the team's first 200-yard rushing effort since Week 16 of the 2016 season at Chicago. According to the Elias Sports Bureau, with running backs Rob Kelley (78 yards), Chris Thompson (77) and Samaje Perine (67), the Redskins had three different players reach 65 rushing yards in a single game for the first time since Dec. 1, 1957, against the Chicago Bears (Ed Sutton, 72; Jim Podoley, 71; Don Bosseler, 68).

Running back Chris Thompson rushed three times and posted career highs in rushing yards (77) and rushing touchdowns (two), including a career-long 61-yard touchdown scamper. It marked his second career multi-touchdown game, joining Week 16 of the 2016 season at Chicago (one rushing, one receiving). Thompson's 25.7-yard rushing average was the best by a member of the Redskins with at least three carries in a game in records available dating back to 1960.

Tied at 20 in the final minutes, quarterback Kirk Cousins engineered a 10-play, 70-yard drive that culminated in an 11-yard touchdown pass to wide receiver Ryan Grant with 1:49 remaining. On the ensuing Rams possession, linebacker Mason Foster intercepted Rams quarterback Jared Goff to seal the victory for Washington.

FedExField (Landover, Md.)

REDSKINS 27, RAIDERS 10

LANDOVER, Md. – The Washington Redskins defeated the Oakland Raiders, 27-10, in front of an announced crowd of 77,123 people at FedExField in Week 3.

The Redskins outgained the Raiders, 472-128. Washington's 344-yard differential was its largest in regular season play since a 385-yard advantage against the Chicago Bears on Dec. 15, 1974, a span of 660 regular season games. The Redskins held the Raiders to 128 total yards, the lowest total during Head Coach Jay Gruden's tenure in Washington. The total represented the fewest yards allowed by the Redskins since Oct. 12, 1992, against Denver.

The Redskins tied a team record by limiting the Raiders to 0-of-11 on third downs. It marked the first time the Redskins have held an opponent without a third down conversion since Dec. 30, 2007, against Dallas.

Quarterback Kirk Cousins recorded season highs in completions (25), passing yards (365), passing touchdowns (three) and passer rating (150.7). He added to his team record for career 300-yard passing games (20, including 19 in regular season play), and he exceeded a 150.0 passer rating as the starter for the fourth time in his career and his first time since Week 17 of the 2015 season at Dallas.

Running back Chris Thompson finished the contest with a career-high 150 receiving yards, surpassing his previous high of 57 yards, set in Week 3 of the 2015 season against the New York Giants. Thompson produced the most receiving yards in a game by any Redskins running back in records available dating back to 1960, surpassing the 140 receiving yards by running back Dick James on Dec. 16, 1962. Including his 38 rushing yards, Thompson finished the game with 188 yards from scrimmage, the most by any member of the Redskins since Alfred Morris on Dec. 30, 2012 vs. Dallas (212, including 200 rushing and 12 receiving).

Wide receiver Josh Doctson recorded his first career touchdown reception on his first reception of the season, a 52-yard pass from Cousins. Doctson became the first member of the Redskins to score his first career touchdown on a reception of 50 yards or longer since Rashad Ross in the final week of the 2015 season (71 yards at Dallas).

The game was the Redskins' first appearance on NBC's Sunday Night Football in 2017. The Redskins improved to 18-17-1 all-time on Sunday Night Football since the broadcast package's debut in 1987 and won consecutive appearances on Sunday Night Football for the first time since Weeks 15-16 of the 2007 season.

GAME 4

Arrowhead Stadium (Kansas City, Mo.)

CHIEFS 29, REDSKINS 20

KANSAS CITY, Mo. – The Washington Redskins fell to the Kansas City Chiefs, 29-20, in front of an announced crowd of 74,587 people at Arrowhead Stadium in Week 4.

The Redskins scored on the game's opening possession, with quarterback Kirk Cousins hitting wide receiver Terrelle Pryor Sr. for a 44-yard touchdown. The receiving touchdown was the fifth of Pryor's career and his first as a member of the Redskins. The receiving touchdown was the longest of Pryor's career and his longest touchdown of any kind since a 93-yard rushing touchdown on Oct. 27, 2013, as quarterback of the Oakland Raiders. It also marked back-to-back weeks with an opening-drive touchdown for the Redskins for the first time since Weeks 8-10 of the 2016 season (including a bye in Week 9).

The teams traded the lead in the third quarter, as a go-ahead touchdown run by Chiefs quarterback Alex Smith was immediately answered with a three-play, 75-yard touchdown drive by Washington. On the drive, tight end Vernon Davis caught a 69-yard reception, moving past Heath Miller (6,569) for the 10th-most career receiving yards by a tight end in NFL history on the play.

The Redskins engineered a 10-play, 53-yard drive late in the contest that resulted in a game-tying 40-yard field goal from kicker Dustin Hopkins with 47 seconds remaining. However, a 43-yard field goal and a fumble recovery touchdown on a desperation lateral play in the final few seconds accounted for the game's final score.

Linebacker Ryan Kerrigan made both his 100th career regular season appearance and his 100th career regular season start in the contest. Kerrigan became the first member of the Redskins since the 1970 merger to open a career with 100 consecutive starts, according to the Elias Sports Bureau.

GAME 5

FedExField (Landover, Md.)

REDSKINS 26, 49ERS 24

LANDOVER, Md. – The Washington Redskins defeated the San Francisco 49ers, 26-24, in front of an announced crowd of 75,568 people at FedExField in Week 6.

The Redskins opened the game with an eight-play, 75-yard drive that resulted in an 11-yard touchdown pass from quarterback Kirk Cousins to wide receiver Josh Doctson. With the score, the Redskins recorded touchdowns on their first possession in three consecutive games for the first time since Weeks 13-15 of the 2004 season.

The Redskins pushed their first-half lead to 17-0 with after a three-yard touchdown pass to running back Samaje Perine and a 48-yard field goal by kicker Dustin Hopkins. However, San Francisco responded with 17 consecutive points across the second and third quarters, evening the game at 17-17.

The Redskins engineered drives of 72 and 84 yards in the fourth quarter, resulting in a Hopkins field goal and a Cousins touchdown run. The Niners cut the Redskins' lead to two points on a late touchdown pass, but Washington recovered the resulting onside kick. After three consecutive runs and a punt, the Redskins' defense stopped San Francisco on the 49ers' final drive, as cornerback Kendall Fuller sealed the 26-24 victory with an interception with three seconds remaining.

Cousins completed 25-of-37 passes for 330 yards with two touchdowns and one interception for a passer rating of 102.3 and also rushed four times for 26 yards, including a seven-yard touchdown run. On the touchdown run, Cousins tied Sonny Jurgensen (10) for the second-most career rushing touchdowns by a Redskins quarterback.

Running back Chris Thompson rushed a career-high 16 times for 33 yards and caught four passes for 105 yards in his first career start. The 100-yard receiving game was his second of the season, making him only the second Redskins running back with multiple 100-yard receiving games in a single season in records dating back to 1960 (Dick James, two in 1962). With the effort, Thompson became the first member of the Redskins to lead the team in rushing and receiving yardage in the same game since Evan Royster in Week 17 of the 2011 season at Philadelphia.

GAME 6

Lincoln Financial Field (Philadelphia)

EAGLES 34, REDSKINS 24

PHILADELPHIA – The Washington Redskins fell to the Philadelphia Eagles, 34-24, in front of an announced crowd of 69,596 people at Lincoln Financial Field in Week 7.

Washington held leads of 3-0 and 10-3 in the first half, but a string of 21 consecutive points by the Eagles on either side of halftime pushed Philadelphia to a 24-10 advantage. Washington cut the lead to 24-17 on a five-yard touchdown pass from quarterback Kirk Cousins to tight end Jordan Reed in the third quarter. However, 10 more Philadelphia points and a late touchdown connection from Cousins to Reed accounted for the final 34-24 score.

Cousins completed 30-of-40 passes for 303 yards with three touchdowns and one interception for a passer rating of 110.7. Cousins added to his team record for career 300-yard passing games (22, including 21 in regular season play). It also marked his fourth consecutive game with a passer rating of 100.0 or better for the first time since a six-game regular season streak in Weeks 12-17 of the 2015 season.

Reed posted season highs in receptions (eight) and receiving yards (64) and tied his career high with two receiving touchdowns. With the two touchdowns, Reed passed Jean Fugett (21) for third-most career receiving touchdowns by a tight end in Redskins history. He now trails only Jerry Smith (60) and Chris Cooley (33) among tight ends in team history.

The Redskins logged their 70th all-time appearance on Monday Night Football since 1970. The appearance tied the Redskins with the Denver Broncos for fourth-most by any team in the program's history.

COWBOYS 33, REDSKINS 19

LANDOVER, Md. – The Washington Redskins fell to the Dallas Cowboys, 33-19, in front of an announced crowd of 78,428 people at FedExField in Week 8.

The Redskins recorded a takeaway on the game's first play from scrimmage, when a fumble by Cowboys running back Ezekiel Elliott was forced by defensive lineman Matt Ioannidis and recovered by cornerback Josh Norman. The takeaway was the Redskins' first on their opponent's first play from scrimmage since cornerback Bashaud Breeland recovered a fumble on the New York Jets' first offensive play in Week 6 of the 2015 season. The Redskins scored on their ensuing opening drive on a 38-yard field goal by kicker Nick Rose, giving the Redskins points on their opening drive in six consecutive games for the first time since the 1970 AFL-NFL merger, according to the Elias Sports Bureau.

Another Rose field goal and a Rob Kelley touchdown run gave the Redskins a 13-7 lead in the second quarter, but the game turned on a blocked field goal in the second quarter that Dallas cornerback Orlando Scandrick returned 86 yards to the Washington four-yard line. Dallas scored a touchdown two plays later to take a 14-13 halftime lead that they would not relinquish.

Quarterback Kirk Cousins completed 26-of-39 pass attempts for 263 yards with one touchdown and one interception for a passer rating of 83.6. With his 38th attempt of the game, Cousins moved past Billy Kilmer (1,791) for the fifth-most career passing attempts in Redskins history.

Wide receiver Jamison Crowder recorded a career-high 123 receiving yards, surpassing his previous career high of 109 yards set in Week 17 of the 2015 season at Dallas. Crowder eclipsed 100 receiving yards in a game for the fifth time in his career and the first time since Week 11 of the 2016 season vs. Green Bay.

With two sacks by linebacker Ryan Kerrigan, the Redskins posted a sack in a 31st straight regular season game to take sole possession of the second-longest sack streak in team history (surpassing a 30-game streak in Week 15 in 2008 through Week 12 in 2010) since the NFL adopted sacks as an official statistic in 1982.

CenturyLink Field (Seattle)

REDSKINS 17, SEAHAWKS 14

SEATTLE – The Washington Redskins defeated the Seattle Seahawks, 17-14, in front of an announced crowd of 68,927 at CenturyLink Field in Week 9.

The Redskins earned the victory despite playing only 42 players in the contest. In addition to the team's seven injured inactives, the Redskins had two active players that did not dress plus a third that dressed only for emergency but did not play.

The Seahawks opened the scoring in the first quarter when Seahawks linebacker Bobby Wagner sacked quarterback Kirk Cousins from the blindside for a safety. However, thanks in part to three missed field goals by Seahawks kicker Blair Walsh and a 13-play, 71-yard touchdown drive by the Redskins, the Redskins entered halftime with a 7-2 lead.

The game approached the final frame with the Redskins holding a 10-2 lead, as interceptions by cornerback Kendall Fuller and linebacker Will Compton helped keep the Seattle offense in check. However, two touchdown passes by Seahawks quarterback Russell Wilson, including one to Doug Baldwin with 1:34 remaining, gave Seattle its first lead of the game, setting the stage for Washington's late-game heroics.

Cousins and the Redskins engineered a four-play, 70-yard touchdown drive in response. Wide receiver Brian Quick absorbed a substantial hit from Seahawks safety Kam Chancellor on a 31-yard reception, and on the ensuing play, wide receiver Josh Doctson laid out for an acrobatic 38-yard grab at the Seattle one-yard line. Running back Rob Kelley completed the drive with a one-yard touchdown plunge, his second of the day. Washington's defense sealed the win on Seattle's final drive, with safety DeAngelo Hall batting away a Hail Mary attempt in his first game back since suffering an injury in Week 3 of the 2016 season.

The win extended the Redskins' regular season winning streak in Seattle to four games, dating back to 2002. The Seahawks had entered the day 37-8 in regular season play at CenturyLink Field since 2012, as their .841 winning percentage at home prior to the game since 2012 was the best in the NFL.

The Redskins improved to 3-0 against NFC West opponents on the year. The victory gave Washington three wins against the NFC West in a single season for the first time since 2011 (3-1). The victory was Head Coach Jay Gruden's 25th career win, allowing him to surpass Mike Shanahan and Jack Pardee for sole possession of the sixth-most coaching victories in team history.

VIKINGS 38, REDSKINS 30

LANDOVER, Md. – The Washington Redskins fell to the Minnesota Vikings, 38-30, in front of an announced crowd of 74,476 people at FedExField in Week 10.

The game marked the second straight year in which the Redskins and Vikings have played at FedExField in Week 10. The Redskins earned a 26-20 victory against Minnesota in Week 10 of the 2016 season.

After being promoted to the team's active roster a day earlier, wide receiver Maurice Harris recorded a 36-yard touchdown reception in the first quarter on his first reception of the season on the Redskins' first drive. The Redskins led, 17-14, late in the first half, but a string of 21 consecutive points by the Vikings on either side of the halftime pushed the Vikings to a 35-17 lead early in the third quarter.

The Redskins cut the deficit to one score early in the fourth quarter thanks in part to a pair of interceptions by safety D.J. Swearinger. Swearinger's multi-interception game was the first by a member of the Redskins since both Bashaud Breeland and Josh Norman accomplished the feat in Week 16 of the 2016 season at Chicago.

The Vikings pushed their lead to 11 points on a 53-yard field goal, and the Redskins countered with a career-long 55-yard field goal by Nick Rose inside of the two-minute warning to push the score to 38-30. However, an onside kick attempt by Washington rolled out of bounds, allowing the Vikings to kneel out the clock for the victory.

The 68 combined points were the most by two teams in a game featuring Washington since the Redskins and Colts combined for 76 points in Week 13 of the 2014 season. Quarterback Kirk Cousins recorded two one-yard rushing touchdowns, scoring on the ground twice in a game for the second time in his career. With his first rushing touchdown, he passed Sonny Jurgensen (10) for sole possession of the second-most career rushing touchdowns by a Redskins quarterback.

GAME 10

Mercedes-Benz Superdome (New Orleans)

SAINTS 34, REDSKINS 31 (OT)

NEW ORLEANS – The Washington Redskins fell to the New Orleans Saints in overtime, 34-31, in front of an announced crowd of 73,138 people at the Mercedes-Benz Superdome in New Orleans in Week 11.

The game was the 43rd overtime contest in Redskins history and the team's first overtime game since Week 8 of the 2016 season against the Cincinnati Bengals in London's Wembley Stadium. The Redskins dropped to 25-16-2 all-time in overtime games.

The Redskins scored a season-high 31 points, their highest total since a 41-point effort against the Chicago Bears in Week 16 of the 2016 season. The Redskins scored 30 points in consecutive games for the first time since a three-game stretch in Weeks 15-17 of the 2015 season.

Quarterback Kirk Cousins completed 22-of-32 passes for 322 yards with three touchdowns and no interceptions for a passer rating of 132.6. On his 12th completion of the day, Cousins surpassed Mark Rypien (1,244) for the fourth-most career completions in team history. Cousins started his 42nd consecutive regular season game for the Redskins, passing Rypien (41 from 1990-93) for the second-longest streak by a Redskins quarterback since the 1970 AFL-NFL merger.

Running back Samaje Perine recorded career highs in rushing attempts (23) and rushing yards (117). The 100-yard rushing performance was the first of his career. Perine recorded the first 100-yard rushing day by a Redskins running back since Rob Kelley in Week 11 of the 2016 season.

Safety D.J. Swearinger recorded an interception on the Saints' first possession, picking off quarterback Drew Brees. The interception was Swearinger's third of the season, matching his single-season career high set in 2016. He became the first member of the Redskins to record an interception in consecutive games since Bashaud Breeland in Weeks 5-6 of the 2015 season.

FedExField (Landover, Md.)

REDSKINS 20, GIANTS 10

LANDOVER, Md. – The Washington Redskins defeated the New York Giants, 20-10, in front of an announced crowd of 73,210 people at FedExField on Thanksgiving night in Week 12.

The Redskins hosted a Thanksgiving home game for the first time in their 85-plus-year history. It was the Redskins' 10th Thanksgiving Day contest in team history, but their outside of road games against the Detroit Lions or Dallas Cowboys.

The Redskins leaned heavily on a strong defensive performance, holding the Giants without an offensive touchdown. The Redskins allowed only 170 total yards, their second-fewest of the season and the third-fewest in a game in Gruden's tenure. The Giants gained only 3.09 yards per play, the Redskins' ninth-best defensive mark in a game since 2000. Giants quarterback Eli Manning accounted for only 113 passing yards, his lowest total since Week 16 of the 2007 season (111, at Buffalo), a span of 155 regular season games.

The Redskins held the Giants to seven first downs, marking Washington's second game this season allowing only seven first downs (Week 3 vs. Oakland). Washington has now held opponents to seven or fewer first downs multiple time in a single season for the first time since 1992 (two).

Kirk Cousins completed 19-of-31 passes for 242 yards with two touchdowns and one interception for a passer rating of 93.8. During the game, Cousins (3,038) surpassed 3,000 passing yards on the season, becoming the first quarterback in Redskins history to record three consecutive 3,000-yard passing seasons. Cousins reached the 15,000-yard career passing mark, becoming only the fifth player in team history to throw for 15,000 career yards with the Redskins, joining Joe Theismann, Sonny Jurgensen, Sammy Baugh and Mark Rypien.

Wide receiver Jamison Crowder recorded a career-high 141 yards and one receiving touchdown on seven receptions, surpassing his previous career high of 123 yards set in Week 8 vs. Dallas. The 141 receiving yards by Crowder are the second-most by a member of the Redskins in a single game this season, trailing running back Chris Thompson's 150-yard effort against Oakland in Week 3.

Running back Samaje Perine recorded 100 rushing yards on 24 carries and added 30 receiving yards on three receptions. He became the first member of the Redskins to post consecutive 100-yard rushing games since Alfred Morris in Weeks 9-10 of the 2013 season. He also became the first Redskins rookie with back-to-back 100-yard rushing games since Morris in Weeks 12-14 of the 2012 season.

GAME 12

AT&T Stadium (Arlington, Texas)

COWBOYS 38, REDSKINS 14

ARLINGTON, Texas – The Washington Redskins fell to the Dallas Cowboys, 38-14, in front of an announced crowd of 91,712 people at AT&T Stadium in Week 13.

The Redskins held the Cowboys to 93 net passing yards and have now allowed fewer than 100 net passing yards in back-to-back games for the first time since Weeks 5-6 of the 2004 season.

Quarterback Kirk Cousins completed 26-of-37 passes for 251 yards with two touchdowns and two interceptions for a passer rating of 84.4. With two touchdown passes, Cousins pushed his passing touchdown total this season to 21, making him the first quarterback in Redskins history to record three consecutive 20-touchdown seasons.

Wide receiver Ryan Grant recorded a career-high 76 receiving yards on a career-high-tying five receptions. His previous single-game career high in receiving yards was 61, set against Philadelphia in Week 1. Wide receiver Josh Doctson added a 14-yard touchdown reception, giving him a touchdown reception in back-to-back games for the first time in his career and making him the first member of the Redskins to catch a touchdown in back-to-back games since DeSean Jackson in Weeks 11-12 of the 2016 season.

The Redskins completed their first set of consecutive Thursday contests for the first time in team history. The 2017 season marked the team's first year in which it has played multiple Thursday games. The game was broadcast by NBC, NFL Network, and for the first time in Redskins history, on Amazon. Announcing crews for the game included the flagship NBC Thursday Night Football presentation as well as British English, Spanish and Portuguese presentations.

StubHub Center (Carson, Calif.)

CHARGERS 30, REDSKINS 13

CARSON, Calif. – The Washington Redskins fell to the Los Angeles Chargers, 30-13, in front of an announced crowd of 25,393 people at StubHub Center in Week 14. The game was the first between the Redskins and Chargers since the Chargers' relocation to Los Angeles.

After the Redskins fell into an early 13-0 deficit, quarterback Kirk Cousins helped engineer a nine-play, 77-yard drive that culminated in a 23-yard touchdown pass to tight end Vernon Davis. The reception was Davis' 542nd of his career, passing Kellen Winslow for the 10th-most career receptions by a tight end in NFL history, accomplishing the feat against the team for whom Winslow played his entire nine-year career.

The Chargers would score on a 75-yard touchdown pass on their ensuing possession, starting a string of 17 consecutive points until cornerback Bashaud Breeland scored on a 96-yard interception return late in the fourth quarter. The 96-yard interception return by Breeland was the second-longest in team history, trailing only a 100-yard interception return touchdown by Barry Wilburn against the Vikings on Dec. 26, 1987. It was also the first interception return of at least 90 yards by the Redskins since then-cornerback DeAngelo Hall scored on a 92-yard interception return at Chicago on Oct. 24, 2010.

Punter Tress Way tied his career high and season high with eight punts. He had three punts downed inside the 20 and recorded at least three punts downed inside the 20 in his third straight game. The streak marked the Redskins' longest stretch of games with three or more punts downed inside the 20 since a four-game streak in Weeks 7-11 of the 1998 season.

The game was the Redskins' first loss to a team from the Pacific Time Zone in 2017. The Redskins finished with a 4-1 record against teams from the Pacific Time Zone, including home wins against the Oakland Raiders and San Francisco 49ers and road wins against the Los Angeles Rams and Seattle Seahawks.

FedExField (Landover, Md.)

REDSKINS 20, CARDINALS 15

LANDOVER, Md. – The Washington Redskins defeated the Arizona Cardinals, 20-15, in front of an announced crowd of 71,026 people at FedExField in Week 15. The victory completed the Redskins' sweep of the NFC West in 2017. The feat was the Redskins' second divisional sweep since realignment in 2002, joining a sweep of the NFC West in 2005.

The Redskins jumped on the Cardinals early. On Arizona's first offensive possession, defensive lineman Anthony Lanier II recorded the first forced fumble of his career, knocking the ball loose while sacking Cardinals quarterback Blaine Gabbert. The fumble was recovered by linebacker Preston Smith, giving Washington a takeaway on their opponent's opening drive for the fifth time in 2017, their most opening-drive takeaways in a season in records dating back to 1999.

On the ensuing drive, quarterback Kirk Cousins threw a touchdown pass on his first pass attempt of the day, connecting with wide receiver Jamison Crowder for a five-yard score. The touchdown came 90 seconds into the game, the Redskins' fastest touchdown of any kind in a game since cornerback Josh Wilson scored on a 30-yard fumble return only 0:11 into the team's game against the St. Louis Rams on Sept. 16, 2012. It was the Redskins' fastest offensive touchdown in a game since running back Clinton Portis scored a 10-yard touchdown run 1:06 into the team's game against the Carolina Panthers on Oct. 11, 2009.

The Redskins' defense was the story the rest of the day. Washington recorded a season-high five sacks, the defense's most since Week 6 of the 2016 season vs. Philadelphia, and 13 passes defended, their most since the 2005 season finale. The Redskins also held the Cardinals without a touchdown, Washington's first time holding an opponent without a touchdown since Nov. 18, 2012, vs. Philadelphia. Leading 20-15, the unit forced a turnover on downs on the Cardinals' final possession to seal the win.

In the contest, Lanier became the fourth member of the Redskins since 2000 to record at least 2.0 sacks and multiple passes defended in a single game, joining linebackers LaVar Arrington (Oct. 27, 2002, vs. Indianapolis), Cornelius Griffin (Nov. 7, 2004, at Detroit) and Brian Orakpo (Sept. 29, 2013, at Oakland). Lanier is the first of that quartet to record three passes defended in that game. Meanwhile, Smith became the first member of the Redskins to record a sack, a fumble recovery and an interception in a single game since linebacker Monte Coleman against the Atlanta Falcons on Dec. 19, 1993.

REDSKINS 27, BRONCOS 11

LANDOVER, Md. – The Washington Redskins defeated the Denver Broncos, 27-11, in front of an announced crowd of 72,889 people at FedExField in Week 16.

After a slow start that saw the Broncos take an early 3-0 lead, the Redskins recorded 27 consecutive points in the second, third and fourth quarters until a Broncos touchdown in the final two minutes of the game. Quarterback Kirk Cousins connected on touchdown passes to Jamison Crowder, Josh Doctson and Vernon Davis and in the process passed Mark Rypien (15,928) for the fourth-most career passing yards in Redskins history.

Linebacker Ryan Kerrigan recorded 2.0 sacks, pushing his season sack total to 11.0 and registering his third career 10-sack season to join Charles Mann (five) and Dexter Manley (four) as the only Redskins to record at least three 10-sack seasons since the NFL adopted sacks as an official statistic in 1982. Kerrigan became the first member of the Redskins to post consecutive campaigns with double-digit sack totals since 1985-86, when both Mann and Manley accomplished the feat. Linebacker Preston Smith also recorded 2.0 sacks, making him and Kerrigan the first Redskins duo to each record at least 2.0 sacks in a game since Kerrigan and defensive lineman Jason Hatcher accomplished the feat against Jacksonville on Sept. 14, 2014.

The Redskins did not allow a touchdown in the game until surrendering a rushing touchdown with 1:18 remaining in the fourth quarter. The touchdown snapped a streak in which the Redskins had not allowed a touchdown in 139 minutes and 59 seconds of game play, dating back to the third quarter of the team's Week 14 game against the Los Angeles Chargers. Including the fourth quarter against the Chargers in Week 14, four quarters against the Arizona Cardinals in Week 15, and the first three quarters against the Broncos, the Redskins held opponents without a touchdown in eight consecutive quarters for the first time since a three-game span from Weeks 1-3 of the 2007 season against the Dolphins, Eagles and Giants, respectively.

The Redskins finished their home slate at 5-3 at FedExField in 2017. The Redskins won five games at home for the first time since 2015 (six) and the sixth time since 2000. They also concluded their home slate on a three-game home winning streak for the first time since the team closed their 2012 regular season on a four-game home winning streak.

MetLife Stadium [East Rutherford, N.J.]

GIANTS 18, REDSKINS 10

EAST RUTHERFORD, N.J. – The Washington Redskins fell to the New York Giants, 18-10, in front of an announced crowd of 76,269 people at MetLife Stadium in Week 17.

Official game time temperature at kickoff was 16 degrees Fahrenheit, making it the coldest game played by the Redskins since the team earned a 21-17 win against the Chicago Bears in the NFC Divisional Round on Jan. 10, 1988 (4° F). The Redskins dropped to 4-1 in games played in temperatures of 16° F or below since 1960 (including postseason play), according to records provided by Pro Football Reference.

The Redskins were unable to dig themselves out of an early 12-0 hole after surrendering a 75-yard touchdown run to Giants running back Orleans Darkwa on the game's second play from scrimmage and then allowing another touchdown on a two-play, 19-yard touchdown drive following an interception on Washington's first possession.

Linebacker Ryan Kerrigan capped his stellar Pro Bowl season in the contest, recording 2.0 sacks for the second straight week and becoming the first member of the Redskins to post 2.0 or more sacks in consecutive games since Andre Carter in Weeks 5-6 of the 2009 season. He finished the season with 13.0 sacks, and with his 2.0 sacks in Week 17, he moved past Dave Butz (11.5 in 1983), Charles Mann (11.5 in 1991) and Marco Coleman (12.5 in 2000) for seventh on the team's leaderboard for sacks in a single season since the NFL adopted sacks as an official statistic in 1982. In all, he led the Redskins in sacks for a fifth season, tying Dexter Manley for the most seasons leading the team in the category in franchise history.

Kerrigan's productivity was once again matched by his durability. With the start, he became the first player in Redskins history to start all 16 games in each of his first seven NFL seasons, joining Brandon Carr, Deon Grant, James Laurinaitis, Tony Parrish and Patrick Peterson as the only defensive players in the NFL to accomplish the feat since the adoption of the 16-game schedule in 1978. He entered the game as one of eight NFL players (and only five non-quarterbacks) to have started every game since the start of the 2011 season [Brandon Carr, Patrick Peterson, Glover Quin, Philip Rivers, Matt Ryan, Matthew Stafford and Jason Witten].

During the contest, quarterback Kirk Cousins reached 4,000 passing yards on the year to record the fifth 4,000-yard passing season in team history. Cousins threw for 4,000 yards in a third straight season, becoming only the 11th quarterback in NFL history to record a streak of at least three consecutive 4,000-yard passing seasons, joining Drew Brees, Peyton Manning, Matt Ryan, Matthew Stafford, Tom Brady, Philip Rivers, Dan Fouts, Trent Green, Eli Manning and Dan Marino.

IMPORTANT DATES

The Start - July 9, 1932

George P. Marshall headed a group (Vincent Bendix, Jay O'Brien, Dorland Doyle) that bought a National Football League franchise in Boston. They contracted to play in Braves Field, home of the National League Baseball team, and were called "The Braves."

The Name

The Boston Gridders moved to Fenway Park, home of the American League Red Sox, and "The Braves" became "The Redskins."

The Franchise - Feb. 13, 1937

The Washington Redskins were officially born as the National Football League approved the transfer of the Boston Redskins franchise to Washington, D.C., and a new history began.

The Band - Aug. 9, 1937

The famed Redskins Band was founded and it was the first of its kind.

First Victory - Sept. 16, 1937

The First Game! The Franchise's Thursday night opener drew 19,941 fans to flood-lighted Griffith Stadium. Riley Smith scored on a 60-yard interception return, while the team added two field goals and an extra point to make the final score - Redskins 13, Giants 3.

First Title - Dec. 5, 1937

Ten thousand fans stomped up Broadway behind the brass band following the franchise's first title. In the game, Sammy Baugh completed 11-of-15 passes, while Cliff Battles had touchdown runs of 75 and 76 yards as the team routed the Giants, 49-14, for the Eastern Championship.

World Champs! - Dec. 12, 1937

Freezing weather, frozen field and the icy-nerved Bears couldn't stop Sammy Baugh (center below). He completed 17-of-33 passes for 335 yards and three touchdowns. Wayne Millner (right), the all-time Notre Dame great, finished with nine catches for 160 yards, including 77- and 55-yard touchdowns.

Westward Ho! - Aug. 2, 1939

The Redskins set forth on their first coast-to-coast football training trip. Training site: Eastern State Normal School in Cheney, Wash.

Zero Hour - Oct. 1, 1939

The Redskins and Giants battled in the mud and rain as the outcome wound up being a scoreless tie, the only scoreless tie in Redskins history.

Record Pass - Oct. 15, 1939

From the kick formation and standing deep in the end zone, Frank Filchock flipped a pass to Andy Farkas who went all the way for the touchdown. It was the longest pass play in National Football League history, 99 yards.

East Champs - Dec. 1, 1940

Miniature-sized Davey O'Brien of the Eagles completed 33 passes in 60 attempts, but the Redskins won 13-6 to clinch the Eastern Championship.

73-to-0hhh! - Dec. 8, 1940

Despite the Redskins gaining the same number of first downs as the Bears in the World Championship Game at Griffith Stadium, the team lost 73-0.

California - Aug. 18, 1941

The Redskins brought pro football on a large scale to California for the first time. They established training quarters in San Diego at Brown Military Academy.

Title Escapes - Nov. 23, 1941

There were 50 seconds to go in the Eastern Championship Game and the Redskins held a 13-10 lead, but the Giants managed to score a field goal and a touchdown to win, 20-13.

Only Loss - Sept. 27, 1942

The Giants are unable to convert a first down, gained only ONE yard rushing and completed just ONE pass — but it was good for a touchdown. They then captured another touchdown on an interception and the Redskins suffered their only 1942 defeat, 14-7.

World Champs! - Dec. 13, 1942

The Bears took an early lead on an errant pass from center, but Sammy Baugh's 85-yard quick kick set them back on their heels. Wilbur Moore then made a vital interception and followed with a sensational catch for a 38-yard touchdown. Andy Farkas capped the victory by carrying the ball 10 of 12 times on an 80-yard touchdown drive. Score: 14-6.

Runner Up - Dec. 26, 1943

Sam Baugh suffered a concussion early, tackling Sid Luckman on a punt return and the Bears went on to win the NFL title, 41-21.

To a T - July 30, 1945

Redskins abandoned their double-wing formation and adopted the T-formation.

East Champs - Dec. 9, 1945

The Redskins had two straight shutouts, the first coming against the Steelers, 24-0, on Dec. 2 and the team defeated the Giants, 17-0, en route to an Eastern title.

One Point Shy - Dec. 16, 1945

In subzero weather, the Redskins lost the world title to the Rams, 15-14, on freakish plays. Baugh's pass from the end zone hit the goal-post for a safety (no longer allowed); and Bob Waterfield's try-for-point hit the crossbar and bounced over.

Charity Game - Sept. 6, 1946

The inaugural Redskins-Rams game benefiting the Los Angeles Times Charities, Inc. drew 68,188 to Memorial Coliseum and netted the Times Boys Club $96,711.23.

High Note - June 13, 1947

The Redskins Band performed at the Philadelphia Inquirer's Famed Festival of Music alongside Whiteman, Waring and the Philharmonic.

Huff Inducted - Aug. 7, 1982

Former Redskin and Giant Sam Huff was inducted into the Pro Football Hall of Fame.

A New Beginning - Sept. 12, 1982

With the 0-5 start of a year ago, the 0-4 preseason fresh on everyone's mind, Mark Moseley lifted the burden with a 26-yard overtime field goal to give the Redskins a victory over Philadelphia. Moseley had only minutes earlier sent the game into overtime with a 48-yard field goal.

Hogs Take Their Bows - Jan. 15, 1982

The celebrated Hogs created enough holes in the Viking defense for John Riggins to plow for a Redskins playoff record 185 yards, leading Washington to a 21-7 win and a spot in the NFC Championship. Before leaving the game, Riggins gallantly bowed to the 54,000-plus Redskins faithful who roared in approval.

Strike! - Sept. 21, 1982

The NFL players walked out in a strike that would last until Nov. 17. In all, eight games were missed, seven cancelled.

Holy Moseley! - Dec. 19, 1982

With time running out, the game on the line, with an NFL record at stake, Mark Moseley beat the Giants by booting his 21st straight field goal in a snowy RFK Stadium. The kick broke Garo Yepremian's record of 20 consecutive field goals made and gave the Redskins a 15-14 win. Also, in the game, John Riggins became only the fifth back in NFL history to exceed 2,000 carries (Payton, Simpson, Brown, and Harris are the others).

A Whitewash - Jan. 2, 1983

For the first time since 1980, the Redskins post a shutout by beating the Cardinals 28-0. Their 8-1 record was the best in the NFC, giving them home-field advantage throughout the playoffs. The 128 points given up by the Redskins defense is the fewest in the NFL.

Sweet Revenge - Jan. 22, 1983

The Redskins avenged their only loss of the season, setting back the Cowboys, 31-17, to reach their second Super Bowl, and first in 10 years.

Super Bowl Win! - Jan. 30, 1983

The Redskins won Super Bowl XVII downing the Dolphins 27-17. Their win streak reached eight, and 15 of 16 and 20 of 24 over two seasons. Jack Kent Cooke accepted the Super Bowl Trophy from Pete Rozelle in the locker room as MVP Riggins boasts, "Ron may be President, but for tonight, I'm King." The Redskins' 12-1 record was the fifth best NFL mark in the last 50 years, and their best ever.

Hails from the Chief - Jan. 31, 1983

President Reagan and Mrs. Reagan were at Dulles Airport to greet the World Champion Redskins as they arrived back from California.

Parade of Stars - Feb. 3, 1983

Doomsday Showdown - Dec. 11, 1983

Dressed in army fatigues, the Redskins marched into Dallas to do battle. The result was a convincing 31-10 victory in Dallas to gain sole possession of first place in the NFC East. It was a game that saw Tony Dorsett held to 34 yards on 14 carries (one yard on five carries in the second half) and scores from four different Redskins.

Alone on a Hill - Dec. 17, 1983

For the second year in a row, the Redskins finished with the best record in the NFL. Their 31-22 victory over the Giants capped a remarkable 14-2 regular season. It was the first time in the history of the League that an NFC team compiled so many victories.

One-Two Punch - 1983

Mark Moseley's NFL kick scoring record of 161 points, and Riggins' total of 144 points, topped the entire NFL. It was the first time since 1951 that the number one and two scorers played on the same team. Their total of 305 points surpassed the totals of eight other clubs.

Ring Out the Rams - Jan. 1, 1984

The Redskins rang in the New Year by drubbing the L.A. Rams 51-7 in the most lopsided playoff game in 26 years. The team set or tied 13 club playoff marks with the 44-point margin of victory, the greatest in the 47-year history of the Redskins.

Three of a Kind - 1985

The 10 victories marked a third consecutive season the Redskins won 10 or more games, equaling a club-best streak set from 1972-74. The 35 wins in those three seasons were a club record for wins over a three-year period. Threes were also meaningful for offensive linemen Joe Jacoby and Russ Grimm, who each earned a third consecutive trip to the Pro Bowl. Receiver Art Monk (91 catches) went for a second straight time.

Happy Birthday - Feb. 13, 1986

The Washington Redskins entered their 50th season in the Nation's Capital, celebrating the franchise's move from Boston to Washington.

Rally Ho - 1986

Headed by Coach Ray Flaherty of the 1937 World Champions, former players and coaches gathered to kickoff the 1986 season.

Little Mr. Big - Oct. 27, 1986

WR Gary Clark accounted for 241 receiving yards (on 11 catches) to break teammate Art Monk's club record on Monday Night TV.

Showdown - Nov. 23, 1986

Eager to avenge their first loss of 1986, the Redskins came out smokin' against Dallas. The 34-0 first half lead marked the most points the Cowboys had ever allowed in a single half of play. The Redskins 41-14 win was their most points ever against the Cowboys.

Gibbs Gets #70 - Jan. 3, 1987

Head Coach Joe Gibbs became the winningest coach in Redskin history, gaining his 70th win as the team defeated the Bears 27-13 in a divisional playoff.

A Giant Step - Jan. 11, 1987

With 15 new faces on the roster, the Washington Redskins played in their third NFC Championship game in five years.

Pro Bowlers, Again - Feb. 1, 1987

Hogs Russ Grimm and Joe Jacoby returned to the Islands of Hawaii for the fourth consecutive season. Joined by Art Monk, Darrell Green, Gary Clark, Dexter Manley, and Jay Schroeder, the Redskins equaled a club record seven participants in the annual classic.

NFLPA Strike - 1987

NFL players walked out following the second week of the regular season.

Perfect - Oct. 19, 1987

Redskins "replacement" players closed out their season with a perfect 3-0 mark. The team held on to defeat Dallas, 13-7, in Texas Stadium.

Relief Pitcher - Dec. 26, 1987

Quarterback Doug Williams connected on 11-of-22 for 217 yards and two touchdowns in Minnesota. The 27-24 overtime victory is highlighted by a Ricky Sanders 51-yard catch-and-run to force sudden death. Haji-Sheikh kicks the game winner.

The Bear Facts - Jan. 10, 1988

For the second consecutive season, the 'Skins traveled to Chicago for a divisional playoff game. After trailing 14-0 in the second quarter, the team rallied to win 21-17. Darrell Green provided the game-winning points on an electrifying 52-yard punt return, as the Redskins advanced to the NFC Championship Game for the fourth time in six seasons.

NFC Champs! - Jan. 17, 1988

The Redskins are 17-10 victors over the Minnesota Vikings as Doug Williams connected with Gary Clark to break a 10-10 fourth quarter deadlock. Washington became the first team to advance to the Super Bowl three times in the 1980s.

World Champs! - Jan. 31, 1988

Twenty Super Bowl records were broken en route to a 42-10 decision over the Denver Broncos. Quarterback Doug Williams is named the game's MVP as he connected on 18-of-29 for a record 340 yards. His four touchdown passes tie another record as the team scores five times in five possessions in the second quarter alone.

100 Wins - Dec. 10, 1989

Joe Gibbs registered his 100th career win as head coach of the Redskins as the team defeated San Diego, 26-21. Only six other coaches reached 100 wins faster than Gibbs.

Monk Moves Up - Dec. 10, 1989

Art Monk moved into third place on the all-time NFL receiving list, ahead of friend and receivers coach Charley Taylor, in Washington's 26-21 win vs. San Diego.

A Lion of a Comeback - Nov. 4, 1990

The Redskins equaled the greatest comeback in club history with a 41-38 overtime win at Detroit. Down by 21 points in the third quarter and 17 points entering the fourth, Jeff Rutledge rallied the Skins by passing for 363 second-half yards (30-42). The game winning points came on a Chip Lohmiller 34-yard field goal in overtime.

Oct. 22, 1995 - RFK Stadium

Washington 36, Detroit 30

Trailing 30-27, Eddie Murray's 39-yard field goal tied it with :04 to play. Darrell Green's seven-yard interception return of a Scott Mitchell pass for a touchdown 3:41 into overtime ended the game.

Nov. 10, 1996 - RFK Stadium

Arizona 37, Washington 34

In one of the most bizarre games in Redskins history, the Skins led by 14 points in the fourth quarter only to squander the lead. The Cardinals won the coin toss and drove to the Redskins 15, only to have Kevin Butler miss. The Skins' Scott Blanton booted the apparent 38-yard game-winner, but a holding penalty forced a retry from 48 that went wide left. Arizona then missed a 29-yarder that was negated because the Redskins were offside. Butler's third attempt was good from 32 yards.

Nov. 24, 1996 - RFK Stadium

San Francisco 19, Washington 16

San Francisco's William Floyd's 1-yard touchdown run tied the game in regulation. After winning the coin toss in overtime, the 49ers' Jeff Wilkins hit a 38-yard field goal to win.

Sept. 14, 1997 - Jack Kent Cooke Stadium

Washington 19, Arizona 13

In the inaugural game at Jack Kent Cooke Stadium, the Redskins won with 13:24 left in overtime when Gus Frerotte, sidestepping a heavy rush, threw a 40-yard strike to a leaping Michael Westbrook in the end zone. The winning points were set up two plays earlier when rookie defensive end Ke-nard Lang forced and recovered a fumble on the Redskins 35-yard line.

Nov. 23, 1997 - Jack Kent Cooke Stadium

Washington 7, NY Giants 7

In overtime, the Redskins turned the ball over three times, but the defense forced two punts and the Giants missed a 54-yard field goal. With under two minutes remaining, the Redskins drove to the Giants 36-yard line, but a 54-yard field goal attempt fell short with 11 seconds left in overtime.

OVERTIME GAMES

Sept. 12, 1999 - FedExField

Dallas 41, Washington 35

Dallas stopped the Skins' first overtime drive and then scored on a 76-yard bomb from Troy Aikman to Rocket Ismail.

Nov. 28, 1999 - FedExField

Washington 20, Philadelphia 17

Brett Conway's game-winning 27-yard FG was set up by a 48-yard kickoff return by James Thrash, which opened the overtime period. The Eagles never had the ball.

Dec. 26, 1999 - 3Com Park

Washington 26, San Francisco 20

The Redskins overcame a 10-point fourth quarter deficit to win their ninth game of the year and clinch the NFC East. Brad Johnson's QB sneak from the 1-yard line with 3:28 left in regulation sent the game into the extra period. On the opening drive, Johnson connected with Larry Centers for a 33-yard TD.

Oct. 1, 2000 - FedExField

Washington 20, Tampa Bay 17

Tampa Bay forced the overtime when Martin Gramatica connected on a 42-yard field goal as the regulation clock fell to 0:00. 10:51 into the extra period, Deion Sanders ignited the crowd with a 57-yard punt return, setting up the game winning 20-yard field goal by Michael Husted.

Oct. 21, 2001 - FedExField

Washington 17, Carolina 14

Placekicker Brett Conway kicked a 23-yard field goal in overtime to seal the Redskins' first victory of the season and the first under Marty Schottenheimer, 17-14. The Redskins forced overtime by overcoming a 14-point deficit in the fourth quarter thanks to a 67-yard interception return for touchdown by LaVar Arrington and an 85-yard touchdown pass from Tony Banks to Rod Gardner.

Sept. 21, 2003 - FedExField

New York Giants 24, Washington 21

With less than five minutes left in regulation, Washington overcame a 21-10 deficit to send the game into overtime. The Giants won the toss and drove downfield from their own 6-yard line. Kicker Matt Bryant connected on a 29-yard field goal to cap off New York's first scoring drive since the second quarter and seal the 24-21 victory.

Oct. 2, 2005 - FedExField

Washington 20, Seattle 17

With a chance to win the game at the end of regulation with 0:01 left on the clock, Seattle kicker Josh Brown missed a 47-yard field goal, sending the game into overtime. After winning the coin toss, the Redskins went on a 5:31 drive that culminated with a Nick Novak 39-yard field goal to seal Washington's victory over the Seahawks.

Nov. 27, 2005 - FedExField

San Diego 23, Washington 17

San Diego running back LaDainian Tomlinson scored a 32-yard touchdown run with 3:37 remaining to tie the game at 17. With 0:35 remaining, the Redskins had an opportunity to take the lead with a 53-yard field goal but the ball sailed wide right. In overtime, San Diego ran two plays that culminated in a 41-yard touchdown run, again by Tomlinson to seal the victory.

Oct. 1, 2006 - FedExField

Washington 36, Jacksonville 30

Jacksonville sent the game into overtime with 0:06 on the clock when kicker Josh Scobee connected on a 41-yard field goal. Washington won the coin toss and proceeded to take the ball 80 yards on three plays for the game-winning score. Quarterback Mark Brunell connected with wide receiver Santana Moss for a 68-yard touchdown pass to seal the win.

Dec. 24, 2006 - Edward Jones Dome

St. Louis 37, Washington 31

Washington kicker Shaun Suisham nailed a field goal with 1:15 remaining in regulation to tie the score at 31 and send it into overtime. St. Louis came back in overtime and, six minutes into the extra time, running back Steven Jackson took a handoff 21 yards for the game winning touchdown.

Sept. 9, 2007 - FedExField

Washington 16, Miami 13

In overtime, the Redskins won the coin toss and elected to receive. Running backs Clinton Portis and Ladell Betts combined for 46 rushing yards and quarterback Jason Campbell completed a key third-down pass to tight end Chris Cooley, keeping the drive alive. As soon as the Redskins got into field goal range, kicker Shaun Suisham nailed the 39-yard field goal to seal the victory.

Nov. 4, 2007 - Meadowlands

Washington 23, New York Jets 20

Jets kicker Mike Nugent connected on a 30-yard field goal with 0:15 left in regulation to tie the game at 20-20 and send the game into overtime. Washington running back Clinton Portis bulldozed his way down the field in overtime, setting up the game-winning 46-yard field goal by kicker Shaun Suisham.

Dec. 6, 2009 - FedExField

New Orleans 33, Washington 30

Saints quarterback Drew Brees drove 80 yards at the end of regulation to tie the game at 30-30. In overtime, the Saints marched down the field setting up an 18-yard field goal by kicker Garrett Hartley to seal the victory.

Sept. 19, 2010 - FedExField

Houston 30, Washington 27

After holding the Texans on the first possession of overtime, the Redskins drove to the Houston 34-yard line, but kicker Graham Gano pushed a 52-yard attempt wide right. On the ensuing drive, Neil Rackers connected on a 35-yard field goal to give Houston the win.

OVERTIME GAMES

Oct. 10, 2010 – FedExField

Washington 16, Green Bay 13

LaRon Landry intercepted an Aaron Rodgers pass on Green Bay's second overtime possession and the Redskins drove 24 yards to set up a game-winning 33-yard field goal by kicker Graham Gano in the team's Week 5 win against the eventual Super Bowl champions.

Nov. 21, 2010 – LP Field

Washington 19, Tennessee 16

After missing a potential game-winning field goal at the end of regulation, Graham Gano redeemed himself in overtime, capping off a 10-play, 57-yard drive with a 48-yarder on the Redskins' first overtime possession to secure a 19-16 road win.

Dec. 26, 2010 – EverBank Field

Washington 20, Jacksonville 17

A 20-yard touchdown run by Jacksonville quarterback David Garrard in the final three minutes of regulation helped the Jaguars force overtime. Jacksonville won the toss and elected to receive, but on their third offensive play of overtime, cornerback Kevin Barnes intercepted Garrard, setting up Graham Gano for a 31-yard game-winning field goal.

Nov. 20, 2011 – FedExField

Dallas 27, Washington 24

Redskins quarterback Rex Grossman lofted a perfect fade to receiver Donte Stallworth in the corner of the end zone with 14 seconds remaining in regulation to force overtime. The Redskins missed a 52-yard field goal attempt on the first possession of overtime, and Dallas responded as kicker Dan Bailey hit a 39-yard field goal above the right upright for a Dallas victory.

Dec. 9, 2012 – FedExField

Washington 31, Baltimore 28

Baltimore took an eight-point lead with less than five minutes to play, but Washington quarterbacks Robert Griffin III and Kirk Cousins led a 13-play, 88-yard drive to tie the game at 28-28. Cousins, in place of an injured Griffin III, threw an 11-yard touchdown pass to Pierre Garcon and followed it with a two-point conversion on a quarterback draw. In overtime, Washington forced the eventual Super Bowl champion Ravens to go three-and-out, and after a 64-yard punt return by rookie Richard Crawford, kicker Kai Forbath hit a 34-yard game-winning field goal.

Washington 30, San Diego 24

Leading 24-21 on Homecoming Weekend, the Redskins' defense faced first-and-goal from its own 1-yard line with 21 seconds remaining. After stopping Danny Woodhead on first down, the Redskins forced two Philip Rivers incompletions and forced the Chargers to settle for a game-tying 19-yard field goal by Nick Novak. Washington took the ball on the first possession of overtime and promptly drove 78 yards in 10 plays, winning the game on fullback Darrel Young's team-record-tying third rushing touchdown of the day.

Oct. 27, 2014 – AT&T Stadium

Washington 20, Dallas 17

Led by quarterback Colt McCoy in his first start with the team, the Redskins earned their first overtime win against the rival Cowboys since Nov. 2, 1975. On Monday Night Football, McCoy completed 25-of-30 passes for 299 yards, including engineering a nine-play, 58-yard drive culminating in a 40-yard Kai Forbath field goal on overtime's first possession. Rookie cornerback Bashaud Breeland batted away a fourth down pass on the ensuing Cowboys possession, giving the Redskins a 20-17 win.

Oct. 11, 2015 – Georgia Dome

Atlanta 25, Washington 19

The Redskins trailed by three with 24 seconds remaining in regulation. Quarterback Kirk Cousins led the Redskins 46 yards in four plays, and kicker Dustin Hopkins hit a then-career-long 52-yard field goal with no time remaining to force overtime with the teams tied at 19-19. The Redskins received the ball to start overtime, but on the seventh play of the drive, wide receiver Ryan Grant slipped in his route, allowing Falcons cornerback Robert Alford to intercept a Cousins pass and race 59 yards down the right sideline for the game-winning touchdown.

Oct. 30, 2016 – Wembley Stadium

Washington 27, Cincinnati 27

In the Redskins' first game in London, the Redskins and Bengals treat an international audience to a back-and-forth game that featured five lead changes. Trailing 27-24 with 3:15 remaining, quarterback Kirk Cousins engineered a 10-play, 45-yard drive to set-up kicker Dustin Hopkins for a game-tying 40-yard field goal with 1:07 remaining in regulation. In overtime, Hopkins pulled a potential game-winning 34-yard field goal wide left. The Redskins forced a fumble on the Bengals' ensuing possession, and a potential Hail Mary pass for the Redskins on their next drive sailed out of bounds, resulting in the Redskins' second tie of the overtime era.

Nov. 19, 2016 – Mercedes-Benz Superdome

New Orleans 34, Washington 31

A battered Redskins squad led the eventual NFC North champion Saints, 31-16, with under six minutes remaining in New Orleans, but the Saints engineered touchdown drives of 75 yards and 87 yards and converted a two-point conversion to send the game to overtime at 31-31. After a Redskins' three-and-out to open the extra period, the Saints drove 51 yards to set up Wil Lutz's game-winning 28-yard field goal.

OVERTIME RECORDS

Washington's .605 all-time winning percentage in overtime games (including postseason play) ranks third among all NFL teams entering 2018.

Located in Landover, Md., FedExField serves as home to the Washington Redskins and as the area's premier sports and entertainment destination. Beyond the annual excitement of National Football League competition, the venue has played host to marquee soccer and college football events as well as internationally-recognized recording artists.

Over the last several years, Owner Dan Snyder and the entire Redskins organization have spearheaded efforts to enhance the guest experience. Among the improvements implemented with success in recent years have been an increase in the number of stadium gates and new parking plans to reduce congestion and welcome fans in and out more efficiently. The Redskins also upgraded Wi-Fi throughout the stadium, creating better access to enhanced game day features on the Redskins Mobile App and complimentary access to the Red Zone Channel via NFL Mobile for season ticket members.

The stadium, with a capacity of 82,000, sits on a 200-acre site and boasts the NFL's premier tailgating experience. Prior to each game, diehard Redskins fans arrive in style in decorated vans, buses, trucks and more. In recent years, President Bruce Allen, Super Bowl XXII MVP Doug Williams and others have visited the congregations of Redskins fans to share in the tradition of the league's top pregame tailgates.

Privately financed, FedExField was completed in a record 17 months and hosted the Redskins home opener on Sept. 14, 1997 – a 19-13 overtime win against the Arizona Cardinals. FedExField increased the Redskins' attendance capacity by more than 40 percent when the team left RFK Stadium after 1996. Nevertheless, the Redskins have sold out every home game for the past 50 seasons. All 210 (preseason, regular and postseason) contests at FedExField through the 2017 season have been sellouts.

Construction on FedExField began in March 1996 and cost $250 million. The following year, $30 million was spent to create a 170,000 square-foot atrium encircling the entire stadium on the Joe Gibbs Club Level.

When Snyder bought the Redskins in July 1999, one of his first tasks was to make improvements to FedExField. Immediately, millions were invested in such projects as replacing metal rails with glass rails in order to provide unobstructed sight lines in the stadium bowl. Since his inaugural season, Snyder has spent more than $100 million to enhance FedExField and ensure a best-in-class experience for fans.

Snyder also created unique Executive Suites, the NFL's largest video wall and added more than 1,000 cash parking spaces. The Redskins installation of new 100-foot long end zone HD Videoboards and eight new digital ribbon boards provide fans with out-of-town scores and statistics, and the implementation of a text message traffic alert system gives fans updates on the best gameday routes.

Snyder was also instrumental in the multimillion dollar renovation and replacement of the video control room and the movement of the late Sean Taylor's locker for viewing on the stadium's Club Level.

In 2011, the Redskins, along with NRG Energy, one of the largest energy companies in the United States, brought the largest solar installation of renewable energy in the region to FedExField – 8,000 solar panels, 10 electric vehicle charging stations and a 30-foot tall solar sculpture. Prince George's County Chamber of Commerce honored the Redskins' innovation in solar installation by recognizing them as the 2011 Green Business of the Year.

FedExField, while being the official home of the Redskins, is also host to a variety of special events including premier college football games, world-class performers, international soccer matches and much more.

The facility has become a premier destination for top-selling musical artists. In 2018 alone, FedExField played host to two of the year's most-acclaimed tours, welcoming fans for consecutive nights on both Taylor Swift's "Reputation" tour and Jay-Z and Beyoncé's "OTR II" tour. A year earlier, the stadium served as the stage for a number of internationally acclaimed performers, including U2's "The Joshua Tree Tour" and Coldplay's "A Head Full of Dreams" tour. The venue has also welcomed such musical luminaries as legendary rock group Guns n' Roses and award-winning country artist Kenny Chesney in recent years.

The home of the Redskins has also welcomed top college football teams. In addition to an early season matchup between Maryland and Texas this year, the venue has played host to a number of high-profile collegiate tilts, including a sold-out prime-time thriller between Virginia Tech and Boise State in September 2010 and welcoming the rich pageantry of the Army-Navy Game to the nation's capital for the first time in 2011. In 2017, Virginia Tech and West Virginia met in Landover to renew their battle for the Black Diamond Trophy.

FedExField has also become a destination for marquee soccer friendlies, including matches between the U.S. Men's National Team and world powerhouse Brazil in 2012, as well as showdowns featuring iconic clubs such as Chelsea, FC Barcelona, Manchester United, Juventus and Real Madrid in recent years.

Redskins Special Events opens up a world of possibilities by making its most exclusive areas that host the "who's who" of Washington during Redskins games available for non-game events throughout the year. FedExField is the perfect backdrop for any special occasion. For more information, check out <http://events.redskins.com>.

A DAY OF FIRSTS

On September 14, 1997, the Redskins opened their new stadium with a thrilling 19-13 overtime victory over the Arizona Cardinals in front of a record crowd of Washington fans.

In their first game at their new home, the Redskins were forced into overtime when Cardinals kicker Kevin Butler connected on a 47-yard field goal to tie the score with just two seconds remaining.

The Cards won the toss to start the extra period, but rookie defensive lineman Kenard Lang stripped Arizona running back Leeland McElroy of the football, and Derek M. Smith recovered for the Skins on the 35-yard line.

Quarterback Gus Frerotte (right) was sacked on first down, but on the next play he found Michael Westbrook in the endzone for a game-winning 40-yard drive.

STADIUM GUIDE

As a guest of FedExField, your safety and enjoyment of the game day experience is our primary concern. Please note that everyone entering FedExField is subject to search by our security staff. This requires fans to enter through predetermined screening locations, which sometimes results in delays.

Per NFL policy, fans will be able to carry the following style and size bag, package, or container at stadium plaza areas, stadium gates, or when approaching queue lines of fans awaiting entry into the stadium:

**Bags that are clear plastic, vinyl or PVC and do not exceed 12" x 6" x 12." (Official NFL team logo clear plastic tote bags will be available through club merchandise outlets or at nflshop.com/allclear).

**One-gallon clear plastic freezer bag (Ziploc bag or similar).

**Small clutch bags are permissible, if they are approximately 4.5" x 6.5", with or without a handle or strap can be taken into the stadium with one of the clear plastic bags.

An exception will be made for medically necessary items after proper inspection at a gate designated for this purpose. For more information, please visit: <http://www.nfl.com/allclear>

Please be aware that you may not bring the following items into FedExField: Bags, including: backpacks, gym bags, duffel bags, diaper bags, packages, briefcases, purses, fanny packs, etc... Food and beverages of any kind... Seat cushions with zippers or pockets... Umbrellas (plastic ponchos are available for sale at select merchandise areas)... Bottles, jugs, thermoses, cans, coolers, or any other container... Animals (except for certified guide dogs assisting disabled guests)... Whistles, horns and other noise makers... Weapons, firearms... Illegal drugs... Folding chairs and strollers... LED lights and battery powered clothing.

Leafletting or distribution of any literature is prohibited.

Understanding and adhering to these policies will help ensure that all fans enter FedExField in a safe and timely manner. If a ticket holder elects not to consent to these searches or is found attempting to enter with a prohibited item, the ticket holder may be denied entry into the stadium.

We appreciate your cooperation with game day security requirements.

INOVA SPORTS PERFORMANCE CENTER

Since 1992, the Washington Redskins have made their home on a picturesque 162 acres of land in Ashburn, Va., at Inova Sports Performance Center at Redskins Park, the team's year-round headquarters. More than 25 years later, commitments to construction and renovation have helped the facility stay amongst the upper echelon of team training facilities in all of professional sports.

In the summer of 2012, the Redskins and the Commonwealth of Virginia announced plans for $35 million in renovations to the team's Northern Virginia home. The plan includes financing from both the Commonwealth of Virginia and Loudoun County.

"The Washington Redskins have made significant improvements to modernize FedExField and Redskins Park, ensuring a best-in-class game day experience for our fans and an excellent training environment for our players," President Bruce Allen said. "We are very pleased to continue our relationship with the Commonwealth of Virginia that my father established 41 years ago. We are proud to call Loudoun County the home of Redskins Park."

In addition, the team officially opened the Redskins Indoor Training Facility in early 2012. The facility stands 96 feet high and houses a 120-yard practice field, complete with hanging uprights and space to accommodate the team's video needs.

"This is going to give us a great opportunity to work when we have some inclement weather," Allen said. "We're trying to find ways to maximize the players' health and efficiency."

In 2018, the Redskins renovated the facility with a state-of-the-art recovery center covering nearly 2,000 square feet of the main building's southwest corner. The innovative center features a cryotherapy chamber, photobiomodulation therapy bed and sensory deprivation float orbs in addition to a dedicated space for sports vision training, all intended to keep players at their physical and mental peaks throughout the course of each season.

The team has called the location its home since August of 1992, enjoying a private haven away from distractions. The complex features four football fields, strength training and sports medicine facilities, offices and meeting rooms for players, coaches and front office staff, and accommodations for print and broadcast media.

The Redskins officially welcomed Inova as the facility's namesake in 2016. That same year, the Redskins unveiled extensive renovations to the team's locker rooms to feature amenities geared to the modern athlete.

Located in Loudoun County, one of the fastest growing areas in the United States, Inova Sports Performance Center at Redskins Park is tucked away from highways and other office buildings. The two-story concrete and glass structure looks deceiving in size. Visitors enter a bright, spacious lobby that leads to three carefully groomed natural grass playing fields.

The lower level of the building is dedicated to football operations, including player and staff locker rooms, an enhanced strength and conditioning center, the equipment room, athletic training room, recovery center and video studio. The athletic training facilities include a hydrotherapy room, x-ray room and dentist office, in addition to private examining rooms for medical staff. During the 2013 renovations, the Redskins expanded their team kitchen on the lower level, allowing players and staff greater access to top-of-the-line nutritional options. Renovations continued during the 2015 offseason to expand the facility's upper floor, including a renovated lobby that welcomes guests with new trophy displays displaying the team's rich tradition and a multi-screen video board.

One side of the upper floor consists of coaches' and personnel offices and a large, 105-seat multipurpose auditorium, used for team meetings, press conferences and video sessions. The other side of the building houses offices for the club's accounting, marketing, public relations and administrative offices. The public area of the building consists of large hallways, high ceilings with natural lighting.

A studio was completed in the rear of the building in 2005. The glassed studio houses the Redskins Broadcast Network.

In 2005, an additional building adjacent to the main facility was constructed housing the Redskins Charitable Foundation, information technology and alumni departments, as well as the Media Workroom. The Workroom includes work stations, wireless internet, flat screen televisions, men's and women's restrooms and a kitchen.

TRAINING CAMP

The Washington Redskins will hold their 2018 Washington Redskins Training Camp beginning on Thursday, July 26. The schedule features a total of 25 public on-field sessions available to fans, highlighted by Fan Appreciation Day on Saturday, Aug. 4 and joint practice sessions with the New York Jets on Aug. 12-14.

The team holds its annual camp at the state-of-the-art Bon Secours Washington Redskins Training Center, which features two full-size natural grass fields, a natural grass drill field, spectator areas, locker rooms and a high-tech training room. The Bon Secours Virginia Health System ensures the facility serves as a valuable year-round resource for the community when camp is not in session. The facility serves as a full-service sports medicine rehabilitation and men's health center on the property throughout the year, in addition to offering men's health, fitness and education programs. The facility is also home to "movin' mania," Bon Secours' healthy kids initiative.

Training camp is an annual ritual in the NFL, an opportunity for fans from all over the country to come see their favorite Redskins players in action on the practice field.

Announced practices are open to fans, free of charge, including Fan Appreciation Day on Saturday, Aug. 4 and joint practices with the New York Jets on Aug. 12-14. Visitors are encouraged to bring lawn chairs or blankets, as they will be able to sit along the hill overlooking the playing fields. After each practice, fans will have the opportunity to gather autographs and take photos of their favorite players as they walk off the field to the locker rooms.

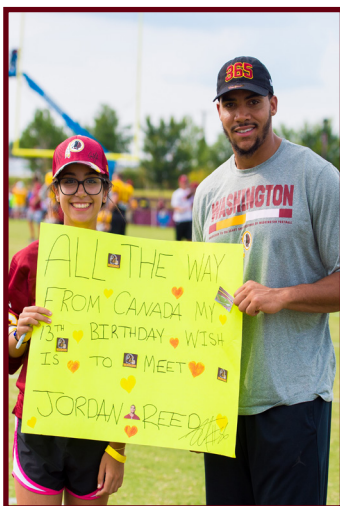

Credentialed media will have additional access to the players and practice areas, and can coordinate interviews through the Redskins Public Relations Department. All media attending Redskins Training Camp must obtain credentials to gain access to the grounds. For information about credential policies and procedures, media members should contact Tish Carmona of Redskins Public Relations at carmonat@redskins.com.

Detailed training camp practice schedules and more information about the Bon Secours Washington Redskins Training Center and a full training camp FAQ can be found by visiting www.redskins.com/trainingcamp.

THE GAMEDAY EXPERIENCE

WASHINGTON REDSKINS MARCHING BAND

The Washington Redskins Marching Band has led sellout crowds in stirring renditions of the team's fight song, "Hail to the Redskins," for generations. The Redskins Marching Band celebrated its 80th anniversary in 2017, having entertained Redskins fans at home games from Griffith Stadium to RFK Stadium to FedExField.

The all-volunteer ensemble formed in 1937, when George Preston Marshall brought the team from Boston to Washington D.C. with the goal of entertaining fans from the moment they walked into the stadium until the time they exited.

For more than three quarters of a century, the Marching Band has taken great pleasure in entertaining fans with their pre-game and halftime shows.

Over the years, the group has marched between train stations and stadiums before notable games, down Broadway before a New York Giants game in the early 1960s, and around the concourse of Tampa Stadium during Super Bowl XVIII.

"Hail to the Redskins" made its debut as the official fight song of the Washington Redskins on Aug. 17, 1938. The song was written by renowned band leader Barnee Breeskin and the lyrics were penned by Hollywood movie star Corinne Griffith, Marshall's wife.

HAIL TO THE REDSKINS

*"Hail to the Redskins!
Hail Victory!*

Braves on the warpath, Fight for old D.C.!

*Run or pass and score,
we want a lot more.*

Beat 'em, swamp 'em, touchdown, let the points soar!

*Fight on, fight on,
'til you have won,
Sons of Wash-ing-ton! (Rah! Rah! Rah!)"*

REDSKINS RING OF FAME

Hanging on the inside facade of FedExField are some of the most hallowed names in Redskins history. The names, encircling the playing field from above, pay tribute to 49 members of the organization whose contributions still resonate and reverberate through franchise history.

The Redskins Ring of Fame added its 49th member in 2016, inducting former General Manager Bobby Beathard during halftime of the team's victory against the Minnesota Vikings on Nov. 13, 2016.

Beathard's illustrious career as an NFL executive included 11 seasons as General Manager of the Redskins from 1978-88. After taking the job on Feb. 24, 1978, Beathard guided the organization to three Super Bowl appearances, including victories in Super Bowls XVII and XXII. Many of the players he acquired remained on the roster for the team's Super Bowl XXVI victory as well.

In Beathard's 11 seasons as General Manager, the Redskins averaged 9.5 wins a year. The team posted a regular season winning percentage of .625 (105-63) in that time frame, best in the NFC and second-best in the NFL. No team in that time frame posted a better postseason winning percentage than the Redskins, who went 11-3 in postseason play in his tenure for a winning percentage of .786.

Beathard began his career as a part-time scout for the American Football League's Kansas City Chiefs in 1963. He earned an AFL championship ring with the organization in 1966 en route to the team's berth in Super Bowl I. He would later serve as a scout for the Atlanta Falcons from 1968-71 and as Director of Player Personnel for the Miami Dolphins from 1972-77 prior to joining the Redskins. He finished his career as General Manager of the San Diego Chargers, serving in that capacity from 1990-2000.

In all, Beathard's teams made seven Super Bowl appearances, including one by Kansas City (1966), two by Miami (1972-73), three by Washington (1982-83 and 1987) and one by San Diego (1994).

Beathard worked with 23 of the previous 48 members of the Redskins' Ring of Fame in various capacities during his career and was responsible for the acquisition of 12 players or head coaches in that membership. He was also named by a blue ribbon panel as a member of the 80 Greatest Redskins in 2012 during the team's 80th Anniversary celebration.

MEET THE CAPTAINS

OF THE FIRST LADIES OF FOOTBALL

This year Jordyn, Erika, Heather, London, and Kellie will be the five ladies heading up the Redskins Cheerleaders as line captains. The team added 8 new Cheerleaders to the roster. The team is looking forward to overseas military appreciation tours, presented by GEICO Military, and recently just produced its 21st edition of their swimsuit calendar. The Cheerleaders have been rehearsing since April to bring the best performances to FedExField. You will be entertained by the world's most elite group who not only support the team, but also live, work and attend school in the Washington D.C. metro area. These educated women always find time to mentor youth in the area as well as volunteer to travel overseas to entertain our military men, women and families.

THE GAMEDAY EXPERIENCE

60 AND COUNTING...

1983 was our very first service to the Armed Services overseas in which we filmed a 64-second Christmas greeting. It was broadcasted regularly during the Holiday season through the Armed Forces Radio and Television network around the world, and was seen on all the deployed ships through their closed circuit television system. The First military tour overseas was in 1984, entertaining the armed forces in Turkey, Italy, Sicily, Spain, and the 6th fleet off the coast of France. As of August 2018 we have been on 60 tours outside the US to bring a touch of home to all the men and women around the world. The women of WRC truly enjoy volunteering their time to visit and entertain our troops and military families several times a year; and especially during tough holidays to be away from home like Thanksgiving and Christmas. The First Ladies of Football were the first entertainers to go to the front lines of the Kosovo War in July of 1999 and also the first entertainers to tour the entire country of Iraq in one tour; visiting 20 FOB's and Camps.

CHEERLEADERS VARIETY SHOW

In 1998 a 90 -minute Variety show that is dedicated to performing for the US Armed Forces was created. Today, the show is an elaborately costumed 12 segment theatrical production! With this show; The First Ladies of Football have performed for hundreds of thousands of active duty, retired, military members and their families, visited them at their duty stations and in their ODD schools. WRC has also organized and instructed youth cheer camps and adult fitness training sessions on military installations all around the world. Coming from our Nation's Capital, The Washington Redskins Cheerleaders have dedicated the last four decades to boosting the morale of our service members and their families.

WASHINGTON REDSKINS RADIO NETWORK

THE TEAM =980= 105.9 FM WMAL AM 630

Live broadcasts of Washington Redskins games can be heard in the Washington, D.C. area on The Team 980 (WTEM 980 AM) and WMAL (105.9 FM/630 AM).

The games can also be heard on the Redskins mobile app. Redskins fans are invited to join Pro Football Hall of Famer Sonny Jurgensen and Redskin greats Chris Cooley and Doc Walker for all the analysis as Larry Michael calls the action throughout the season.

The Redskins Radio Network provides wall-to-wall coverage with an information-packed pre-game show, halftime analysis, a recap driven post game show and all the play-by-play in-game action.

This season, Redskins fans can glean pregame and post-game insight from two of the most beloved characters in team history. Pro Football Hall of Famer John Riggins will contribute to Redskins Radio Network pregame shows, while Redskins great Clinton Portis will recap and analyze the day's proceedings on Redskins Radio Network postgame shows. The broadcasts with the franchise's two all-time leading rushers can be heard two hours before and after kickoff on The Team 980 and one hour before and after kickoff on WMAL.

In recent years, outside of the Washington, D.C., metropolitan area, the Redskins Radio Broadcast Network has covered multiple states, including Maryland, Virginia, North Carolina and West Virginia.

REDSKINS RADIO PERSONALITIES

Featuring a Pro Football Hall of Fame quarterback, two of the organization's most beloved tight ends and the team's broadcast voice, the Washington Redskins Radio Network is home to more than 100 combined years of professional broadcasting experience. Now entering their 15th season sharing the booth, play-by-play announcer Larry Michael will once again join Hall of Famer Sonny Jurgensen on the call for portions of the 2018 campaign. Redskins great Chris Cooley returns to the booth for his sixth straight season, and Rick "Doc" Walker enters his 11th season as the team's sideline reporter.

Larry Michael is the "Voice of the Washington Redskins." He also hosts Redskins Nation on a daily basis on NBC Sports Washington as well as The Redskins Coach's Show with Jay Gruden on NBC4. He is an 11-time Emmy Award Winner who currently serves as the team's Chief Content Officer. His responsibilities also include production of all video content for Redskins.com TV, as well as production of all Redskins Broadcast Network television shows and broadcasts.

Michael's recent hosting duties have also included WRC's Inside the Redskins and WTTG's Redskins Game Time. His resume includes eight Olympic Games, 21 U.S. Open Golf Championships, 12 Masters Tournaments and 12 Super Bowls. Michael has also showcased his vocal talent away from football, working as a part of HBO's Boxing Beat (1997-2003), Comcast SportsNet's Ballroom Boxing (1996-2006), as well as serving as the voice of the George Washington Colonials and as a play-by-play announcer for Westwood One.

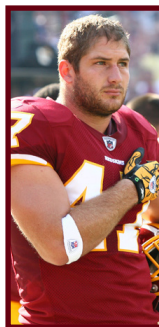

Michael is active in area charities, including the Leukemia and Lymphoma Society, and serves as a member of the Board of Trustees for the Joe Gibbs Youth for Tomorrow Youth Home.

A legend on the field and a legend in the booth, Sonny Jurgensen has been a part of the Washington Redskins family since 1964. Now entering his 38th season as the team's color analyst, he has called more than 600 games since 1981. Combining his tenures as a broadcaster and a player, Jurgensen has been involved in more than 800 games — including preseason and postseason — as part of the Redskins organization.

Jurgensen played 11 of his 18 NFL seasons in the burdandy and gold, ultimately earning induction into the Pro Football Hall of Fame in 1983. He is tied for the NFL record for longest pass completion (99 yards against Chicago on Sept. 15, 1968) and held the league mark for most seasons leading the league in passing yards (five) at the time of his retirement. A five-time Pro Bowl selection, he holds team records for most touchdown passes in a season (31 in 1967) and most consecutive games with a touchdown pass (23).

Jurgensen won five passing titles in his career as the NFL's passing yardage leader. He continues to be regarded as one of the best pure passers in the history of the game, as legendary coach Vince Lombardi once called him "the best I have seen." His name resides in the Redskins Ring of Fame, and he was chosen as one of the 70 Greatest Redskins as part of the team's 70th anniversary in 2002, later expanded to the 80 Greatest Redskins during the team's 80th Anniversary celebration in 2012.

Now in his sixth season as part of the Redskins Radio Network is former Redskins great Chris Cooley. Selected by the Redskins in the third round of the 2004 NFL Draft, Cooley spent nine seasons in Washington from 2004-12. In that time, he became the most prolific tight end in team history, recording 429 receptions, surpassing the great Jerry Smith for the most receptions by a tight end in Redskins annals (421). For his career, the affable two-time Pro Bowler appeared in 117 NFL games with 103 starts, all with the Redskins, gaining 4,711 receiving yards on 429 receptions with 33 receiving touchdowns.

Following his retirement from football, Cooley joined the radio business full-time during the 2013 offseason. In addition to his duties for game broadcasts, Cooley and serves as co-host of "Cooley and Kevin," which airs in drive time each weekday from 7-11 a.m. on The Team 980. The former art major at Utah State is also an avid pottery enthusiast and owns The Cooley Gallery in Leesburg, Va.

Serving as the broadcasts' sideline reporter is Rick "Doc" Walker, whose name is synonymous with the "Fun Bunch," the "Hogs," and other pieces of Redskins lore. In addition to sideline reporting for radio broadcasts, Walker co-hosts "Inside the Locker Room" on The Team 980 and hosts Doc Walker's ProView on MASN. His broadcast work past and present also includes college football analysis for ESPN, the Big East Network, Prime and Raycom Sports.

Walker appeared in 88 games with 55 starts in his seven-year playing career as a Redskin. His stat line with the team includes 56 receptions for 520 yards and six touchdowns from 1980-85. He helped the Redskins defeat the Miami Dolphins in Super Bowl XVII at the Rose Bowl in Pasadena, Calif., the same stadium in which he played college ball as a UCLA Bruin. Walker caught one pass for 27 yards and ran once for six yards in the Redskins' 27-17 Super Bowl victory.

On top of his broadcast duties, Walker is now an in-demand motivational speaker and hosts an annual golf tournament to help fight Alzheimer's.

REDSKINS BROADCAST NETWORK

The Emmy-Award-Winning Redskins Broadcast Network is the TV and Radio production department of the team. The content delivered by RBN includes preseason game broadcasts on NBC 4 and NBC Sports Washington. In addition, RBN produces original TV shows during the season, plus a daily show year-round, broadcast throughout the Washington, D.C. region:

- * Redskins Nation, which airs each day on NBC Sports Washington and is hosted by the "Voice of the Redskins" Larry Michael, originating from the Inova Sports Performance Center at Redskins Park with a daily look at the team.

- * The Redskins Coach's Show with Jay Gruden on NBC 4, where the Redskins' Head Coach breaks it down each week.

- * Inside the Redskins on NBC 4, which includes all things Redskins including highlights, interviews and features on the team.

- * Redskins Kickoff Preview on NBC 4 with former Redskins great Clinton Portis, which provides a hardcore, X's and O's pregame look at the team's upcoming contest.

- * Redskins Game Time on FOX 5, which gets fans set for kickoff each Sunday as the team prepares for Game Time.

- * Redskins Final on NBC 4, which wraps up the action each Sunday after Sunday Night Football.

- * Redskins Life on NBC 4, giving fans a look at the team both on and off the field and Redskins Chronicles features on the team's legacy.

- * Redskins Round Up on NBC Sports Washington, airing the day after each Redskins game with highlights and analysis from Chris Cooley and Clinton Portis.

In addition to its televised offerings, RBN produces exclusive online content that brings Redskins fans closer to their favorite players and coaches. Redskins.com videos provide fans with timely updates on news from team headquarters as well as exclusive interviews. This offseason, quarterback Alex Smith (pictured above) and first-round pick Daron Payne conducted their first interviews as official members of the Redskins on RBN and Redskins.com.

REDSKINS DIGITAL

FedExField plays host to the passion of Redskins fans on Sundays in the fall, but the Redskins' digital platforms serve as a gathering point for the team's ravenous fan base year-round. Redskins.com and the team's other digital properties are the leading source for direct access to Redskins' fans favorite team, including breaking news, complete team coverage, features, photo galleries, statistics and more.

No NFL team provides its fans more behind-the-scenes access and exclusive looks. On Redskins.com and various social media channels, Social Media and Digital Content Manager Bryan Van Balen and Photographer Garrett Campbell take the burgundy and gold faithful inside Inova Sports Performance Center at Redskins Park, on the team plane and in the locker room for pregame preparations and post-game celebrations while senior writer Stephen Czarda and staff writer Jake Kring-Schreifels keep fans abreast of team news. All of this exclusive content is available on-demand at fans' fingertips with the Washington Redskins Mobile App.

Redskins.com and the Redskins mobile app also offers exclusive interviews with players, coaches and team officials, an updated roster and depth chart, weekly game previews, a comprehensive history section and a section devoted to the Redskins Cheerleaders. Fans can also sign up for ticket information and weekly e-newsletters, as well as register for team events, such as training camp.

In the Redskins Official Online Store, fans from near and far can shop for the latest team merchandise, from team jerseys and caps to Redskins card tables and chairs.

The team's official Twitter account (@Redskins) provides up-to-the-minute updates, breaking personnel news, links to Redskins.com content and highlighted quotes from Redskins press conferences. The account, in conjunction with the team's Instagram (@Redskins) and Snapchat ("Redskins-Snap") accounts, offers fans a glimpse behind-the-scenes, including exclusive content at the NFL Draft, live Q&A's, notes from the practice field and sights inside the locker room on game day. The Redskins' Facebook page (Facebook.com/Redskins) gives fans a chance to sound off about their favorite players, see their own photos shared, vote in polls, see exclusive photos & video and win prizes.

In 2012, the Redskins became the first NFL team to work with Reddit to host a series of Reddit AMAs ("Ask Me Anything" chats) and have continued to have players engage with fans by taking over the team's various social platforms. Pro Bowler Ryan Kerrigan is among the many Redskins players to have welcomed fan questions on Reddit and other platforms. Recently, the Redskins have used Facebook Live to bring fans closer to their favorite players, hosting live Q&A sessions with quarterback Alex Smith and defensive lineman Jonathan Allen during the 2018 offseason.

Senior Vice President Tony Wyllie enters his ninth season with the Redskins in 2018 in the midst of his third decade of NFL service as a decorated communications professional.

He serves as an advisor to the principal owner on all issues related to public perception of the franchise. He shapes and molds the team image through all public contacts and publicity generation, serves as liaison between team and local and national media, oversees coordination of all interviews and serves as team spokesman.

Wyllie and his staffs have earned the Pete Rozelle Award, presented annually by Pro Football Writers of America to the best NFL public relations staff, five times during his career. He is the only executive in the NFL to have won the award with three different teams.

He has previously worked as an Assistant Director of Public Relations for the Los Angeles/St. Louis Rams (1994-98), the Director of Public Relations for the Tennessee Titans (1998-2000) and Vice President of Communications for the Houston Texans (2000-10). During his career, he helped guide the Rams franchise through their 1995 transition from Los Angeles to St. Louis and assisted with the relocation and renaming of the Tennessee Titans. He was one of the first hires of the expansion Texans in 2000, helping to build the new franchise's image even during the two years prior to the team's first game in 2002.

The Brooklyn native began his NFL career as a game day intern with the Houston Oilers in 1991 before working as a summer intern with the San Diego Chargers PR department in 1992. He spent 1993 as an intern in the PR department with the Dallas Cowboys. Wyllie has helped promote 12 Pro Football Hall of Famers in his career.

Wyllie worked three years in the sports information department of Texas Southern University, where he received his degree in journalism. Wyllie received TSU's "Distinguished Alumnus" award in 2004, and, in 2017, earned the President's Award, the school's highest alumni honor. He also earned an MBA from the Jones School of Business at Rice University. In 2015, Wyllie was honored with the SWAC Alumni Association Lifetime Achievement Award for his contributions to the Southwestern Athletic Conference's athletic heritage, and in September 2017, he was inducted into the National Black College Hall of Fame.

In Houston, Wyllie served on numerous Boards of Directors including the Ensemble Theatre, the March of Dimes, and the Management Leadership for Tomorrow-Houston, John P. McGovern Museum of Health & Medical Science, the Houston Texans YMCA and the Touchdown Club of Houston. He is currently on the boards of County Christian School in Ashburn, Va., and Central Loudoun Little League.

He and his wife, Natasha, are parents of son James Anthony and daughter Toni Simone. The family resides in Northern Virginia.

703-726-7422 // lewisz@redskins.com

Zena Lewis is entering his fourth season with the Washington Redskins as Media Services Coordinator after originally joining the team prior to the 2015 season.

Lewis is responsible for managing the media schedule and serves as the primary contact for media requests for Redskins players. He provides counsel and training for Redskins players as it pertains to media appearances and social media use.

Lewis joined the Redskins in 2015 with six previous years of game day media relations experience with various NFL organizations. In his second season with the Redskins in 2016, Lewis helped guide publicity efforts resulting in Pro Bowl selections for four members of the team.

Prior to joining the Redskins, Lewis contributed to the game day press operations of the Tennessee Titans (2009-10), Detroit Lions (2011), Miami Dolphins (2012 preseason) and Atlanta Falcons (2012-14). Lewis was responsible for coordinating and conducting interviews with visiting teams and helping contribute to other press box operations.

Prior to joining the Redskins, Lewis served as the Assistant Commissioner of Communications and New Media at the Southern Intercollegiate Athletic Conference, spearheading a redesign of the league's website. Before his time with the SIAC, Lewis served as Director of Media Relations for the Southwestern Athletic Conference, acting as the media liaison for the league office, its events and championships from 2012-14.

With the SWAC, Lewis was the primary media contact for football, baseball, bowling, volleyball and women's basketball. He executed a PR campaign, marketing plan and event operational procedures for the football and basketball championships' move to NRG Stadium and the Toyota Center in Houston, Texas. He also spearheaded PR efforts in response to Grambling State's football boycott in 2014.

Lewis' background also includes experience as Assistant Director of Public and Media Relations for the women's basketball program at the University of Michigan, Assistant Director of Sports and Media Relations at Tennessee State University, Communications Assistant for the Women's Basketball Coaches Association and as Assistant Director of Sports Information and Media Relations at Clark Atlanta University.

Lewis earned his bachelor's degree from Florida A&M University, majoring in broadcast journalism and public relations. He also ran varsity track and field, earning MEAC championship rings as a member of Florida A&M's title teams in 1995 and 1997.

Lewis is a native of Brooklyn, N.Y., and attended Santaluces H.S. in Palm Beach County, Fla. He now resides in Northern Virginia with his wife, Saidah, and has a son and a daughter.

703-726-7077 // carmonat@redskins.com

Tish Carmona is entering her second season as the Washington Redskins' Corporate Communications Manager after joining the team on a full-time basis prior to the 2017 season.

Carmona is responsible for sustaining a strong corporate image through positive media coverage for the Redskins outside the traditional scope of football, as well as assisting with the implementation of the league's public relations policies. She helps promote Redskins' community relations and marketing events, finding ways to project the organizations' coaches and players in a positive light. Carmona develops, coordinates and implements strategic communications plans, including media advisories, press releases, fact sheets and press kits.

Carmona first joined the Redskins as a spring public relations intern during the 2016 offseason. During that time, she helped facilitate interviews between media and Redskins personnel, helped edit the 2016 media guide and assisted with the compilation and distribution of daily news clips. She also contributed to the Redskins' game day press box operations at FedExField during the 2016 season, helping to oversee postgame transcript distribution.

Prior to joining the Redskins full-time, Carmona interned with the University of Maryland Athletics' Media Relations Department, Lagardere Sports, Factory Athletics and other various non-sports organizations. Carmona assumed her current role while completing coursework at the University of Maryland, leading up to her May 2017 commencement.

While at Maryland, Carmona was a member of the Honors College and majored in communications, specializing in public relations, and minoring in Spanish. She served as the President of Maryland's chapter of the Public Relations Student Society of America, where she founded the Vincent Tran Diversity Scholarship in memory of a former PRSSA member. Carmona went on to receive the Maryland Toth Outstanding PR Student award and the PRWeek Student of the Year title for 2017. She was also named as part of Front Office Sports' Rising 25 Class of 2018.

Carmona is a native of Queens, N.Y., but grew up in Ellicott City, Md. She currently resides in Northern Virginia.

2018 MEDIA INFORMATION

CREDENTIAL POLICY

The Washington Redskins grant credentials and media access based on merit as guided by the priorities listed below. Because of the limited space available at Inova Sports Performance Center at Redskins Park and FedExField, these priority guidelines are intended to facilitate the most efficient use of space for working media covering the Washington Redskins and the NFL.

Full credential request policies are detailed below. For more information about obtaining media credentials, please contact Tish Carmona at 703-726-7077 or by e-mail at carmonat@redskins.com.

The Redskins prioritize outlets in the following order:

1. Broadcast partners, including television and radio personnel responsible for live broadcasts of Washington Redskins games.
2. Local beat reporters who cover the team on a daily basis for large-scale local outlets, including newspapers, wire services, radio stations and television affiliates that cover the Washington Redskins and the NFL on a regular basis.

3. Large-scale national outlets, including national newspapers, magazines, television stations, websites and more.

4. Washington, D.C. metro area community publications and stations.

5. Out-of-town community outlets on specific assignment to cover Redskins personnel of unique interest to the outlet's market [e.g.: a player's hometown newspaper].

6. Blogs, internet radio and other independent outlets, whose merit and credential consideration is subject to the discretion of Redskins Public Relations.

Policies for visiting scouts are handled separately in accordance with the 2018 Scouting Policy as distributed to all NFL teams prior to the season.

The following guidelines will be observed in granting access:

1. Season credentials will be reserved for organizations that provide consistent and substantial coverage of the Washington Redskins. Please be advised that a season media credential does not guarantee working space in media work areas.

2. With the exception of seasonally credentialed Redskins beat reporters who produce daily on-site reports, all credentials at both locations are approved and issued on a daily and/or game-by-game basis.

3. Passes and credentials are transferable within the same media outlet for use by those serving an editorial function with proper notice and approval by Redskins Public Relations. Passes used by any member of a credentialed outlet without specific editorial assignment or by non-working members of the organization are subject to revocation and will affect all future credentialing decisions by Redskins Public Relations for that outlet.

4. As the result of limited work space, credentials will not be issued to freelance writers or photographers without a specific assignment received in writing by the assigning organization.

5. Credentials may be issued: a) to online entities that are affiliated with a national or regional media organization; or, b) to online entities that host a website that regularly and substantially reports on the National Football League or the Washington Redskins, and employs for that website at least one full-time permanent employee who writes a substantial majority of all material posted on the site. Priority for these sites will be based on potential audience at the discretion of Redskins Public Relations.

6. Redskins personnel may deny or revoke credentials without notice and an individual shall surrender his/her credential upon request for: noncompliance with the priorities or guidelines set out in this policy; noncompliance with health, safety, or security directives issued regarding Redskins events; and for conduct for which there are reasonable grounds to believe violate state or federal law, or constitute a breach of professional ethics. Any organization that wishes to contest a denial or revocation may: a) request Redskins Public Relations provide a written rationale for the denial or revocation; b) submit a written response to that rationale to the Senior Vice President of Communications.

7. Redskins Public Relations reserves the right to change this policy at any time.

MEDIA PORTAL/MEDIA GUIDE

The Redskins' Public Relations department has a media website (media.redskins.com) designed to serve the needs of all media members who cover the organization. The site contains the annual media guide and weekly game guides including stats, rosters, personnel bios and much more. Media can also access the media website by visiting Redskins.com and clicking on "Media Guide" located at the bottom of the News & Events tab.

PRESS INFORMATION

All Redskins press releases and weekly media packets are distributed via e-mail. Please contact the Redskins Public Relations department to be added to the team's email distribution list for all press releases and media advisories.

Media can access the latest league press information from the NFL's media website at www.nflcommunications.com.

MEDIA WORKROOM

The media workroom at Inova Sports Performance Center at Redskins Park is located inside the annex building adjacent to the main entrance. The room is available to working media throughout the week. Phones, rosters, transcripts and other information will be available in this area.

VIDEO STREAMING

Media availabilities, open practice sessions and other team activities on club premises may not be broadcast live by an individual or media outlet without prior approval from the Washington Redskins. This includes the use of social media applications such as Facebook Live and Periscope among others.

PRACTICE ACCESS

During the regular season, Wednesday-Friday practices will be open to local media who regularly cover the team for designated periods. Upon arrival at the practice facility, please go to the media workroom where a member of the public relations staff will escort you to practice. To request a Redskins Park Media Credential, email Tish Carmona (carmonat@redskins.com) at least one (1) day prior to your scheduled visit. Any media member without a Redskins Park Media Credential provided by the Washington Redskins Public Relations department will not be permitted access to the facilities. NO INFORMATION FROM PRACTICE THAT MAY COMPROMISE THE TEAM'S COMPETITIVE ADVANTAGE IS ALLOWED TO BE DISTRIBUTED VIA ANY MEDIA PLATFORM. This includes personnel groupings, formations, injury speculation, specific plays and more as judged by Redskins Public Relations. Failure to comply could lead to revocation of credentials.

JAY GRUDEN INTERVIEWS

Head Coach Jay Gruden will conduct a weekly news conference at 3 p.m. ET on Mondays in the Media Interview Room. He will also be available after practice on Wednesday, Thursday and Friday of each game week. One-on-one requests should be sent to Tony Wyllie (wylliet@redskins.com).

COORDINATOR INTERVIEWS

During the regular season, Defensive Coordinator Greg Manusky will be formally available after practice on Thursdays. Offensive Coordinator Matt Cavanaugh will be formally available after practice on Fridays. All requests for coordinators beyond that time will be evaluated on a case-by-case basis in accordance with the coaches' scheduling availability.

ASSISTANT COACH INTERVIEWS

All requests for assistants must be arranged through the Redskins Public Relations with at least 24 hours notice. Position coaches are available for questions on specific players and the position group only. No position coaches should be contacted directly by telephone (at an office line, at home or by cell phone) or by email.

PLAYER INTERVIEWS

The Redskins' locker room is open to accredited media for specific interview periods during the week. The locker room is generally open to the media for 45 minutes following practices on Wednesdays, Thursdays and Fridays of normal game weeks. All one-on-one requests should be arranged through the Redskins PR department at least 48 hours in advance. All interviews must be conducted inside the locker room unless additional permission is granted by a Redskins PR staff member. NO B-ROLL, STILL PHOTOGRAPHY OR LIVE STREAMING IS ALLOWED INSIDE THE LOCKER ROOM. Interviews to be conducted by phone must be arranged through Redskins PR prior to the day of the scheduled interview. All times are subject to change without prior notice.

GAME CREDENTIALS

Demand for credentials is high, and as such, the size and legitimacy of each media outlet requesting access will be considered on a case-by-case basis and subject to the discretion of Redskins Public Relations. Full details on credentialing decisions are available at the beginning of this policy.

For home games, all requests must be submitted through the team's online credentialing system located at www.redskins.com/credentials no later than 5 p.m. ET on Tuesday of that particular game week.

For away games, all requests must be e-mailed to Tish Carmona (carmonat@redskins.com) and must include attending media members' name, job title, media affiliation and pick-up preference (Redskins Park or Media Will Call). All requests must be submitted 10 days in advance of the requested road game.

GAME DAY PARKING

There are a limited number of season-long parking passes at FedExField for media members to purchase. All media members are welcome to park, free of charge, at the Media Parking Lot at the Grey Lot at FedExField.

In addition, television trucks that provide satellite, uplink or microwave functions will be parked in Lot B1. Media that wish to bring a truck to a Redskins game must contact both Jeff Gillies (gilliesj@redskins.com) and Tish Carmona (carmonat@redskins.com) no later than Monday of that particular game week.

MEDIA ENTRANCE AND WILL CALL

The media entrance and Media Will Call are located at the South Field Tunnel by Gate B. All media members that have been confirmed by the Redskins Public Relations department must enter through the media entrance.

The appropriate game credential must be presented at the media entrance for admission into the stadium. For security purposes, the Redskins do not send out game-by-game credentials prior to game day. All media picking up credentials on game day must do so at Media Will Call.

A valid form of government-issued photo identification is required to pick up credentials. Media Will Call will open 3.5 hours prior to kickoff.

FREQUENCY COORDINATOR

All credentialed media members who will be using a wireless radio frequency device such as a wireless microphone, communications radio, etc. (cell phones excluded) on FedExField property must register their frequency information. To do so, please contact the NFL Game Day Coordinator, Bill Sien, via email at redskinsgdc@yahoo.com or by phone at 730-915-8501 no later than Tuesday of that particular game week.

INTERNET AND PHONE LINES

FedExField features complimentary wireless internet in the press box and photo room. You will be supplied with access information in those areas. Media interested in setting up a game day phone line at FedExField should fill out a request form which can be obtained by emailing Tish Carmona at carmonat@redskins.com no later than Monday of that particular game week.

PHOTOGRAPHERS

Photographers who are credentialed for sideline access will be required to wear a photo vest. Sideline access for NFL games is limited to photographers on assignment for recognized news organizations. No one except network television personnel and authorized game personnel will be admitted on the field without a camera. All field photographers must remain outside the bench areas and outside the yellow border surrounding the playing field.

POSTGAME INTERVIEWS AND LOCKER ROOM ACCESS

Members of the media needing to conduct post-game interviews will be given access to the Redskins' and visiting team's interview rooms after the game, as well as the home and visiting locker rooms. A Redskins PR representative will escort media down to the interview areas with four minutes remaining in the game. No B-Roll, still photography, live streaming or autographs are allowed in the Redskins locker room. No interviews are allowed on or coming off the field following the game. Following the customary 12-minute cooling off period at the conclusion of the game, the Redskins' and visiting team's locker rooms will be open to the media. Redskins Head Coach Jay Gruden will be available in the postgame interview room. To get there, take the stairs to the field level and follow the signs to the locker and interview rooms. Following Coach Gruden, additional players may be brought into the interview room. Press conferences will also be shown on the televisions in the press box as they occur.
